Lady luck must have been looking the other way for Hapby Howard Maple at the base-ball drawing in Tacoma this week. Word now comes from hat along with the names of the 21 indisposed Wenatchee and Yakima players to even the drawing to six plucks per remaining club, and Mister Maple's Senators drew two of the clean, white inserts.

The club owners and business managers agreed that they of the athletes return to the Western International this season, but even at that, with good ball players so hard to get these days, it's a shame Miss Fortune turned her back on the Happy one.

Of course campaigners like Bill Johnson and Reese can't be sneezed at, but had Happy Howard had his lucky drawers at the scene of the player pulling party, we might have come up with Bonetti, Bliss, McConnell. Lien and the two Billsthat would have been drawing to a pair and coming up with

What a potent powerhouse 'Our Senators' could boast of with those six, plus Charlie Petersen, Eddie Adams, Frankie Dierixz, Freddie Lanifero and the little Jersey giant, ex-Skipper Bunny Griffiths. Proficieney plus through the middle and flanked on both sides with plenty of power!

It's all a pipe-dream, but what a ball club that would make!

Dayton Downs Stayton, 35-6, For B2 Title

MONMOUTH-Dayton's Pirates won the district B2 championship at Monmouth Friday night when they romped to a 35-6 win over the Stayton Packers.

Stayton did not score a single field goal until the final two sections when Bob O'Connor connected with the hoop.

Dayton dominated the game throughout, leading at the first period, 3-1; holding a 15-3 margin at half, and leading the pack, 23-4 at the third period.

In a consolation game, Corbett downed Monmouth, 33-22 in which Corbett led all the way as Kirkham, Corbett forward, scored 16 points.

44 TO TURN THE TRICK

Long looping howitzers, fast lay-ins, snatches, mad scrambles, desperate dives-all were prominent in the wild and hectic game which brought the Intramural crown to rest on the Parrish Pioneer.

Bud Smith drew first blood in the riotous game with a lay-in over College of Idaho for Linafter the opening tip-off. The play went Slater to Clark to Smith. Little Loren Helmhout, despite his miniature size, a giant of the Parrish offense, tied it up a minute later with a neat one-handed cast from the side. Mickey Tamiyasu ran the Pioneers into the lead with his bucket from the foul line after a full court dribble. Slater came through with a beauty after a mad scramble under the Parrish basket to knot the count, but lightning trusts by Brandle and Helmhout gave the winners a 9-6 quarter lead.

Tamiyasu ran it to 11-6 and it looked like the big Pioneers were headed for the races. But Earl Clark found the range with his 7 Dewey long loopers late in the second 0 Crippen heat, and aided by a lay-in by 0 Cooper Michael just before the half time 0 Jensen whistle, knotted the raging game

The Missionaries took over the scoring lead in the third quarter on baskets by Slater, Michael and Clark. Counters from flips by Helmhout, Farlow and Garland were not enough and Leslie led going into the final heat, 22-19.

Ed Brandle and Eldon Farlow evened the count with six minutes to go, and Owen Garland Stolz Pounds Eugene Lowe and two more tremendous tosses by Clark.
