Salem, Oregon, Sunday Morning, March 15, 1942

THE TOURNAMENT attracted the high school contingent, faculty as well as students. Snapped on the steps of the gym, above left, are Miss Mary Eyre, Mrs. Thomas Wolgamott and Miss Beryl Holt, faculty members.

MRS. EDGAR A. LLOYD, at left, who was Margaret Helen Crowley before her marriage on March 11 at the First Evangelical church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Crowley. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Lloyd.

THEY'LL MODEL at the Beta Sigma Phi fashion bridge on March 25. Mrs. Alden Adolph and Mrs. Lawrence Anderson, at right, choose hats to wear at the show. The fashion bridge will be held at the Legion home. Miss Isobel Mielke is heading the committee.

MISS BEULAH BRIGGS, at left, this week announced her engagement to Mr. Joe S. Van Winkle, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle of Hubbard. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Briggs of Great Falls, Montana. Both Miss Briggs and Mr. Van Winkle are Willamette university students.

MISS KATHERINE GERIG, right, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gerig, is today announcing her engagement to Mr. Arthur Bliven, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bliven. Both attended Salem schools. No date has been set for the wedding.
