

Fun Festival Slated Friday At Silverton

SILVERTON — Norris Anderson, junior class president, reports that his committee headed by Bill Duncan are "all set" for the annual junior carnival Friday night, opening at 7 o'clock at the Eugene Field auditorium. Script is being sold and no admission will be charged, as the scrip will be used in payment of booth attractions.

The carnival has been labeled a "fun festival" and every conceivable sort of attraction has been added according to Chairman Duncan. Classes and high school organizations are sponsoring the booths. The affair is open to the public as well as to students. Proceeds will go toward the annual junior prom.

Guy DeLay, dramatic coach at the Silverton high school, is announcing that "Night of January 16" has been chosen as the annual senior class play and that the date has been set for April 10. The cast will be completed within a very few days.

Albany Rites Set Today

ALBANY—Funeral services for Gus T. Harder, 72, who died at his home in this city Tuesday will be held from the Fisher funeral home at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with Rev. Charles Wheeler in charge. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Harder was born in Germany. He came to the United States in 1885, first locating in Chicago, Ill., and two years later came to Oregon, since then making his home in or near Albany. For some 20 years after coming to this state he followed farming, but in 1907 retired and since then has lived in Albany. For more than 50 years he had been a member of the Oak Creek Baptist church.

On September 17, 1931, he married Mrs. Ida Cummings, former Linn county school superintendent. She survives as do three sisters, Mrs. Ella Broders and Mrs. Kattie Stellmacher, both of Albany, and Mrs. H. O. Dalbey, San Francisco.

Kitchen Shower Draws Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fox and family had as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. Whelstone, Newport.

Frances Brewer, who attends Mt. Angel Normal college, was at her home here for the weekend.

The district defense meeting date has been changed to Saturday night. Delegates from the local group who attended the meeting for instruction in fire-fighting in Silverton earlier in the week will report on this as will the committee on Victory gardens.

Endeavor Groups Attend Party

UNIONVALE—The young people's Christian Endeavor and the Intermediate Endeavor societies held a party Friday with 41 members present. Genevieve Sharf, Salem and Mrs. Clarence Crawley were chaperones. Rev. Gerald Haffe was leader.

Rev. Gerald Haffe spent Saturday with his brother who is ill at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dixon and son moved Thursday to Portland, where the former is employed in a shipyard.

John Clow, employed at a shipyard in Portland, spent Saturday with his family here.

Grangers' News

DAYTON—Twenty members attended the Webfoot grange Saturday. The grange county council with delegates from Carlton, Newberg and Sheridan, was a special feature. A drive for scrap metal and paper will start at once.

From now on only the business meetings will be held each month, during the busy season.

An open meeting will be held at the Roberts Grange hall tonight at 8 o'clock. Mr. Colby, Salem, will give instruction and demonstrate what should be done in case of an air raid.

The meeting is sponsored by the Roberts Grange with Mrs. Roy Lee, lecturer, making arrangements. Adults of the surrounding communities are urged to attend.

MACLEAY — Grange social light will be held at the hall Saturday. The "Oregonians" will furnish music and the Pratum batchers will serve luncheon.
