

Will Evacuate Enemy Aliens

Restricted Areas on Coast Outlined by General's Orders

and affecting perhaps 200,000 people. The forbidden area "is particularly subject to attack, to attempted invasion," the general said, and "is subject to espionage and acts of sabotage."

General Dewitt's public proclamation No. 1, addressed to the residents of the four states, established a prohibited zone (A-1) and a restricted zone (B) within military area one, and declared all of the rest of the four states constituted military area two. Ninety-seven small forbidden zones were created within zone B and military area two.

Zone A-1, from which all enemy aliens and Japanese-Americans are to be evacuated, incorporates a strip running down the coastline from the Canadian to the Mexican border and along southern Arizona. This zone, from 30 to 125 miles deep, includes all of the major military encampments, naval establishments, aircraft factories, shipyards, and other defense cities. In it, too, are all of the coast's biggest cities—Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Ore., San Diego, Oakland, Calif., Tacoma, Wash. (See map.)

Back of this forbidden area lies zone B, together comprising a border from 95 to 250 miles deep along the western and southwestern edge of the country. All aliens except certain exemptions of individuals or classes, which would be established in subsequent proclamations. (Salem is in zone B.)

Within the combined zones lie virtually all of the far west's great stands of virgin timber, and the richest part of agricultural land including the prolific Imperial valley, often called "America's breadbasket." Much of these farmlands, particularly the truck gardens in metropolitan areas and shipping centers, are farmed by Japanese families.

Who will replace them was left unanswered by General Dewitt. He has appointed a civilian staff, including representatives of all federal agencies previously dealing with the alien situation, to aid him in solving this question and minimizing suffering attendant on removals.

The 97 smaller areas, usually covering an area of about a mile in diameter, surrounded power plants, strategic bridges, telephone and telegraph offices, reservoirs and armories.

All previous orders by the attorney general, who formerly had jurisdiction over the alien question, were perpetuated by General Dewitt.

One immediate restriction the army added was a requirement that all aliens within the military areas register at the nearest postoffice whenever he changes his residence. And he advised aliens to move now and save themselves possible future trouble.

Exceptions from removal orders, the general said, will be granted to German and Italian aliens over 70 years of age unless they are individually suspected, and to Italian or German parents, wives, children, brothers or sisters of men serving in the armed forces.

He indicated no exceptions would be made for the Japanese who he said would be affected by the first evacuation orders he issues. Five different classes of people will be dealt with in forthcoming proclamations:

1. Persons suspected of espionage, sabotage, subversive activity, or fifth column activity.
2. Japanese aliens.
3. American born persons of Japanese descent.
4. German aliens.
5. Italian aliens.

"Evacuation from military areas will be a continuing process," General Dewitt declared. "Persons of classes 2 and 3 will be required by future orders to leave certain critical points with the military areas first."

"Immediate compulsory mass evacuation of Japanese and other aliens from the Pacific coast is impracticable. Eventually orders will be issued requiring all Japanese including those who are American-born, to evacuate all of military area No. 1."

No restriction was contemplated for military area No. 2, and the general indicated aliens who resettled there would be left undisturbed. Others, he made it clear, will be transplanted to other states regardless of the antagonistic feelings of their governors and residents.

From various sections of military area No. 1 came reports of bewilderment of Japanese who have watched the slow extension of forbidden and restricted areas, and heard a thin clamor for their mass evacuation from the coastal area.

Federal bureau of investigation agents continued their roundup of enemy aliens, which has resulted in the arrest of hundreds of potentially dangerous persons. Among today's raids was the arrest of a Japanese at Santa Cruz in whose waterfront home agents seized 60 cases loaded with fireworks—mostly skyrockets and colored flares.

