Funds to Rationing Board—The county court was informed Friday by City Attorney Lawrence N. Brown that Salem as a city is prepared to bear $25 a month as its share of costs in maintaining the rationing board headquarters here. Any office established in Salem for the county rationing headquarters would serve also as headquarters for the Salem local board. The court has been asked to share the costs also, and a request for a full-time clerk has gone in to the federal government. Any such clerk would be a civil service appointee, O. L. Price, state rationing director, has notified John Helzel, county administrator and chairman of the Salem board.

Youth Asked To Register For Defense

Marion county's youth was Friday invited by Mrs. Agnes C. Booth, county school superintendent, to register for defense service. Special blanks provided by the federal employment service go this weekend from her office to teachers throughout the county with the request that every pupil from seventh grade through college be given the opportunity to fill out a card.

The blanks, to be taken home, and to be returned with the information and parents' signatures, should then be mailed or delivered directly to the US employment service office in Salem.

Age, name, address, educational records, aptitudes, activities, gardening experience, vocational education under Smith-Hughes provision, other skills and experience and availability for national defense work, particularly seasonal agricultural work, are to be recorded, according to W. H. Baillie, head of the employment office here.

US Housing Act Features Told

Features of title six of the federal housing act, applicable in designated defense areas were explained to the Salem Realty board Friday by Elton H. Thompson, assistant manager of the Ladd & Bush-Salem branch of the US National Bank of Portland.

Thompson said persons who build under title six do not have to be engaged in defense work to be eligible, and that houses under the title could be rented, not possible under title two, which number six closely resembles.

"Salem's big building problem will probably be lack of labor," declared Thompson, who stated even priority numbers do not guarantee the holder can obtain materials.

Stolen Auto Found—Two cases of cleaner and 80 steel slicing knives were missing from an auto owned by S. O. Tankersley of Portland when it was recovered near the paper mill here Friday morning by Inspector Hobar Kiggins of the city police. # Mission, Lenten Services Set By Salem Catholic Churches

Normal opening of a two weeks mission by the Jesuit Fathers in St. Joseph's church will take place Sunday morning at the 10:30 o'clock mass.

Rev. Curtis J. Sharp, SJ, a widely known Jesuit and one of the best known pulpit orators of the northwest, will preach the opening sermon.

Exercises for the first week will be conducted by Father Sharp, who will direct his talks particularly to the needs and problems of women in the parish. The second week of the mission will be in charge of Rev. Charles F. Suver, SJ. His particular efforts will be devoted to the spiritual welfare of Catholic men.

During the mission weekday masses will be at 6 and 8 o'clock followed by a short instruction. Nightly services will be at 7:30 o'clock followed by the mission sermon.

Lenten services at St. Vincent de Paul church include special services three nights a week and the addition of a third Sunday mass, according to Rev. Robert S. Neugebauer, pastor.

On Sunday and Wednesday nights instructions on the Ten Commandments will be given by Rev. Paul Stockhausen, SJ, Port Townsend, Wash. Father Neugebauer is in charge of the Way of the Cross Friday nights followed by talks on the Passion of Christ by Father Stockhausen.

Sunday masses are at 7:30, 9, and 10:30 a. m. until Easter.

Sermon Series Set by Pastor

"Toward an Understanding of God" is the first of a series of pre-Easter lectures to be given Sunday mornings at the First Congregational church by the minister, Rev. Robert A. Hutchinson.

Other subjects are: March 8, "Toward an Understanding of Jesus"; 15, "Toward an Understanding of Religion"; 22, "Toward an Understanding of Right and Wrong"; 29, "Toward an Understanding of the Church."

Hutchinson announces that this is an affirmative and constructive effort to interpret religion in terms of modern thought. A special invitation is extended to those who are not affiliated with any local church.

Guest Speaker Is Scheduled

School Anniversary Noted; Recognition Services Planned

Dr. James T. Matthews will give a special address, "Seeing God on the Willamette University campus for More Than Half a Century," at the First Methodist church Sunday night, as a part of the centennial celebration of the university. Friends of Dr. Matthews are invited.

The congregational singing will be led by the McCormick class, many of whom were students of Dr. Matthews. Melvin Gilson will be the soloist.

At the morning service the annual recognition service of the WSCS will be held, with Dr. J. C. Harrison preaching and the cathedral choir, led by Dean Melvin Geist with Prof. T. S. Roberts at the organ.

The WSCS of First church is one of the three largest Methodist women's groups in Oregon. They have 270 members. Officers are: president, Mrs. Ted Ullakko; vice-president, Mrs. R. M. Gatte; secretary, Alma Pohle; treasurer, Mrs. L. D. Wernman; publications, Adona Cochran; Christian social relations in local church activities, Mrs. B. H. White; publicity, Mrs. H. E. Rahe; finance, Mrs. A. A. Lee; fellowship, Mrs. E. O. Welling; student work, Mrs. D. H. # Sunday School Assembly Held

Beginning at 9:45 a. m. this Sunday the monthly general Sunday school assembly at the First Presbyterian church will be held in the auditorium.

The opening program will be in charge of the Boy Scouts from church troop No. 8. Patrol Leader George Schwab will give the call to worship, Senior Patrol Leader Frank McGee will lead the Scouts in the oath and Tom Faught will play a trombone solo, and acorn awards for recruiting new scouts will be presented to Ross Morrow and Jean MacLean.

The scripture will be read by Explorer Scout Tom Brand. Kenneth Murphy, assistant scoutmaster, will preside. J. J. Fitzsimmons is superintendent of the department.

At the 10:55 worship hour the pastor, W. Irvin Williams, will speak on "Mary, Mother of God."

Easter Service Plans Subject Of Youth Meet

Youth representatives from all Salem churches are to meet at the Salem YMCA Sunday at 3 p. m. to plan the annual Easter sunrise service at Belcrest Memorial park.

The early morning service, which has become a tradition with Salem people, attracted more than 2000 last year. An organ concert from 5:45 a. m. until 6 will be played by Rev. Don Huckabee, West Salem Methodist church, and special music by young people from many Salem churches will be a part of the program.

All Boy Scouts in Salem will be asked to assist in handling traffic and helping park the hundreds of cars which will come. Selection of the speaker and appointment of committees for the program and publicity will be made at the YMCA meeting Sunday afternoon.

Permits Taken—There were 214 revocation of suspensions of motor vehicle drivers' permits, for Oregon and out-of-state operators, during December, Secretary of State Earl Snel reported Friday. Ninety of the revocations were for driving while intoxicated. Of these 27 were in the Portland courts and 63 in other parts of the state.

One Permit Issued—The city building department Friday issued a permit to M. Chappelle to alter a grocery store at 1850 Lee street at a cost of $260.

ARE YOU SAVING TIRES?

Then walk or drive to the First Baptist Church on Sunday instead of making that trip to the coast or visiting distant friends who might be compelled to miss church to entertain you.

"The Fool Has Said In His Heart, There Is No God" We think that type is rare, but many are foolishly neglecting their spiritual welfare. Don't be in that class but be informed and inspired by the fine exposition of Scripture given daily by Dr. Carl Armerding, FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, Sunday 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Weekdays 7:30 and 7:50 P. M.
