

Turner Chief Leaves Job

Head of Department Called Into Army; Gifts Presented

TURNER—Fire Chief Albert Jensen tendered his resignation to the department at the meeting Tuesday. He is soon to leave to join the armed forces.

A unanimous ballot was cast for Archie Rankin, as new chief, and Forrest Bouchie as assistant chief, the office previously held by Rankin. The new fire chief accepted the office on condition that on Jensen's return he be re-elected chief.

Gifts were presented Chief Rankin to the retiring chief on behalf of the department and himself. Fifteen dollars was realized from the sale of the old jail cell which was housed, unused, in the former city hall building.

First meeting of a large first aid class was held Monday in the high school with 50 present. Under the tutelage of Loraine Vick, Turner high school instructor, the class will meet each Monday at 8 p. m. for a two-hour period for ten successive weeks. Charley Standley will assist in instruction.

A total of 85 have signified their intention of taking the course, start of which was delayed for several weeks due to inability to procure certified instructors. The first regular instruction period will begin next Monday night.

Farmers' Plans Changed by Cantonment

SUVER—Farmers are hurrying to get their grain and screenings out of the Senders warehouse in Wells, as they have been asked to vacate by tonight by officials who have started on the cantonment. The planing mill at Wells also must be moved this week.

Work has started on the administration building east of Wells in a field on the Clifford Ramey place. A tool shed has been built there. There are rumors that the cantonment may not take in all the area surveyed, so farmers are again in a state of confusion.

Perrydale News

PERRYDALE—Clarence Yocum, who has been ill for several months, was taken to a McMinville hospital Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Massey were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson in Portland in honor of Mrs. Massey's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Schwartz of Alberta, Canada, spent the past weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Strickwerda, and other relatives.

Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Dave Berley and Mrs. Herman Gillam attended a meeting in Dallas Wednesday in interest of the mobilization of women.

Civilian defense leaders met Tuesday to form the schedule for the month. Those who were unable to take their turn at the alert post have hired either Dan McIntosh or Dan Elliott to take their place.

Perrydale high school basketball boys won their first game when they defeated Falls City by a score of 18 to 19.

Club Notes

Good morning, Mice! Today is Saturday and another Mickey Mouse show at the Elsinore—a whole afternoon of real entertainment. A swell stage show, thrilling serial, and two top feature pictures.

MMC
Ah, Ha! You thought I was going to forget something! It's Valentine day. And Mice, don't forget the one real sweetheart in your life... Mother.

MMC
A special announcement: Willamette has its Century Girl; Portland has its Rose Queen; not to be outdone, the Mickey Mouse club is going to have its "Valentine's Girl." It's up to you, Mice, to select the one you want. Before the stage show starts, I will be out in the lobby of the theatre. If you have a girl whom you think should be in the contest, see me and we'll put her up on the stage to be judged. We will select a queen and four attendants. The winning girl will receive a big box of Valentine candy, and each of her attendants will have their picture taken.

Be sure to vote for your selection.

MMC
The regular stage show, features the "Hit Parade" and the outstanding orchestras of the week. Also another chapter of the serial, and the features, "The Corsican Brothers" with Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and "Hay Foot" with William Tracy.

So until 11 o'clock... this is your MMC.

Women Asked To Join Club

BRUSH CREEK — The Stitch and Chatter club will meet February 26 at the home of Mrs. John Overlund. This club has no officers and no formal memberships. All neighborhood women are asked to join.

The cast has been removed from Sylvia Haere's right leg and within a week she hopes to be up and around on crutches. Miss Haere broke her knee cap in a fall several weeks ago and has been confined to her bed since. She expects to be on crutches for about two weeks before she will venture to walk alone again.

Mrs. John C. Goplerud, who broke her right arm at about the same time as Miss Haere, is practically all right again. Her arm is out of the sling but she still has to use it with care.

Survivors include his widow, Florence; son, Eldred, Longview; daughter, Genevieve White, Salem; brother, William, Portland; two half brothers, Vern VanCleave, Salem, and Alvah, Kelso; and two sisters, Mrs. Della Fitzgerald, and Mrs. Wilda Jacobs, both of Silverton.

