

Women Meet For Sewing

Beginners Gather for Knitting Lessons at West Salem Home

WEST SALEM—The women of the community will sew on Red Cross articles at the city hall auditorium this afternoon instead of Friday because the Women's club hobby show is scheduled for that day. People are requested to donate sugar sacks to be used in the Red Cross sewing.

Very little yarn has been received for knitting, according to Mrs. Donald Kuhn. Women who wish to learn to knit articles to be donated to the Red Cross are asked to meet at the Kuhn home on Plaza street tonight at 7:30 o'clock. They are asked to bring their own yarn and knitting needles, size five or six. The meeting will be for the purpose of instructing beginners only as there is no yarn for knitting the Red Cross items at present.

The monthly meeting of the Women's club will be held at the city hall auditorium Wednesday at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Norris Looney presiding.

Mrs. Fred Gibson, finance chairman, urges every member to be present so that plans may be completed for the hobby show Friday.

The child welfare committee will be in charge of the entertainment, which will consist of an informal party.

Hostesses are Mrs. Robert Forster, chairman, Mrs. Drew Michals, Mrs. O. V. Sargent, Mrs. R. W. Malbon, Mrs. Weldon Looney and Mrs. Ralph Nelson.

Mrs. Harry Smart and Mrs. Norris Looney were hostesses to members of the Entre Nous club with a 500 party. Defense stamps were given as prizes to Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. H. C. Hummel, William Krueger and Captain Unruh.

Invited were Captain and Mrs. Charles Unruh, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cook, Mayor and Mrs. Guy Newgent, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hummel, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smart, Mr. and Mrs. William Krueger, Mrs. Teresa Hanks, Mrs. Robert Pattison, Mrs. Clara Gehrke, Lottie McAdams and Mrs. Norris Looney.

Mrs. Ora Gilliland left for Connecticut, where she plans to remain permanently with her sister.

Rites Held for Baseball Fan

AURORA—Funeral services for George W. Scramlin, 88, pioneer merchant of Macksburg, who died Wednesday at his home after being ill a few days with pneumonia, were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Elks temple in Oregon City, Rev. A. J. Mockford, St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiated. Burial was in the family lot in Canby with the Canby Funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Surviving are the sons, Russell C., Macksburg, Marshall Edward of Kirkland, Wash., and three grandsons.

Scramlin was the son of Leonard and Rosalyn Scramlin, the latter the daughter of Benedict Arnold. He was born in McComb Corner, Mich., and came to Oregon in 1885, settling in Macksburg, where he has made his home for the past 55 years.

He also was an ardent baseball fan never failing to see the opening game in Portland each season. It was the late Edward E. Brodie, publisher of the Oregon City Enterprise, who sponsored a Scramlin-Oregon City day at the opening game in Portland.

He first played ball in 1872 as shortstop with the North Oxford team in Michigan, and held a life membership in the old-timer baseball league of Oregon. He received a silver trophy cup as the oldest baseball player in attendance at the opening league game in Portland and appeared in Ripley's "Believe It or Not" for never missing an opening baseball game at the Vaughn street diamond in Portland.

He was a member of the Elks lodge in Oregon City, joining in 1912.

Instructor Goes East for Study

MT. ANGEL—Rev. Gabriel Morris, artist and dramatic instructor at Mt. Angel college and seminary, left for Klamath Falls, enroute to California Friday on the first lap of a trip that will carry him to various eastern cities in an extended study of Benedictine art.

After a week of giving missions in Klamath Falls, he will go to San Francisco and from thence to Los Angeles, where he will visit with Mrs. W. Price, wife of the late William Price, outstanding landscape painter of California. Price was a good friend of Father Gabriel, and the abbey is the richer for valuable paintings donated by the artist.

Father Gabriel will study at Atchinson, Kans., Chicago and New York. He expects to return to Mt. Angel in June.

Varied Methods of Shortening School Term Get Consideration

WOODBURN—A six day school week is being considered for Woodburn high school. Urtier this arrangement it would be possible for school to end May 15.

Other plans considered include: provisions for making up school work for individuals anticipating absence next spring; holding school on half-day basis during spring harvesting season; having six straight 50 minute classes in the forenoon. Lengthening each day an hour which would be the equivalent to a six-day week.

Just which, if any, of these possibilities will be used in Woodburn, has not yet been decided.

The annual Parent and Son banquet sponsored by the FFA will be held in the Woodburn high school cafeteria Wednesday. An effort is being made to secure Sen. Ronald Jones, Brooks, as main speaker.