Where Japs Triple-Stubbed in Fierce Effort to Subdue Last Dutch Stronghold

Despite what are described as extremely heavy losses, Jap armies that landed on Java at three invasion points are admitted by the allied command to have made serious advances inland. The advance from the northwestern tip of Bantam province (1) was reported slight. The center column (2) has forged ahead from Indramaju and captured Soebang, 40 miles inland and an important railroad center, and only 40 miles from allied command headquarters at Bandoeng; while the third landing force has pushed along a coastal plain from its beach landing 20 miles east of Rem-bang (3) toward the great Soerabaya naval base. The Dutch applied the torch to the last great oil center in the Tjapoeg region, south of Rembang.

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts)—March 3—(P)—German naval batteries fired on British ships in the English channel at noon Tuesday, forcing them to withdraw, the high command announced Tuesday night.

Hospitality House Hope Is Renewed

A recently announced decision against allotting federal funds for construction of a recreational center in Salem for soldiers from the Albany-Corvallis cantonment is to be reconsidered, according to a telegram received Tuesday by Alderman Tom Armstrong from Sen. Charles L. McNary.

The senator wired that Charles F. Taft, assistant director of defense health and welfare services was arranging to have a field representative visit Salem to confer with Armstrong regarding the requested hospitality house.

Federal construction of such buildings at Albany and Corvallis has already been approved, local officials have been advised.

Alaska Route Established Is Report

VANCOUVER, March 3—(CP)—The Vancouver Sun in a special dispatch from Dawson Creek, BC, said Tuesday that construction of the Alaska highway through Edmonton and British Columbia "seems a certainty with notification from Washington to make ready storage space for equipment here (Dawson Creek) and at points along the northern Alberta railway."

"It is unofficially reported the first US engineers who will build the road will arrive in Dawson Creek March 10."

"Major Reuters of Washington and Homer P. Keith, department of transport at Fort St. John, flew Monday from Edmonton to Fort St. John and were met there by Frank Clark, district engineer for the British Columbia Peace River district."

Rural Zoning Need Talked

State emergency measures invoked by the governor and given whole hearted support by citizens are needed to solve the problem of rural zoning in the new cantonment area, according to W. Dorr Legg, landscape architect at Oregon State college.

Legg, in an address before the Kiwanis club Tuesday, said that the army would take care of activities within the camp itself but it is on the edge of the cantonment where our problems begin. "Zoning is more than dressing up or external and applies to fundamental principals of housing, planning and zoning."

main points of what was known of the attack:

"... prior to receiving the first torpedo hit, the enemy sub was not sighted nor was the torpedo.

"The first torpedo blew up the bow and apparently killed all the personnel on the bridge as well as the men sleeping in the forward compartments.

"The second torpedo, which was fired after the submarine circled ahead of the Jacob Jones, blew up the stern and all the depth charges."

The initial blast, it was surmised here, cost the lives of the captain, Lieut. Com. Hugh David Black, of Oradell, N.J., and of most if not all the other officers, whom the navy did not identify. The second undoubtedly blew the entire aft part of the ship to pieces so that the wreck quickly went under.

The exact number of casualties was not announced nor was the total of those on board when the attack started given out.

The Jacob Jones, named for a hero of the war of 1812 and the campaign against the Barbary pirates, was traveling in dangerous waters even though close to shore when she cruised along the Jersey coast early Saturday.

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, March 3—(P)—An enemy vessel, presumably a submarine, made the war's first attack on United States soil in the Atlantic Monday night, harmlessly shelling the cliffs of Mona Island, a pinpoint of volcanic rock in the Mona passage 50 miles southwest of Puerto Rico.

The office of Governor Rexford Tugwell announced Tuesday that word of the attack came in a radio message from Remberto Casaba, assistant director of a national youth administration camp on the island.

WASHINGTON, March 3—(P)—The social security board is paying approximately $100 a month to the next of kin of civilians who were taken prisoner by the Japanese on the Pacific islands, it was learned Tuesday.

The civilians were employed by the navy on construction work. The navy originally arranged for the compensation through the contractors, using the unexpended balance of appropriations for the work which was interrupted by hostilities, but abandoned the payments when the social security board took over.

hours by bombers and fighter craft. Sixty enemy planes were observed at one time.