Officer Speaks To Church Group

GERVAIS—The Women's Missionary society will hold its monthly meeting at the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon, beginning at 2:30.

Mrs. W. B. Mahon, Independence, president of the Willamette presbyterian will address the group. Mrs. Virginia Booster will lead the devotional and Mrs. Edna Brown will present the topic, Mrs. Jorgensen and Mrs. St. John will serve during the social hour.

Farmers Union News

GERVAIS—The Farmers Union gave an entertainment and basket social Saturday, the proceeds to be used for educational purposes.

The Boy Scouts gave their opening number. Rev. James Aiken Smith, the invocation and A. D. Folker introduced the boys who were to participate in an oratorical contest.

Johnny Brown won first, Elmer Jorgensen and Jack St. John also participated. This entitles Brown to enter the county contest. Farmers Union warehouse of Mt. Angel gave $1 as an additional prize to the winner.

Struck by Timber

LEBANON — Gene Jacobson, employee of the East Linn Lumber company was struck by a timber while at work Wednesday, and was taken to the Lebanon General hospital with serious head injuries.

Keeps Five Day Week

DAYTON—The Dayton union high school will remain on the five day a week basis unless an unforeseen necessity makes a change imperative, Mrs. Scott Edwards, chairman of the board, announced Thursday after directors discussed the matter.

When Dean Landis Took Over OCD

With a plentiful assortment of gestures and expressions, Dean James M. Landis opened his first day as new chief of the nation's civilian defense in Washington by disclosing that a thorough reorganization was under way in the agency. Landis was named to succeed Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York

She's a Real Valentine Girl

Jessica Dragonette

When it came time to select a girl to pose for a Valentine's Day photo, radio publicists picked Jessica Dragonette, the popular singer—and for good reason! Pa-s-et! Jessica was born on Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, in Calcutta, India.

Service Men

Don Nicholson, member of the Salem police department since September, 1925, and a sergeant since 1936, has been ordered to report for induction into the army February 20.

Nicholson, who plans to remain at his position as day shift desk sergeant until February 19, was the first operator of the police bicycle for checking parking for about one year until last June. He is a brother of Paul Nicholson, patrolman on the department.

Formation of new units of the Oregon state guard at Astoria, Tillamook and Eugene, under the direction of Brig. Gen. Alvin C. Baker, commander, was authorized by Gov. Charles A. Sprague here Friday.

Arms and equipment for the new units are available and will be shipped from the state arsenal as soon as the organizations are complete. The shipments will include rifles, ammunition, trousseaus, overcoats, gun slings, bayonets and first aid packs.

Governor Sprague also revealed that a complete survey of the state is under way with a view of organizing other guard units. Results of the survey will be announced later.

Capt. Melville H. Callender will command the Astoria unit while Capt. Orvie Keltson will head the Tillamook unit.

Captain Keltson is a World War Veteran and Captain Callender served as an officer in the Oregon national guard for eight years.

Selection of a commander for the Eugene unit has not yet been determined.

SEATTLE, Feb. 13—(AP)—A father, long prominent in west coast aviation, and his son are entering their nation's service together.

United Air Lines reported Friday that Maj. J. R. Cunningham, director of communications for its system, had reentered the army air corps for his second war as his 21-year-old son, James, a University of Missouri graduate, signed up as a flier for his first.

Major Cunningham, who has been stationed at Chicago in recent years, was born in Spokane and attended Washington State

Where They Are What They're Doing

Tech. Sgt. Willis S. Estep, Salem army recruiting officer, has announced the establishment of a new aviation cadet examining board at the recruiting headquarters in the postoffice at Broadway and Glisan streets in Portland.

Capt. T. R. Willemssen will be in command of the board and the medical examinations will be conducted by Capt. G. A. Rickles.

To qualify for cadet appointment each man must pass a mental and physical examination by this board. He must be and have been a citizen of the United States for the past ten years and be from 18 to 26 years of age inclusive.

