

BETHEL — There was a large attendance of members and friends at the school Saturday when the Farmers' Union put on a social night as a part of a national movement of the organization.

Super was served under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. G. Lauerback and her committee, Mrs. Cass A. Nichols, Mrs. A. C. Spranger, and their assistants.

MARION — The ladies auxiliary met Wednesday with 17 present and quitted during the day. A decorated birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Elzy Pickard and honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Charles Sarver and Mrs. Jim Wilson, centered the luncheon table.

Mrs. Fred Schermer was instructed to purchase a number of stamped pillow cases. Mrs. George McCay gave an account of her recent trip to Crookston, Neb., to visit her 95-year-old mother.

Mrs. Charles Sarver, leader of the Red Cross work, announced they would meet Wednesday in the club rooms.

Mrs. Arthur Tucker and little grandson, Mrs. Margaret Shoemaker and Mrs. David Meyers were visitors.

The dance and food sale held Saturday was well attended and a satisfactory sum was raised for the national educational fund.

LIBERTY — The winner of the Marion county Farmers Union junior group in the state educational contest will be decided at a meeting tonight at the Liberty community hall.

The winner will represent the county at the annual state convention to be held at McMinnville next week.

All Farmer Union members and friends are urged to show their appreciation and interest in the work of the young people by attending.

Visitors Attend Club Session

BROOKS — Twenty members of the Brooks Garden club were entertained recently at the home of Mrs. Elva Aspinwall.

The next meeting of the club will be held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Leo Reed, 80 Duncan Ave., Salem, Capitola addition.

Reports from The Statesman's 78 Community Correspondents

PAGE TEN

Salem, Oregon, Wednesday Morning, February 18, 1942

West Salem Teachers at County Meet

WEST SALEM — Polk county upper grade teachers met at Monday Thursday for a no-host supper and business meeting.

Matt Thompson, superintendent of the Monmouth high school, led discussion on "Education of free men in an American democracy"

Attending from the local school were Frances Schmidt, Koneta Nowowiejski, Ira Duetgen, Leighton Dashiell and Ralph Nelson.

Theodore Burns presided as master of the grange in the absence of the master and the overseer at the last meeting.

Plans were made to postpone the monthly social night to Feb. 28. The social will be in the form of a dance at the city hall with the following committee in charge

The lecturer's program featured a quiz on Washington and Lincoln.

Joseph Underwood, Salem and Kenneth Aston, Salem, were each fined $5 in police court for violation of the basic rule.

E. H. May, Salem, was fined $8.85 in justice court for driving a truck without a property permit from the P. U. C.

C. R. Kline was issued a building permit to erect a dwelling at 650 Rosemont avenue at a cost of $2000.

John S. Brown is employed at a shipyard in Portland.

Mrs. Fay Winchester and Mrs. A. Wecher have returned from a visit with their son at Alameda Calif.

Family Moves to Rickreall Farm

WEST SALEM — Mr. and Mrs. George Esau sold their home on Piedmont street to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Guenther. The Esau family is moving to their farm near Rickreall.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phelps and daughter, all of Portland, Vern De Shane and Granville Allen, Amity, were visitors at the Ivan Wood home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elma J. Wilson announced the arrival of a son, Daniel James.

City officials are requesting everyone in the city to register for civilian defense.

Central Howell Man Home Again

CENTRAL HOWELL — Alfonso Nafziger, who was injured in a fall from his silo, is recovering at home after an eight days stay in a hospital.

Mrs. A. E. Janz is in charge of listing women for defense in this community. She has chosen to help her: Mrs. Jasper King, Mrs. John Steelhammer, Mrs. Richard Tuve, Mrs. Loren Gower, Mrs. Ernest Roth, Mrs. George Plane and Mrs. Clarence Simmons.

West Stayton News

WEST STAYTON — Mr. J. S. Martin, Monroe, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart.

Verne Chamberlin lost a valuable cow from milk fever last week.

A large crowd attended the community club Friday and saw slides taken in England and at Pearl Harbor.

Seymour Stewart spent the weekend here visiting his family. Stewart is working at Tongue Point, near Astoria.

The West Stayton school enrolled 10 new pupils last week, bringing the enrollment up to 75.

Lester Wallace entered here from Roseburg and Charlie Frankie, Roberta and Clay Perkins entered from Mill City.

Community Clubs

ROSEDALE — The Community club met at the schoolhouse Saturday with H. S. Carter, president, presiding.

Mrs. Bert Hamilton announced the following program: recitation, Jane Hamilton; duet, Shirley Evans and Grace Ann Sparks; accordion solo, Paul Frederickson; vibraharp solo, Mrs. Oscar Brown, and skit, "Why They Stay Home," Clara Sparks.

