

Miss Travis To Wed in Tacoma

Miss Bette Travis and Staff Sergeant Carlton Alec Dearman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dearman of Goliad, Texas, will be married in Tacoma Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The bride will wear a two-piece mist blue flannel suit and a moulton lamb chubby. Her accessories will be brown. Miss Eleanor Rosson will accompany Miss Travis to Tacoma and will be her honor attendant. She will wear a pastel blue tailleur and black accessories.

After their marriage Sergeant Dearman and his bride will reside in Tacoma. He is now stationed at McChord field. Miss Travis formerly lived in Boston and has been a member of the state tax commission here.

Activities for Week Told

The American Legion auxiliary will meet Monday, February 2, in Legion home and the national defense committee will be in charge.

Mrs. Frank Marshall, president, has asked members to bring books for the Victory book campaign.

Another benefit luncheon is planned for Thursday, February 5, in the dining hall of Legion home from 12 to 1:30 o'clock. Reservations may be made at 3369.

Serving on the luncheon committee last Thursday were: Mesdames Ella Voves, J. A. Garson, M. Y. Brooks, H. B. Pearson, S. G. Hinkle, Aut. Tussing, C. V. Richardson, C. H. Jarvis, Leon Habernicht, Phil Shobar, George Averett, W. H. Baillie, Frank Marshall, Julius Hopp, Glen Kirkwood and Miss Mabel McGee.

The sewing group will meet each Thursday afternoon, completing articles for toddler age for the American Red Cross. Another allotment of articles has been promised by the sewing chairman, Mrs. H. F. Perkins.

Present Thursday were: Mrs. Harold Perkins, Mrs. Onas Olson, Mrs. H. B. Pearson, Mrs. S. G. Hinkle, Mrs. Glen Kirkwood, Mrs. Julius Hopp, Mrs. C. V. Richardson, Mrs. Phil Shobar, Mrs. Fred Gahlsdorf, Miss Jessie Rodman and Mabel McGee.

Citizens Invite Service Men

Oregon's governor and Salem's mayor are leading Salem citizens in a round of entertainment for men stationed in this vicinity. Dr. Henry E. Morris, head of the UHA, last week made an appeal to citizens to take service men into their homes as often as possible.

Governor and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague will entertain four service men at their home for dinner on Monday night. Mayor and Mrs. W. W. Chadwick are to be hosts to ten soldier-visitors on Wednesday at the Senator hotel.

Rainbow Banquet February 10

The Order of Rainbow for Girls is making plans for its annual formal birthday banquet Tuesday night, February 10. The grand officers of the state of Oregon will make their official visit at this time and the girls have many interesting events planned.

Marie Ann Newman is chairman of the ticket committee and all members are asked to call her or Helen Paulson for reservations.

Club Calendar

- MONDAY: Hal Hibbard auxiliary, 8 p.m. Auxiliary to Sons of Union Veterans with Mrs. L. D. Waterman, 2 p.m. business and social meeting. LAYE club No. 12 at George Stoddard home, 1420 North 4th street, 7:30 p.m. American Legion auxiliary, 8 p.m. TUESDAY: Laurel Social Hour club with Mrs. J. B. Smith; Mrs. Jennie Willis assisting, 2 p.m. Salem Central WCTU, at hall, 2 p.m. Camp Fire guardians with Mrs. George Bagnall, 1985 Madison street, 8 p.m. Yonarco class with Mrs. Marie Von Eschen, 1832 Court street, 1:20 dessert luncheon. North Salem WCTU with Mrs. Lorene Chadwick, 1280 North Winter street, 2 p.m. Salem General hospital auxiliary, YWCA at 10 a.m. Grant PTA at school, 7:30 p.m. WEDNESDAY: AAUW Literature group with Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, 1940 Center street, 8 p.m. THURSDAY: Frontland Women's circle, at the church, 2 p.m. Marion County Veterans association, American Legion 1137 1/2 church, all day, covered dish luncheon, business meeting, 10:30 a.m. Executive board WSCP First Methodist church with Mrs. E. G. Wells, 180 North 15th street, 2 p.m.

WILL MARRY—Miss Wiletta Griffith, daughter of Mrs. G. E. Griffith, whose engagement to Mr. Robert Prime, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank V. Prime, has been announced. There is no date set for the wedding. The couple attended Salem schools and he is now at Fort Stevens. (Kennell-Ellis.)