The executive committee, composed of officers of the FFA will pick two honorary members and these will be announced at the banquet. The members of the committees are: speech, Charlie Filbin; food, Glenn Dryden; entertainment, Bill McHale; tickets, Myron Harper; invitations, Loren Olsen and clean-up, Byron Grim.

The Woodburn Garden club will hold a meeting in the club rooms of the city library today at 8 p. m.

The men of the club will be in charge and the program will be a round table discussion, led by George Timm.

Roll call will be commercialized native shrubs and plants. James Linesay will be flower chairman for the month. Hosts are chairman, Carl Huber, assisted by Charles Jones and Walter Miller.

Jay P. Beeier, who has been here on a furlough of several months left for his work with the marine engineering trade where he has been employed for a number of years.

Geraldine Smith, Whiteson, is staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Yarns. Their son, Billie, has enlisted in the navy and left for training last week.

members of the same wedding party. The visitors plan to leave the first of this week for their home. While here they also called on L. H. Meyer, a brother of the late Mrs. White and usher at the same wedding.

The Rev. Dahle was an eastern college friend of Rev. White, who came west to marry Miss Meyer. Miss Jensen, then a tiny tot and a native of Silverton, continued to live here. The visiting pastor returned to his charge in the east as did also the Rev. Whites.

A year later the Whites returned to answer a call to serve at Silverton. He was pastor of Trinity church here for 12 years, during which time Mrs. White died. He is now in Colorado and is being invited to attend the 50th anniversary of the founding of Trinity church in June of this year.

The meeting at Toney's Saturday night was purely accidental. The Holdens were entertaining their guests at dinner and Miss Jensen was a member of another dinner party. The two groups exchanged greetings and the visitors were introduced. Mrs. M. J. Madsen, who was in Miss Jensen's party, and who had also attended the wedding in August of 1903 recalled that both were

War Closes It

Sloppy Joe's in Havana

Sloppy Joe's bar in Havana, Cuba, well-known the world over as a tourist "must see," has been forced to close because the war has kept the tourist trade away. Closing of the famous rum rendezvous threatened to become a national political issue. One senator reportedly suggested legislation prohibiting post-war reopening of businesses which close "without urgent reasons."

Horse Display Show Feature

SILVERTON—Mrs. Fannie Branson and her hobby horses from Scio will be one of the features at the Silverton hobby show here February 13, according to Mrs. A. J. Titus, general chairman of the show arrangements.

Mrs. Branson reports that she has been busy making a special order of nine horses which will be shown in Marshall Fields at Chicago and later in New York, Minneapolis and Washington, DC.

Mrs. Branson was herself at one time as "handy" on the back of a horse as she now is in making them. But an accident stopped her "ranch hand riding" in eastern Oregon and her love of horses was converted into making replicas of the living ones.

Another special feature will be the soap miniatures made by Mrs. S. B. Hoskins, Oak Grove. The Mt. Angel Weaving guild will show handwoven materials from Oregon flax.

Class Awaits Instructor

Defense Matters Get Consideration of Brush Creek Club

BRUSH CREEK—Over 30 members had signed for Red Cross first aid by Friday night according to Mrs. Alvin Krug, who is in charge of the local registration. Instruction will begin as soon as an instructor can be obtained, said Mrs. Krug.

The announcement was made at a meeting of the Booster club, of which Mrs. John Overlund is the president. At the meeting, Alvin Krug, local defense chairman and Aden Klopfenstein discussed local defense measures including the arrangement for a defense signal. The placing of an alarm siren on an automobile was also discussed, but more investigation will be made prior to action.

Alice Jensen explained first aid. Miss Frances Clinton, home demonstration agent, spoke on "War and the Foods." She also showed colored slides of a trip taken in the Hawaiian islands.

In the program were skits by the school children and recitations by Jimmy Lorenson, Phillip Overlund, Verna Klopfenstein. Mrs. Oscar Wigle was program chairman.

Chester Lorenson, who submitted to an appendectomy at the Silverton hospital, is reported as getting along as well as could be expected.

Alice Jensen was honored on her birthday Sunday when a group of friends called bringing luncheon with them. In the group were Mrs. Floyd Baxter and Nettie Hatterberg, Salem, Althea Meyer, Lillie Madsen, Miss Jensen, Mrs. Anna K. Jensen, Mrs. Ray Reed and Mrs. Edwin Hatterberg from here, and Mrs. Victor Madsen and Colleen and Loretta Bell, Hillsboro.
