Ceremony Is Held in Seattle

Miss Mildred Brunkal and Mr. Robert R. DeArmond were married at the University Christian church in Seattle on Sunday, December 28. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mattie Robinson of Salem and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. DeArmond of Independence.

Rev. Warren J. Hastings read the service at 9:30 o'clock. The bride chose an Alice blue afternoon frock with gold nail head trim for her wedding. Her accessories were black and she wore an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Anderson of Mt. Vernon, Wash., were the couple's only attendants. Mrs. Anderson wore a pastel blue velvet frock and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds.

The bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sherrill of Mt. Vernon, entertained with a dinner for the newlyweds on December 29 at their home. Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sherrill and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sherrill.

The bridal couple went north to Vancouver, B.C. on their wedding trip and returned to Salem after New Year's. They are now at home at 1845 Grant street.

The bride attended Salem schools and her husband received his education in Vaie. He later attended Oregon State college. Mr. DeArmond is now in business with his father in Independence.

Pattern

A busy youngster needs lots of action frocks! Make her this "demi-dirdl!"—Pattern 4878 by Anne Adams. The four-piece dirdl skirt is gathered into a set-in waistband and is very gay and young. So is the novel, pointed yoke topped by an optional Peter Pan collar! The yoke is bias-cut when the dress is made all of one fabric, for example, a striking hop-scotch plaid! It is straight-cut when made of contrast together with the collar and brief sleeve bands. Long sleeves are optional, they're gathered into a snug wristband. The Sewing Instructor is expert in showing you every detail of this pattern. You'll be finished so quickly, you'll not make two sprightly versions for your child!

Pattern 4878 is available in girls' sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14. Size 10, short sleeve dress, takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric; long sleeve dress, 2 1/2 yards 54 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins Write plainly NAME, ADDRESS AND STYLE NUMBER. Here comes the Spring Fashion Parade in the new Anne Adams Pattern Book—JUST OUT! Each style is new, smart and easy to make. The latest silhouettes are shown in day and evening modes. There are 25 trim street outfits; smart town-and-country costumes; American-designed prints and cottons. Slimming on-a-budget matron styles. Graduation and wedding gowns. Deb date-frocks; "small-frill" play and party clothes. A book of fashion—for fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents. Book and Pattern together, twenty-five cents.

Send your order to The Oregon Statesman, Pattern Department, Salem, Oregon.

Bride-Elect Visits in Capital

A visitor in the capital this week has been Miss Jean Morrison of Walla Walla, bride-elect of Ensign Coburn Grabenhorst. She was the house guest of the bridegroom-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Grabenhorst, sr.

The wedding of the young couple had previously been calendared for February 14 but due to war conditions the ceremony will take place on Saturday, January 17, at the Episcopal church in Walla Walla at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. It will be a double wedding, with Jean's twin sister, Miss June Morrison, marrying Mr. Robert Sigler.

For the pleasure of the bride-elect and visitor Mrs. James H. Nicholson, jr., was hostess for an informal "at home" Monday night at her apartment at the Royal Court. Pink and white carnations provided the decorative note on the serving table.

Bidden to meet Miss Morrison were Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mrs. Robert Drager, Mrs. Harvey Quistad, Mrs. Russell Woodward, Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Mrs. George Grabenhorst, jr., Mrs. Russell McJury, Mrs. Robert Cannon, Mrs. Lester Carter, Miss Helen Wiedmer, Miss Maxine McKillop and Miss Barbara Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. George Grabenhorst, sr., were hosts for a family dinner Tuesday night at their home on Fir street in compliment to their future daughter-in-law. Places were laid for Miss Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. George Grabenhorst, jr., Miss Barbara Williams, Mr. Richard Grabenhorst and Mr. and Mrs. George Grabenhorst, sr.

Miss Morrison returned to her Walla Walla home Wednesday night.

Woman's Club Will Meet

Salem Woman's club members will have the opportunity of hearing Mrs. Roy S. Keene, Mrs. Waldo Zeller and Mrs. George Lewis tell of their experiences while in Honolulu at the time of the Pearl Harbor attack at the regular meeting of the club on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A board meeting will be held at 1:30 o'clock with Mrs. George H. Swift, president, presiding.

Mrs. W. S. Levens heads the tea committee and assisting are Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mrs. Hannah Martin, Mrs. Frank G. Myers and Miss Amanda Matthews.

MONMOUTH — Miss Irene Neugart, Monmouth, became the bride of Mr. Charles Barry, Albany, on New Year's eve. The Rev. Ralph Helms of Albany read the service at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. E. M. Trapp, in Albany.

Candlebras with white tapers lighted the background of holly, Jerusalem cherries and other holiday greenery, in the reception rooms. The bride wore a frock of sheer aqua wool and corsage of rosebuds and heather. Mrs. Trapp was her sister's matron of honor. Mrs. Francis M. Barry, Albany, was his brother's best man. An informal reception followed.

The bride has been commercial instructor at the high school here since 1940. She was graduated from Albany college and the University of Washington. Mr. Barry attended Oregon College of Education and the University of Nevada. He is now associated with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company at Albany. Mrs. Barry will retain her teaching position here.