Theodora Bouffleur Weds Mr. Arter In Glendale Friday Night

The Wee Kirk O'The Heather at Forest Lawn Memorial park in Glendale, Calif., was the setting for the marriage of Miss Theodora Bouffleur of Los Angeles, formerly of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Bouffleur of Salem, and Mr. Paul W. Arter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Arter of Huntington Park, Calif., on January 30. Rev. Glenn Phillips of the First Methodist church in Hollywood read the service at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride wore a white satin gown fashioned princess style with lace yoke and Queen Elizabeth collar. Self covered buttons extended from neckline to waistline in back and there were lace inserts on the train. Her fingertip length tulle veil was caught

ENGAGED—Miss Marjorie McCallister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister of Corvallis, formerly of Salem, who is betrothed to Mr. Edward C. Miller of Liberty, Indiana, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Miller of Lafayette, Indiana. The bride-elect is now attending Oregon State college and will be married May 28. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Circles Meet Wednesday

On Wednesday the following circle meetings of the First Presbyterian church will be held: No. 1—Mrs. N. J. Lindgren, leader, meetings with Mrs. A. F. Marcus, 1411 State street, at 2:00 p.m. No. 2—Mrs. W. W. Moore, leader, meets at home of Mrs. C. A. Sprague, 425 North 14th street, at 1:15 p.m. No. 3—Mrs. John Anderson, leader, meets with Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Orchard Heights, West Salem, at 2:00 p.m. No. 4—Mrs. F. E. McCracken, leader, at home of Mrs. Oscar Cutler, 750 South Summer street. White elephant sale, 2:00 p.m. No. 5—Mrs. S. A. Baldwin, leader, dessert luncheon at home of Mrs. Fred Anunson, 920 Leslie street, at 1:15 p.m. No. 6—Mrs. W. R. Dallas, leader, luncheon at 1:15 p.m. at home of Mrs. Douglas McKay, 395 Jerris street. No. 7—Mrs. Howard Pickett, leader, birthday party at home of Mrs. L. O. Clement, 245 North 17th street, at 2:00 p.m. No. 8—Mrs. Walter Pugh, leader, meets with Mrs. H. B. Glaisyer, 773 Stewart street, at 2:00 p.m. Daughters of the Nile will meet in Masonic temple for a sewing session. The affair begins with a 12:30 o'clock luncheon. The committee includes Mrs. Harold Phillips, Mrs. Willis Brown, Mrs. Paul Hauser, sr., Mrs. Adolph Bombeck and Mrs. A. K. Stanley.

Ceremony Read in Seattle

Miss Lois Savage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Savage, became the wife of Mr. John G. Dietz, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Dietz, in the Westminster Presbyterian church in Seattle Saturday night. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Tehle (Phyllis Miller).

The bride wore a pale blue silk afternoon dress, turtan accessories, and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Tehle wore a gold dress with chocolate brown accessories and a talisman rose corsage.

The bride and groom both reside in Salem. They will take a short honeymoon trip through Washington. On their return, they will live at the Elaine apartments. Mr. Dietz is an employee of the Cherry City Baking company.

Mrs. Leonard Gottfried and Mrs. James B. Haley entertained the bride with a trousseau shower at the Gottfried home on Pearl street, Thursday night. Mrs. John Coomler received high score in pinhole. Dessert was served at 8 o'clock.

Those honoring the bride were Mrs. William Dyer, jr., Mrs. Dee Morrison, Mrs. Don Hamilton, Mrs. John Gottfried, Mrs. Arnold Jarvis, Mrs. Dale Johnson, Mrs. Robert French, Mrs. Robert Carpenter, Miss Bonnie Lou Pfaffinger, Miss Inabelle Creech, Miss Lucille Bushnell, Mrs. John Coomler and the hostesses, Mrs. Leonard Gottfried and Mrs. James B. Haley.

Registration is in progress for the Iva F. Turner Memorial contest, endowed by the late Joy Turner-Moses in memory of her mother. Student violinists and pianists whose teachers are members of the Salem Music Teachers association, and who are in the ninth or tenth grade, are eligible.

