Hat Styles to Be Featured At Benefit

What's new in spring hat styles will be shown at the bridge benefit given by the Salem Junior Woman's club on March 16 in the Woman's clubhouse. The bridge benefit and style hat show will begin at 8 o'clock. Funds from the benefit will be used to pay expenses of the club's delegate, Miss Hattie Brazel, first vice-president, to the National Federation convention in Fort Worth, Texas, in April.

Mrs. Maurice H. Saffron heads the committee for the benefit, and on the committee are Mrs. Joseph Tompkins, Miss Ilogal Zimmerman, Mrs. Maurice Brennen, Mrs. Fred Gast, Mrs. Bert Walker and Mrs. George Jackson.

Pattern

For that visit to grandmother's, she wants to wear her best frock! Let it be made from Pattern 4002 and stitched up daintily at home by you, Mother—she'll be so proud. On the dress in the foreground, Anne Adams uses a gay little yoke trimmed with self-ruffles—isn't it sweet? The side pleats begin below the yoke and a half-belt holds them in place. For this "visiting dress" make an everyday version with yokes and sleeves of contrast, trimmed with bought ruffling and with pleats top-stitched down to the waist; and for warmer weather, a little sleeveless sun-frock trimmed with buttons.

Pattern 4002 is available in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6, dress all one fabric, takes 2 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric; dress with contrast, 1 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrast; sun-frock, 2 yards 35 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (plus ONE CENT to cover cost of mailing) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. YOUR role in the 1942 picture is to be thrifty, yet look your smartest and prettiest. Let the colorful new Anne Adams Spring Pattern Book help you plan a new-and-save program, with its easily made, promptly available patterns for every age. Trim fashioned modes, gay prints, cottons, evening gowns, housewear. Charming young-women graduation, school and party clothes, too. PLUS—several patterns for defense sewing. Order your copy NOW! FIFTEEN BOOK TEN. Send your order to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Department, Salem, Ore.