Anti-aircraft batteries and outnumbered allied fighter pilots were unable to break up the enemy formations. One enemy plane was shot down by Dutch fighters.

There was another alert in the afternoon.

During the morning raid, some gasoline and oxygen tanks were destroyed in the Bandoeng area. The casualties were few, among them two persons killed by a direct hit on an air-raid shelter.

Striking at Japanese air bases of unstarred location—presumably on Sumatra—allied air forces machine-gunned and put out of action ten Japanese navy "zero" fighters which were about to take off. The pilots were killed.

Two of three enemy seaplanes, attacked elsewhere, were likewise destroyed.

(The strong Japanese air attack upon Bandoeng raised portentous questions. On Monday it had appeared from Dutch accounts that air superiority actually was held for the moment by the allies. Whether the Bandoeng attack indicated that this had been overturned or merely that the enemy was concentrating his force on one objective at a time was not clear.)

Two more Japanese transports of 10,000 and 8000 tons respectively, were squarely hit and a Japanese tanker was sunk by a submarine to bring known enemy losses to 30 warships and other vessels sunk or damaged.

As this allied action against the enemy's sea train went on it was reported that only five ships remained afloat of an original enemy force of 12 which had carried the invaders ashore at Rembang in northeast Java.

Red Artillery Blasts Nazis At Staraya

MOSCOW, March 3—(P)—Dispatches from the front told Tuesday night how soviet artillery blasted a German airport in the Staraya Russia region where the 16th German army continued its refusal to surrender despite a slow tightening of the Russian encirclement.

The soviet shells caused loud explosions and big fires on the German air field—one of many the Germans are using in attempts to deliver supplies by air to the beleaguered army.

Some of these German supply planes are landing, the Russians admitted, but front dispatches said the ring tightening the German army was gradually being reduced.

US Taxes to Double in '43

Treasury Sets New Goal for Revenues; Every Home Affected

come; $333 (instead of $154) on $4000 and $587 (instead of $271) on $5000.

The average increase was reckoned at 60 per cent by the treasury. However, it starts at more than 100 per cent in the lower brackets. The rate of increase grows less on the higher incomes, of which the government is already taking a larger percentage than is paid by the "little fellow."

Thus while the married individual with two dependents would pay $32 instead of $12 on a $2500 income, the tax to be collected on an income of $5,000,000 would rise from $3,921,884 to $4,478,215, or an increase of about 14 per cent. The man who makes a round million in a year's time would be permitted to keep about $120,000 of it for his own use.

Under the treasury program, these increases are to be brought about by simply upping the rates. Present personal exemption figures—$750 if single, and $1500 if married—would be retained, and the allowance for dependents—$400 each—would not be altered. However, the ten percent credit given on earned income, as distinct from income derived from investments and other sources, would be abolished.

Morgenthau asked congress to permit him to collect income taxes "from the source" if that were deemed necessary. Under this plan, the government could call on employers to deduct up to 10 percent of employees' pay checks after making allowance for credits for dependents.

Naval Fliers Bag 16 Japs

One Pilot Gets Six In Gilbert Islands Attack on Warships

Adroit dodging by the aircraft carrier helped battle the attacking Japanese others, which operated in two waves of nine each.

"Only three enemy planes of the first formation reached their bomb release point over the aircraft carrier which avoided all bomb hits by split-second maneuvering," the navy related.

"The leading bomber of this group attempted a crash landing on the carrier and was shot down by heavy close-range anti-aircraft fire when barely 100 yards from its objective."

In the second attack, the navy continued, only five enemy bombers reached the bomb release point. In the two attacks two American fighter planes were lost. The pilot of one was recovered.

The communique said that despite the severity of the Japanese attack there was no damage to the American surface forces.

The attacks, the navy continued, occurred late in the afternoon and were timed about one-half hour apart.