VISITING—Mrs. Wallace Claymore (Marion McRae) who is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McRae. She was married October 3 in Los Angeles and her husband is a lieutenant in the army air corps. (Kennell-Ellis.)

Meeting Called To Organize

A meeting of interested persons, and one member of each Salem club, has been called for the purpose of organizing a committee to solicit funds for the Pacific Protective society. The session will be held on Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Santiam room of the chamber of commerce.

Dr. Gussie A. Niles has been appointed chairman of the campaign in Salem. Former mayor of Portland, Joseph K. Carson, Jr., is the state chairman for the Louise Home building fund drive. The following are honorary sponsors from Salem and Marion county: Dr. Silas Fairham, Rev. D. L. Fenwick, Mrs. C. A. Graham, C. H. Gram, Mrs. Robert E. Leight, Douglas McKay, Judge Grant Murphy, Mrs. M. Wilson Savage, Walter E. Snyder, Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner and M. D. Wooley. Miss Mary Jewell Ladd, a member of the staff of the Louise Home is here in the interest of organizing the campaign in Salem and Marion county.

The funds to be raised will be used to increase the facilities of the Louise Home. The Salem quota has been announced as $1300, soon as the committee has been called together, plans will be formulated to raise this sum.

The Louise Home is a girls' village situated nine miles east of Portland, on a 22-acre tract, which gives plenty of room for producing much of the milk, butter and vegetables and meat necessary. It is a non-denominational, non-sectarian, non-racial hospital, school and home—caring for three distinct classes of girls: clean delinquent cases, housed in the Louise Home building; clean maternity cases, housed in the maternity cottage, and venereal and venereal-maternity cases, cared for in the juvenile hospital. Admission is by parents, guardians, voluntary application or court order. Age limits are from 12 to 21 years.

The home now has a capacity of 100 girls, which has become inadequate and must be improved.

NEW BOARD MEMBERS—Elected as members of the board of directors of the Salem Young Women's Christian association at the annual last meeting Friday afternoon are left to right, Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf, seated, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. Mervin Fidler, Mrs. William Merriott, seated, and Mrs. James T. Brand. (Kennell-Ellis.)

Seen and Heard

By JERYME ENGLISH

FASHION NOTES... Out shopping during the week... Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson chic in her bright red wool princess coat and pert black felt... Mrs. Conrad W. Paulus, who has made a number of garments this year... Mrs. Douglas McKay, who was division leader for the recent Red Cross drive, coming in to check up last returns... Mrs. G. F. Chambers assisting Miss Mollie Pearmaine with instructions... Any day of the week club representatives inquire about work they may do for the boys... Here's the answer... knitting or sewing for the Red Cross... attending first aid classes, defense committee meetings or soliciting for this and that drive... defense bonds now, but in another two weeks they will be taking an inventory of women's skills... all in all every woman seems to be doing her part for defense.

Mr. and Mrs. David Eccles together... the latter wearing her mink coat over her shoulders and a lovely black velvet off the face hat, fringed around the brim. They will soon be leaving for Portland to reside... A good-looking couple... Lt. Col. and Mrs. Louis Farnsworth... he in military uniform and she in black with furs and a pert black hat trimmed in pink... Cleo Nissen, who will say her I do's this afternoon to Oscar Swenson, wearing a beige wool fashioned princess style with torso waist... brown velvet formed a yolk across the neckline and sleeves. A band of the velvet edged the pleated skirt... Incidentally Cleo designed the dress herself... Mrs. Palmer Bue (Willetta Sneed) down from Portland for a few days, very spring-like in white sheer wool jersey with full skirt and elbow length sleeves.

NEWS COMES about former Salem people... June Lochridge, in Portland this winter, surprised friends by writing from Chicago where she is now working... She left by plane on December 29 and had intended to arrive there by New Year's eve but due to weather conditions the plane was grounded... She is with Jean Ferrill, Inc., a cosmetic company and residing at Hotel Parkway... After leaving Salem this winter June was at Gill's in Portland.

Carmen Jean Vehrs was in Salem for a few days this week visiting with friends... She now lives in Burlingame, and is with the telephone company... Her mother, Mrs. Genevieve Vehrs, was here during the holidays and is now continuing studies at the University of California.

