

Army Folk To Leave Salem

News this week concerns members of the army contingent who are leaving their posts for new stations and wives who are joining their husbands.

Mrs. Reynolds Allen and her three children, Sara Ann, Molly Tolle and Jimmy Jay, are en-training Sunday for Anniston, Alabama, to join Lt. Allen, who has been stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia, since fall. His new post will be at Camp McClelland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Martin will be hosts for a buffet supper and bridge party Friday night at their North Church street home for the pleasure of Mrs. Alken. Covers will be placed for the honor guest, Miss Margaret Wagner, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hague, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. Howard Adams, who is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Corey, has received word from Lt. Adams that he will be stationed at Fort Francis E. Warren, Wyoming. He has been at Camp Lee, Virginia, and is now en route west. Mrs. Adams plans to join her husband in several weeks.

Miss Beryl Holt is entertaining informally tonight at her apartment at the Royal Court in honor of Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Adams.

Mrs. Homer L. Goulet was in Salem the first of the week and will be back soon with her sons, Phillip and Garrett. Lt. Goulet, who has been at McChord field, is leaving for Boise where he will be stationed. Mrs. Goulet and her sons will be at their country home for several weeks before leaving for Boise. Lt. and Mrs. Harry V. Carson (Bobbe Shinn) are driving west this week from Fort Benning, Georgia, to San Jose, Calif., where they will report on Sunday. Before leaving Georgia, Mrs. Carson visited with Mrs. Ronald Husk (Barbara Evans) and her small daughter, Captain and Mrs. Husk will report back to Fort Lewis the first of February.

With Salem Folk at OSC

By ILENE PAULSON

Oregon State is back to normalcy after spending part of last week on a dark, cold campus. Most students tried to keep warm by fireplaces, but a few lucky ones had wood furnaces and gas cookstoves.

In houses with electric stoves students accepted invitations from other houses to come for hot meals. Jim Leedy, Phi Gamma Delta, helped entertain the Chi Omega girls when they ate dinner at the Fiji house. Jim, incidentally, is back after over a year's absence from school because of illness. Also, hosts to a sorority were Bill Shinn, Norman Sholseth, and Oscar Paulson, SAEs, whose invitation was accepted by the Pi Beta Phi.

Frances Anne Mott, back after a term's absence, visited with Vic Gibson and Jack Hayes when the Betas joined the Thetas in a warm meal. The Alpha Gamma Deltas of which Georgia Cook and Jeanne Donaldson are pledges, were among the fortunate few who had gas stoves and were not inconvenienced.

The silver thau caused a great deal of damage to the beautiful shrubbery on the campus and many Oregon State grads in the future will sadly look at the disfigured and broken trees.

Bill Fillmore, editor of the Oregon State Technical Record, has been busy preparing the quarterly publication of the engineering school. In this capacity, he attended the Greater Halls' tea Sunday at Waldo Hall. This is an annual affair given by Waldo, Snell and Waldo Annex for presidents, secretaries, and representatives of all the clubs, honor societies, and living organizations on the campus.

Phi Delta pledges Don Bower and Jim Hatfield visited the University of Oregon campus last week. Don and Bob Irish have done well in basketball practice and may play in the rook game this weekend. Bill Page, Delta Tau Delta pledge, was at the tryouts for the rook crew and has also been skiing for the Suki club.

David Van Cleave is now general forum chairman of the Wesley Foundation, Methodist church group on the campus. Glen Nordquist, member of the Willamette university football team, started the discussions last Sunday by speaking on "What I Saw at Pearl Harbor."

A few of the Salem students attending the all-school sport dance at the Memorial Union ballroom Saturday night were Helen Smith, Jeanne Donaldson, Dorothy Pyatt, Peggy Reinholdt, Doris Harrington, Bill Shinn, Don Bower and Bob Irish. Also at the dance was Jean Holstein, a visitor on the campus now as he finished school last term. Jean, cadet colonel of the ROTC last year, has been summoned to report for army duty in Georgia, January 21.

Delta Phi alumnae will be entertained tonight at the home of Mrs. Albert Cohen, 2200 Chemeketa street, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Waldo Zeller will talk informally to the group on her experiences in Honolulu.

Sophomores To Dance Friday

"Winter Sports" will be the theme of the dance sponsored by the sophomore class at the senior high school Friday night from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Evangeline Mokiney is general chairman of the affair.

Committees include general, Evangeline McKinley, Donna Unruh, Evan Boise; decoration, Pat Mase, George Manning, Charlotte Mathis; patrons and patronesses, Pat Viesko; publicity, George Manning. Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. Bryman Boise, Mrs. Theresa Reinhart, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McKinley, Mr. and

Delta Zetas at Bowers Home

Mrs. Floyd Bowers was hostess to the alumnae of Delta Zeta sorority at her new home on North 15th street Tuesday night. A dessert was served and the group sewed for Bundles for Britain.

The Alpha Phi Alpha alumnae were entertained at the sorority house on Court street Tuesday night and hostesses were Mrs. William DePew and Mrs. Ronald Crossland. After the business meeting Mrs. Waldo Zeller talked to the group of her experiences in Honolulu. Attending were Mrs. Paul Heath, Mrs. Wilmer Wells, Mrs. Richard Smart, Mrs. William DePew, Mrs. Norval E. Edwards, Mrs. Roy Harland, Mrs. Ronald Crossland, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Miss Eva Cochran, Miss Jannette Brown, Mrs. Frank Earnest and Mrs. H. B. Parker of Corvallis. Sexton, Miss Maxine Paulsen and Mrs. Bowers.