LYONS — Mrs. Daisy Johnston, Mrs. Joe Weitman and Miss Violet Weitman were hostesses of the Women's Society of Christian Service, with the meeting held at the community club house Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Daisy Johnston was in charge of devotions. Present were Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Albert Ring, Mrs. Tom Owen, Mrs. George Huffman, Mrs. Robert Fetherston, Mrs. Oral Tolland, Mrs. Alex Kulken, Mrs. Klempell, Mrs. Paul Johnston, Mrs. Daisy Johnston, Mrs. Joe Weitman and Miss Violet Weitman. The next meeting will be held January 20 with Mrs. Robert Fetherston and Mrs. Oral Tolland as hostesses.

LIVING IN SEATTLE—Mrs. John Erikson (Marion Aplin) before her marriage on December 24 in Seattle. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Aplin and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Erikson, all of Salem. The bride attended Willamette university and the groom is now with Boeing Aircraft.

Breakfast Club Initiates

The Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club held its regular meeting at Miller's tea room Tuesday, Lillian Kayser presiding. A special guest was Miss Verna Dillon.

Lena Blum, president of the Pacific northwest council of breakfast clubs, initiated six new members. Those initiated were Edith Calvin, Betty Fields, Nadine Warner, Helen Benner, Jean Gardner and Jean Stattler.

Isabelle Leeper gave a report on a family taken care of by the club. Miss Leeper was chairman and Virginia Wells, co-chairman. The secretary, Helen Livingston, gave a talk on incendiary and other bombs.

TURNER — Complimenting Miss Zena Hogged of Nespelum, Wash., popular bride-elect whose wedding to Roger DeLorm will be an event of February 14, Mrs. W. R. Hogged entertained with a gift shower at her home here January 2, assisted by Mrs. Paul Kitzmiller of Dallas.

Following the presentation of gifts, refreshments were served to the honor guest, Miss Zena Hogged, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rickard and Jean, Mrs. Mary Mohr, Mrs. Ella Swink and Miss Eleanor Warner of Chemawa, Miss Sophia Thadei of Port Alexander, Alaska, Miss Nema Hogged of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Martin Shower, Mrs. Roy Hatfield, Mrs. Ray Grim, Mrs. Chester Stewart, Mrs. Leo Klokstad and Eryln, Mrs. George Nelson and Harold, Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, sr., Mrs. Adolph Nelson and Marlene, Mrs. Paul Kitzmiller, Wilma and Pauline of Dallas, Miss Pearl Hogged and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hogged.

INDEPENDENCE — Mrs. Roy S. Keene of Salem was the guest speaker Tuesday at the regular meeting of the Independence Woman's club. She told of her experiences in the Hawaiian islands.

Mrs. Hugh Rogers played two selections on the viola harp, accompanied by Mrs. D. Hultman. Dr. Frank Parr of Oregon State college will be speaker on January 20, and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding of Dallas will have charge of the music.

Hostesses were Mrs. Iva D. Mix, Mrs. F. E. Hennagin and Mrs. Verd Hill.

WOODBURN — Miss Lucile Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bascom H. Hughes of Woodburn, was married to Private Jack Mains at a quiet ceremony which took place at Monterey, Calif., December 31.

Mrs. Mains, who has been teaching at Bonanza, near Klamath Falls, returned to continue teaching school.

Today's Menu

Oranges and raisins will make a fine salad to go with a fish dinner.

Orange-raisin salad
Oyster stew-paprika crackers
Buttered peas
Celery sticks
Baked apples
Fig cookies

FIG ROYALS

1 1/2 cups dried figs
1 7-ounce bar semi sweet chocolate
1 cup butter
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar (packed)
1 cup white sugar
3 eggs
3/4 cup coarsely chopped walnut meats
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla extract
3/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

Pour boiling water over figs, let stand about 10 minutes, drain, clip stems, and grind or chop figs fine. Cut chocolate into pieces about the size of a small pea. Cream butter and shortening. Add sugars and cream thoroughly. Add well beaten eggs and beat. Add figs, nuts, chocolate and flavoring and stir to blend. Add flour sifted with baking powder and salt and mix until figs and chocolate are evenly distributed. Drop by spoonful onto ungreased cookie sheet about 3 inches apart. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 12 to 15 minutes. Cool and spread with icing, if desired.

Makes approximately 5 dozen medium-sized cookies.

"Don't give me that 'Oscar' —

You can't make a bad cup of M.J.B.

—Veronica Lake tells Academy Award winner Preston Sturges, director of Paramount's "SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS"

PRESTON: Everything's wrong! Rain's held up shooting those outdoor scenes—and it makes things worse, I had a bum pot of coffee for lunch.

VERONICA: I can't do anything about the weather, but I can give you some good coffee. Try this.

PRESTON: Swell! A little weaker than I usually take coffee, but it has plenty of flavor.

VERONICA: Oh—you prefer stronger coffee? O.K., I'll make some.

PRESTON: Marvellous! Black as night, but not bitter. You deserve the Academy Award for this, Veronica.

VERONICA: I thank you, but I really don't rate that "Oscar." Everybody knows you can't make a bad cup of M. J. B.

Here's why it never fails! Make your coffee with the same care as you have in the past. These two exclusive M. J. B. features—a uniform roast—and double blending—will give you the finest cup of coffee you ever tasted!

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK! Buy a pound of M. J. B. If you don't agree it's better than any other coffee—return the lid to M. J. B. Co., and we will refund double your purchase price.