Salem's army wives are scattered across the country... Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Sara, Molly and Jimmy, arrived safely in Anniston, Georgia a week ago and were met by Lt. Allen... After the long train journey, they are getting settled in a house which Reynolds obtained... Mrs. George Allen plans to go south in the spring for a visit with them.

In Lawton, Oklahoma, are Mrs. Roy Edgerton and Mrs. Robert Brownell... the latter wrote that they are having grand weather and go bicycling and play tennis most every day... In Carmel are Mrs. Luke Shields and Mrs. Louis B. Schoel... and in San Francisco are Mrs. William Hammond and Mrs. Ward Davis.

A BUSY PLACE these days is the Red Cross office... Rooms are filled with volunteers cutting, wrapping and sewing... One day at the office saw Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Laban Steeves, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Mrs. Kenneth Bailey doing office work... Two others on their way to work... Mrs. Hollis Huntington and Mrs. James E. Young, wearing sporty brown plaid coats and felt hats... One who can be found there most every day is Miss Elizabeth Putnam... she answers all the questions and assists in general.

A few who came in for yarn to knit a sweater, socks or helmet for the boys... Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. A. C. Haag, Mrs.

Redecorated - Enlarged Usual Wave $1.50 Furze Oil Wash Water Complete $2.00 Open Thurs. Eve. by Appointment Phone 2043 305 First National Bank Bldg. CASTLE FERN WAVERS

Red Cross Yarn Is Available

Yarn for the army and navy has been received by the Red Cross, according to Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, production chairman. Those wishing to knit, are urged to call at the Red Cross office as soon as possible. Instruction will be given for regulation garments. Knitting for the United States fighting forces will take priority over refugee knitting, stated Mrs. Hamilton yesterday.

Book Club at Thompson's

Wednesday, Mrs. Ina Boyer entertained her book club the Literatures, at the home of Marie Thompson. Dr. H. E. Morris gave a talk on the activities and needs of the United Hospitality Service association of which he is chairman.

Those present were Mrs. Jack Kennedy, Mrs. Ruth Geteman, Mrs. Margaret Steele, Mrs. C. E. Grieg, Mrs. W. K. Rush, Mgs. William Andregg, Marie Thompson and Ina Boyer.

WOWELO Camp Fire Girls Column

The Itanyan Camp Fire girls took a conducted tour through the Cherry City Bakery Friday afternoon as part of the requirements of the national birthday honor they are working for. The group plans to keep health chart records for a month.

The Tanda group met Wednesday night for a council fire. The guardian, Miss Estella Smith, led the group. The sponsor, Nellie Harrison, gave a talk. Girls awarded honors were: Loresta Gariett, four swimming honors; Wilda Hunt, a membership bead. Beads from the seven crafts were awarded to: Opal Friezen, Pearl Mann, Wilda Hunt, Doraine Smith, Evelyn Killin, Loreta Gariett and Magdalene Jackman.

The Okiciyapi Camp fire girls of Richmond school went for a hike Thursday after school with Miss C. Gueffroy leader. They returned to the latter's home for an outdoor supper.

Those present were Donna Seay, Virginia Bowers, Edris Stewart, Patricia Boyer, Mary Taylor, Donna Bramel, Joyce Holmstead, Ruth Fuller, Irene Boatwright, Gloridean McDowel, Miss C. Gueffroy.

Dinner Honors Bridal Couple

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cheffings were hosts on Sunday in their Jefferson street home at a dinner given in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheffings, married January 25.

Dinner was served to: Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cheffings and Marian, Mrs. E. J. Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pope, all of Portland; Mr. Mike Berghammer, Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Berghammer, Mrs. Frank Batchelor, Peggy Jean and Frances, of North Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cheffings and Gordon of Salem, the honor guests and the hosts.

The bride is the former Dorothy Harms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harms of Aumsville.

Advertisement for Master Bread featuring a grocery store illustration, a car, and a loaf of bread. Text includes 'YEROCRO', 'MASTER BREAD', 'DELIVERED Twice DAILY', 'Twice daily the Merry Master Salesmen check your grocer's supply of Master Bread—they keep just enough on the rack to fill your needs with FRESH Master Bread.', 'ENRICHED BREAD with NATIONAL DEFENSE EAT IT DAILY.', and 'By the Merry Master Bakers AT YOUR GROCER'S'.