

HONOR GUESTS—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Givens will be honored at a 50th wedding anniversary reception on Tuesday night at the Waldo Hills community club house.

Anniversary Celebrated In "Hills"

WALDO HILLS—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Givens will observe their golden wedding and anniversary Tuesday night at Waldo Hills community club house. Relatives and friends are being invited through the press to attend the reception that will begin at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Givens is a native of Waldo Hills. She was Florence Riches, born August 31, 1873, the daughter of George S. P. and Mary Jane Riches, pioneers.

Mr. Givens was born in Canada in 1870 and came to Oregon with his parents, George and Isabella Givens in 1871. They settled in Waldo Hills on what was known as the McAlpin place.

They were married in Salem on December 23, 1891, in the Marion hotel. Witnesses at the ceremony were Mr. Givens' sister, Mrs. Mary Sappinfield now of Pratum and George Clymber, brother-in-law, now of Macleay.

Children of the couple are Mary Vearrier of Portland, Millie Kaser of Forest Grove, Thelma Dahlen of West Fir, Mrs. Alice Parrish of Sublimity and Kenneth Givens at home.

Wisteria Club Slates Dance

Members of the Wisteria club have scheduled a New Year's dance for Tuesday, December 30 at the Veteran's hall from 9 to 12 o'clock. Barney Cropp's orchestra will play for dancing and members may bring guests for the affair.

The Pollyanna club met on Friday at the home of Mrs. Robert Burton. During the informal afternoon, gifts were exchanged.

Present were Mrs. Jack Pryzabilla and Dennis, Mrs. Ed Forman, Marilyn and Janet, Mrs. Dean Tucker and Roger, Mrs. Wallace Seguin and Jacqueline, Mrs. Leslie Smith, Buddy and Richard, Mrs. Melvin Propp, Melvin Jr. and Jerry Lee, Mrs. Robert Burton, Sherry and Ronald. Mrs. Smith will entertain on January 2.

CLUB NEWS

Junior Club Will Begin Classes

Salem Junior Woman's club members will hold their annual Christmas party at the clubhouse Monday night at 8 o'clock. Miss Lois Coomber is in charge and the committee includes Miss Phyllis Gardner, Mrs. W. Martin, Mrs. W. G. Nibler, Mrs. Jessie Baer and Miss Mabelle Frazier.

Mrs. Maurice Saffron is arranging the program and each member will bring gifts for the Hillcrest Home. Refreshments will follow the party. A board meeting will precede the affair at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond presiding.

Miss Hazel Shutt, chairman of the Old People's Home committee, arranged for the MacDowell club sextet to sing carols at the Home Monday night.

The Junior club will begin first aid classes on January 6. The classes will be open to all members and interested persons. Reservations must be made by January 1 with the chairman, Mrs. Ray Lafky, 21180, or any of the committee members, Mrs. W. G. Nibler, Mrs. George Roth, Mrs. L. Merrill Falkenhagen or Mrs. R. Mink.

The classes will be held twice a week, or equivalent to two hours, including a ten weeks course.

Club Members Will Carol

Singing of Christmas carols is a part of the MacDowell club activities each year. The club prepares an itinerary that takes it to the greater portion of Salem and is now receiving requests from shut-ins who desire to hear the carols. Members will meet at the Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 Monday and take a bus at 7:45 to points in the city.

Following the caroling MacDowell members will go to the home of Miss Blanche Gibson, 1455 Saginaw street, to be entertained at an informal party given by the club president, Miss Lois Steinke.

The Okicuyapi Camp Fire girls chose the following new officers: President, Donna Seay; vice president, Betty Wieser; secretary, Virginia Bowers; treasurer, Irene Boatwright; scribe, Ruth Fuller; song leader, Edris Stewart, and social, Gloria McDowell.

A gift exchange was enjoyed by the members following the business meeting.
