Dr. Knopf Is Luncheon Speaker

Dr. Carl Sumner Knopf, president of Willamette university, was the guest speaker at the Women of Rotary luncheon Monday noon at the Quelle. His topic was "Women of the Bible."

The patriotic motif was carried out in the decorations. The tables were festive with miniature logs surrounded by red and blue cellophane and hatchets. The white tapers were striped with red and blue with silhouettes of Washington and Lincoln. The speaker's table was centered with a bowl of red and purple anemones and white carna-

Cheese Fun To Use in Cooking

Women with a flare for creating new foods, can have lots of fun with cheese, especially during Lent when many women cut meat from their list of foods once or twice a week. Here are some suggestions for the use of America's favorite cheddar cheese: Toasted cheese appetizers, grated cheese with onion, potato, or celery soup, scalloped tuna fish or crab meat with cheese topping, scalloped macaroni or rice with cheese, cheese sauce and vegetables on toast, cheese souffles, cheese rarebit, cheese omelet, cheese biscuit, cheese sandwich combinations, and berry pies. One more suggestion is timely in these days when we cut down on sugar-rich desserts. One very satisfactory way to finish a dinner is to serve a cheese tray with crisp crackers and sections of tart apples or quartered chilled pears.

and, of course, cheese with fruit

So in a "soup-to-nuts" meal, an informal lunch or in-between meal snack, a fine-flavored cheese is a welcomed, friendly food.

CHEESE FINGERS

Trim crusts from sliced bread. Spread generously with butter creamed with grated horseradish. Cut each slice of bread into thirds. Dip buttered side into grated aged American cheese.

Brown under a broiling unit until cheese is lightly browned. Serve very hot with soup or

CHEESE AND VEGETABLE CASSEROLE

In a buttered casserole place a one-inch layer of cubed buttered toast. Add 1 cup cooked peas and 1 cup diced cooked carrots, mixed with 1/2 cup grated cheese. Add 2 cups evaporated milk

DINNER SPECIAL

1/4 cup butter 1 cup grated aged American cheese

1/3 cup flour 1 cup hot milk

1/4 teaspoon soda

1 cup cooked tomatoes

½ teaspoon paprika

1/2 teaspoon salt

Dash of cayenne pepper Melt the butter in a heavy frying pan. Add cheese. Sprinkle the flour over the cheese. Cover the pan. Cook very slowly until the cheese melts and bubbles up through the flour. Stir in the milk slowly. Blend thoroughly. Add soda to tomatoes. Stir into cheese mixture. Season. Simmer a few minutes to blend. Do not overcook. Serve on crackers, toast, or cooked rice. Yield 21/2 cups.
