Should all the players, picked by the Western International head, Bob Abel, for distribution to the four remaining loop clubs, return to their new owners this year, we'd say that the Tacoma Tigers came up with the cream of the crop. There's no doubt that Al Lien is one of the better hurlers in the loop, and Roy Younker and Gypsy Bonetti are certainly top bracket hitters. They had Carl McConnell, another top-flight tosser, but swapped him to Vancouver for Walt Bliss, but Bliss can be counted on to Coach Slats Gill's formula Wedbe just as efficient in his department of hitting and base-pilfering nesday as he prepared his Oregon as would have been McConnell to the Tiger mound staff. Salem Did Okay-IF-Our Senators didn't do so badly in obtaining the future WI services of the two Bills, Johnson and Reese, IF they come back. Johnson was in our estimation potentially the best hitter in the league last year, but the trouble is, Hollywood might also be of that opinion and keep Bill down south, as he too is in on the four player sale to the Stars. Reese doesn't have to doff his baseball bonnet to anyone as a firstbaseman, and is a pretty fair willow waver as well. Too bad Reese hasn't the hustle that's wanted by higher-

Not Much for Caps

"Ruby Robert" Brown, Vancouver Capilano chancellor, didn't fare so good. McConnell is a winning pitcher, but a little story Perrydale Schedules goes along with his efforts in the Vancouver park. Only last season Carl was telling us of a certain inx connected with such efforts.

"That park is my hoo-doo," quoted Carl, "and I couldn't win a game up there if my life depended on it. How can they expect a guy to cut loose with that 251-foot right field fence stuck right where the second baseman should be playing."

IF Carl returns, there's the which will engage in single elimlittle question of whether or not ination games between the halves he'll be able to overcome his of the boys' games.

He'll help Brown's Canadian Bombers.

Salvatore Madrid, the smooth Pip shortstop who was sold to San Diego by Yakima, is also listed as Cap property, but probably won't do them any good for a long time. Sally surprised everyone a while back by joining the army after being deferred in the draft.

Summing the Salem situation up, of the lot we'd say that Bill Johnson has the best chance of not coming back. He should be ready Ward Takes Time off for double-A ball. Tacoma Best 'Drawer'

Right now it's hard to say just who will return and who will not. Baseball, as well as anything else these days, must shoulder its uncertainties too. But IF all the drawees drawn return to the league baseball wars this season, there's no doubt that Tacoma had her "lucky drawers" on when the draw was made.

Creepy Crespi Listed As No. 1 Worry; Only Eight Inked so Far

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 25.-(AP)-The St. Louis Cardinals have contract roubles—and lots of it. Only eight of the team's 16 infielders and outfielders have signed for the coming season, Branch Rickey disclosed Wed-

They are Jimmy Brown, Terry Moore, Estel Crabtree, Stan Musial, George Kurowski, Bob Blattner, Ray Sanders and Ervin Dusak. Harry Walker has agreed to terms but has not yet signed.

The Cardinals' vice-president and general manager, expressing confidence over the outcome of negotiations, said none of the remaining players could be called holdouts until Friday, when they are scheduled to report for spring training at St. Petersburg, Fla.

A special case is that of Welwood English who retired from baseball in 1939. English is making an effort to arrange his business affairs so he can report, Rickey said, calling that "the best bit of news I've had in some time."

Rickey named Frank Crespi, second-baseman, as the team's most serious problem. Crespi, who lives in St. Louis, said he deserved more money than he had been of-
