State Control Board Ponders Power Plan

The state board of control will not act hastily on the proposals of the Bonneville administration and the Portland General Electric company, involving power electric rates for state buildings in the Salem area, the board indicated at a meeting here Tuesday.

The board also indicated that it would later approve a proposal to accept the Bakeratorium for use as a state armory there. The board was advised that $25,000 would be required to remodel the structure. The city would give the armatorium building to the state.

The board approved a proposal whereby inmates of the state penitentiary probably will cut approximately 2500 cords of wood, to be distributed among state institutions in the Salem district and the boys' training school at Woodburn.

Contracts for furnishing approximately 13,000 barrels of fuel oil to the state during the current year were awarded to the Automatic Oil Burner Distributors, Petroleum Sales company and the Tidewater Associated Oil company on the basis of 10 cents a barrel above the early 1941 quotation.

Church Situation In War Revealed At Club Program

"No institution in America stands to lose more from war than the church," Dr. J. Edgar Purdy, district superintendent of the Methodist church, declared in an address before the Kiwanis club Tuesday.

Its fundamental features of brotherhood, good will, service and democracy are in direct opposition to the struggle that is now being carried on, the speaker pointed out.
