With only one more week left for social events this term, the Oregon campus has been buzzing with activity.

Mortar Board's annual "Smarty Party" for all girls with a grade point average of three or above was a great success Tuesday. Invitations were taken to the different houses at dinner time by women of Mortar Board dressed in caps and gowns. Of the five Mortar Board women on the campus, two of them, Elizabeth Steed and Helen Angell, are Salem girls. "Steedie" was first time before a campus group. Salem "smartys" included Beth Siewert, Velita Estey, Ruth Van Buskirk and Barbara

With elections now completed, Elizabeth Steed, president of the Associated Women students, will hand her gavel over to her predecessor soon.

Seen at the Tri Delta house dance last Friday night were Ray Farmer and Betty Childs, Allen Siewert and Harriet Crawford. Helen Angell, Emerald Editor, served as one of the judges of the Little Colonel contest for the Military ball.

Many students took time off for the Thomas Beecham concert Monday. Among those attending were Carol Cook, Nola Lee, Coe Roberts, Kenneth Morse, Pat Carson and Warren

Among the many guests visiting the campus last weekend were Dorothy Vandeneynde, Mary Ellen Mills, Pl Beta Phi; Phyllis Fisher; Florence Duffy; Janice Nelson, and Mary Anne Owen who came down to house dances and the Military ball.
