

Grangers' News

UNION HILL—Union Hill grange social night will be Saturday.

The committee in charge is Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Krenz.

grange held a covered dish dinner followed by a business meeting in the grange hall Tuesday. It was arranged that the newly elected officers be installed at Pomona grange tonight in Macleay.

A Christmas program is planned for the next meeting, December 23.

Elhaney was hostess to the members and friends of the Union Hill grange home economics club at her home Wednesday.

Mrs. W. F. Krenz resigned as chairman of the club and Mrs. W. M. Tate was elected in her place.

Other newly elected officers are Mrs. Phillip Fischer, vice chairman; Mrs. Henry Peters, secretary and Mrs. John Steinberger, treasurer.

A Christmas gift exchange was enjoyed by members present. Mrs. W. M. Tate presented the program.

Present were Mrs. M. M. Gilmore, Mrs. Paul Jaquet, Mrs. F. T. Fox and Frances, Mrs. Carrie Townsend, Mrs. H. H. Peters, Mrs. W. M. Tate, Mrs. O. W. Humphreys, Mrs. Verna Scott and Keith, Miss Laurel Krenz, Mrs. John Steinberger, Mrs. J. C. Krenz, Mrs. Glen Parrish, Mrs. W. F. Krenz and the hostess, Mrs. J. O. Darby was a visitor.

WOODBURN—The Woodburn grange had as its dinner guests Saturday some of the local men who have been actively connected with the north Marion county fair and others who have been interested in the fair.

Guests included C. G. Rue, J. Melvin Ringo, Killian Smith, Jess Fikan, John Ramage, Winton Hunt, Fred Hecker, Rodney Alden and Mrs. Ray Glatt.

It was indicated by the chamber of commerce which sponsored the fair, that there would probably be another fair next year.

Special Meet Called

WOODBURN—The WCTU will hold a special meeting today at the Methodist parsonage at 388 Broadway. This is an important meeting and all members are urged to be present.

Hens Go on War Basis

Poultry hatcheries and egg producing plants are subject to blackout regulations the same as are all other non-essential industries, Jerrold Owen, state civilian defense coordinator, said here Thursday.
