Good Morning Mice! Just a few more hours and the Mickey Mouse show will be in full swing. Rain or shine it makes no difference to us, the show still goes on. And what a show!

MMC—Last Saturday, though we had a few objections from the candidates, ten pretty girls paraded across the stage of the Elsinore theatre to be judged for the Mickey Mouse valentine girl.

MMC—Who do you want to appear on the Mickey Mouse stage show? Just like the "Hit Parade" over the radio, you let us know what personality here in Salem you would like to see or hear, and we'll do our best to present them. Write or see me personally.

MMC—A new contest is in the making! Something new and novel. How well do you know your fellow club members? Well, here is a chance to find out. Starting today there will be five baby pictures of five of our outstanding club members in the club show case next to the box office. Look at them today or any day up to next Saturday. If you know them, write their names down on a slip of paper and turn them in at the box office. Those who get the entire five correct will receive passes to next week's show. Besides that, the winner will receive various other prizes during the stage show.

MMC—Today's show is the "Hit Parade," the outstanding orchestras of the week, songs, dances. Also, the screen fare is tops. Another chapter of our serial plus two outstanding hits.

So until 1 o'clock . . . Your MMC, WES.

Register Women—RICKREALL — Mrs. F. S. Crowley and Mrs. W. C. Hill took the registration of women here Monday and Tuesday.