Married men are now eligible provided they sign a statement that their families are self supporting. Appointments for the examination must be made by writing to the Portland recruiting office.

Men should report for examination with a copy of their birth certificates.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—(AP)—The temporary promotion of 388 enlisted men in the marine corps and marine corps reserve to warrant officers was announced Friday by the navy.

Among those promoted, together with present ranks and usual home addresses, were:

To temporary rank of marine gunner: Salem—Master Gunnery Sergeant Dorn E. Arnold.

SPOKANE, Feb. 13—(AP)—The navy got 13 recruits in Spokane on Friday the 13th, which made the day complete for one of the group.

Martin J. Granvold told recruiting officers he was "married on the 13th and signed up for my first hitch in the navy on the 13th."

"This is my lucky day, so here I am again," he grinned.

Raymond James Zielinski, 17, left for his station Thursday, after a three-day visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Frances Gannard, route two, Salem. He enlisted in the navy in December last year, at the Salem recruiting station. He is the son of Mrs. Helen Mayfield, Eugene. He attended Salem high school and was a member of the football team.

Enlistments at the army recruiting office in Portland Thursday were Allen Keeney, Floyd Howard Emmons, Leonard Howard Odum and Rex Orville Dart, all of Salem; Harold Wesley Ransom, Aumsville; William Ellis Burchell, Corvallis and Albert Whittle, Albany. First Bicycle Club Formed

Juvenile Officers Aid In Enforcing Ruling; Schools Name Leaders

SILVERTON—Silverton's first bicycle club with its set of juvenile officers was organized Thursday and will begin functioning at once under the supervision of Chief of Police Victor Gross-nieckle.

The juvenile set-up will assist in enforcing the recently passed city bicycle ordinance, which was sponsored by Silverton's safety council. Elected from the schools to serve on the junior set-up are chief of police, Robert Dunn; judge, Robert McCullough, and clerk, Jacqueline Lewis.

From St. Paul's church the captain elected is Wayne Wagner; lieutenant, Charles Wagner, patrol, Jearold Capalla and John Evans. From the Eugene Field building: Captain, Jack Garret; lieutenant, Earl Grogan; patrol, Charlotte Brokke and Bill Bert. From the junior high school: Captain, Don Lewis; lieutenant, Robert Dunn; patrols, Jacqueline Lewis and Jack Huddleston. From the senior high: Captain, Al Meade; lieutenant, Bruce Sander-son; patrols, Robert McCullough and Kenneth Mires.

Chief of Police Dunn appointed Jack Huddleston as district attorney.

Court will be held each Saturday from 2 to 3 o'clock at the city hall, beginning February 21. The set of officers will meet Wednesday night at the city hall at 7 o'clock.

Grangers' News

NORTH HOWELL—Business affairs pertaining to the local North Howell grange discussed at its meeting Wednesday, included the appointment of L. A. Esson, Wayne Strachan and Orton Hill-fiker on the committee for labor relations in cooperation with the US employment service; an invitation to Chemawa grange members to be guests at the March 11 meeting; a request from the grange master, Mrs. A. B. Wiesner, that the agricultural committee take care of certain fallen trees on the grounds, and an offer to the church congregation concerning fallen trees on the Conrad Gunderson property.

A community wide appeal for old magazines and papers tied in 40-pound packages was made by Chairman W. H. Stevens. K. D. Coomer has offered to haul these papers to Portland and the benefits from the sale of them will be used to purchase a defense bond in the name of the North Howell grange.

The basketry classes have been discontinued. As soon as the weather allows outdoor work, the knitting classes will also be discontinued for the present as rural women are extremely busy at home and in the fields during the early spring rush.

KEIZER—The regular social night of the Chemawa grange at Keizer has been postponed until February 20. It was formerly planned for the 18th. A program of special games is planned. Mrs. Bunnell, new leader, will have charge of grange activities.

Salem grange home economics club will meet with Mrs. Theodore G. Nelson on D street Monday afternoon. Part of the time will be taken up with Red Cross sewing.