Food was sold for the benefit of the hot lunch fund.

SPRING VALLEY — The Spring Valley community club Friday included a group of songs with guitar accompaniment by a girls' trio from Hopewell.

Officers elected for the year were: president, Tom Burton; vice-president, M. A. Wells; secretary, Mrs. Wilbur Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Tom Burton; musician, Mrs. C. Barrow; song leader, Dick Johnson and sergeant-at-arms, George Tooker.

Faculty Group Entertained

WEST SALEM — Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Guderian were hosts to members of the local school faculty and their families at a party Saturday.

Musical numbers were presented by Robert Guderian, violinist; Phyllis Guderian, Frances Schmidt and Leighton Dashiell, pianists, and Ira Duetgen, vocalist.

Present were Mrs. B. F. Wiens, Mrs. Ethel McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Duetgen, Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Dashiell, Frances Schmidt, Koneta Nowowiejski, Mrs. Vida Miller, Pearl Groves, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Guderian, Phyllis, Glenn and Robert Guderian.

The beginners' first aid class will meet at the school gymnasium for the sixth session Thursday at 7:30 o'clock.

William La Due, Albany, was a caller in this city Saturday.

Plays Slated At Oak Grove

OAK GROVE — Three one-act plays—"A Bachelor's Baby," "Orville's Big Date," and "Sewing Circle Minstrels" will be presented at the Oak Grove grange hall Friday night at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Standley is directing the plays. The money raised will be used to buy a circulator for the Oak Grove church.

Draft Figures At Silvertown Are Reported

SILVERTOWN — Mrs. George Jaeschke, chief registrar of Silvertown's special draft, reported 437 registrations Monday at the close of the three-day job.

Assisting Mrs. Jaeschke were Alma Olson, Stella Dybevik, Peggy Scott, Mrs. Glen Briedwell, Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Ernest Starr, Mrs. Ralph Larson, Mrs. F. Glenn McDonald, Mrs. Charles Hoyt, Edwin Severance, Walter Geren, Lloyd Reed and George Jaeschke.

Defense Speaker On Program at Meet Tonight

MISSION BOTTOM — The P. T. A. meeting will be held at the school house at 8 p. m. Feb. 20.

Mission Bottom is planning to join the Clear Lake community in first aid work.

Ploughing has commenced here.

HOLLYWOOD 18c Last Day Plus Defense Tax 7 FEATURES W. C. Fields "Moonlight in Hawaii" "Never Give a Sucker an Even Break" Jane Frazee "Merry Macs" Also News, Musical and March of Time, "THUMBS UP TEXAS."

Hobby Show at Stayton Set On Thursday

STAYTON — A hobby show will be a feature of the meeting of the Women's Community club Thursday at the clubhouse.

Anyone interested is asked to bring her collection to the clubhouse Thursday between 10 and 11:30. The hostess committee is Mrs. Ruth Spaniol, Mrs. Abbie Bell, Mrs. Edith Albus and Mrs. Naomi Rowe, who will arrange transportation of collections if necessary.

The next meeting of the Stayton Garden club will be at the home of Mrs. W. A. Inglis, February 20.

Dr. Kenneth Waters, Rosarian of the Men's Garden club, Salem, will speak on rose culture.

Valley Events

February 19—Survey of farm labor needs, sponsored by grange, chamber of commerce, 2 p. m.

February 19—Seed crop meeting, Dallas chamber of commerce, 10 a. m.

February 20—Polk county poultry meet, Dallas chamber of commerce, 2 p. m.

Pete Willert presided at the business session and the committee on arrangements including Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bigdow, Mrs. Eltruda Teeple and Howard, served refreshments.

BRUSH COLLEGE — Brush College community club held a meeting at the schoolhouse Friday with a good attendance.

A program of popular music was presented by Edwin, Tandy and Vivian Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Moriarity.

Clifford Smith, the new president, conducted the business meeting. Refreshments were served by Doreen Smith, chairman, and a group of school girls.

MACLEAY — The final count at the February Community club meeting showed the men winners in the membership drive and as a penalty the women will furnish the entertainment and refreshments at the March 13 meeting.

Officers elected for the year were: president, Tom Burton; vice-president, M. A. Wells; secretary, Mrs. Wilbur Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Tom Burton; musician, Mrs. C. Barrow; song leader, Dick Johnson and sergeant-at-arms, George Tooker.

WALDO HILLS — The program given Friday by the women of Waldo Hills community club was well attended. Comedy and musical numbers were given.

Mrs. A. J. McCannel and John Small furnished music for dancing. Serving on the supper committee were Dr. A. J. McCannel and Max Scriber.

CENTRAL HOWELL — The school furnished the program for the community club program Friday. The club will start practice on a play this week.

LABISH CENTER — At the Labish Center community club session the local grade school teachers, Miss Seth and Mrs. Fix, were in charge of the program.

A play by the primary room entitled "A New Land," was given. Between acts the Labish Center health club sang. Musical numbers were furnished by an orchestra led by Douglas Jaquith.

Conley Speaks at Liberty Meeting

LIBERTY — Bryan Conley, defense coordinator, addressed the combined meeting of the community club and Red Hills grange here Friday.

The patriotic program also included orchestra numbers, a skit in which Mrs. O. L. Dencer, Mrs. E. G. Clark, Mrs. Grant Teter, Hulda Beckley and Barbara Bates took part; flag pantomime and reading by Rev. Raynor Smith.

Card Party Set By Aurora Group

AURORA — The Pythian Sisters of Aurora are sponsoring a five hundred card party February 25, which will be held in the Knights of Pythias hall.

Always 2 Smash Hits! LIBERTY Today and Thursday

Dick Foran - Peggy Moran

HORROR ISLAND

Plus 2nd "Spine Tinger"

MAN MADE MONSTER

Lionel Atwill - Lon Chaney

News and Comedy

15c Plus Tax 18c Matinee Evening

SILVERTOWN — The Junior Woman's Guild of Immanuel Lutheran church will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Cecil Humphries.

Ralph Earl, who broke his ankle while ice skating, is able to be about on crutches.

Trinity Lutheran choir, under the direction of Mrs. Tom Anderson, with Mrs. Alf O. Nelson at the pipe organ, will give its February vesper service Sunday at 8 p.m. at the church auditorium.

Aside from the regular choir numbers there will be two guest soloists, Donald Renwick in a cornet solo, and Borghild Fuhr of Everett, Wash., in a vocal group.

Peggy's Beauty shoppe will hold its opening in its new location Wednesday from 2 to 5 o'clock, according to the owner, Peggy Gopherud. Miss Gopherud, who has had her shop in the Worden building for a number of years, has moved to 203 East Oak street in the Palace theater building.

Lester Standard, president of the Silvertown Safety Council, which sponsored the city bicycle ordinance, is urging parents to acquaint themselves with the new ordinance so as to assist their boys and girls in the task of making bicycle riders safer at Silvertown.

Helmer Brokke has gone to work in one of the Portland shipyards as an electric welder. He has been an employee of the Silver Falls Timber company for 23 years.

Walter Gustafson is reported very ill at Portland. He is the husband of the former Minnie Strand, Silvertown.

Clara Brager is reported critically ill at her home here. Miss Brager was a former high school teacher at Silvertown.

Mrs. Mary Andrew recently visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cooke and their son, James David, McMinnville.

AUMSVILLE — An instructor in first aid from Salem will be here tonight at 7:30 o'clock to conduct a class of instruction for all who desire to attend.

A delightful valentine party was held in the primary room of the school Monday. Eva Corser is teacher and had charge of the party.

PULHAM ESQ. Millions have read it as a Book-of-the-Month, as a Readers' Digest story, as a magazine serial. Now each fascinating character lives on the screen!

GRAND "Confirm or Deny" Joan Bennett Time: 2:15 - 4:55 - 7:35 - 10:15 "A Gentleman at Heart" Time: 1:05 - 3:45 - 6:25 - 9:00

STATE THEATRE NOW SHOWING HENRY FONDA JOAN BENNETT in STEWART EDWARD WHITE'S WILD GEESE CALLING

LIBERTY Always 2 Smash Hits! Today and Thursday

INTERNATIONAL LADY SHOW TIME 1:00 - 4:15 - 7:30 - 10:45 Lady: 2:30 - 5:45 - 9:00

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! Final Wind-Up of This Great SHOE SALE SATURDAY, FEB. 28TH

Men's Shoes Women's Shoes Children's Shoes All Greatly Reduced

VALUES TO $4.00 NOW

66 Black Brown Wine Tan Blue

Leather Gabardine Suede Many Sport Shoe Models with Leather or Composition Soles

For Women REGULAR $4.00 One group of large sizes, 9 1/2 to 10 $2.66

Kid Leather Shoes One large group of fine Health Shoes, Pumps and ties, regular $4.00 value. $2.88

Quality Saddles Brown and white and black and white saddles with Goodyear welt and colored soles. $2.88

GOLF SHOES A new shipment just arrived. Tan and white with leather sole and heel. Specially priced. $2.97

FOR MEN Reg. $3.95 Oxfords One large group priced to clear at only $2.66

One Group $4.95 Men's finest quality shoes and oxfords. Latest styles $3.66

ALL $5.95 MEN'S Genuine Kangaroo Shoes and Oxfords. For the man who insists on the finest. $4.44

STYLE ARCH SHOE COMPANY 357 State Street Salem, Oregon