Bridge Luncheon On Wednesday

Mrs. E. R. Frederickson was hostess at luncheon Wednesday afternoon at her South Winter street home for a group of her friends. Daffodils and other spring flowers carried out the green and yellow decorative scheme. Bridge was in play during the afternoon and prizes went to Mrs. Dewey Hall and Mrs. Rex Hartley.

Places were laid for Mrs. William Ross, Mrs. Bert Smith, Mrs. Ed Kitchen, Mrs. Carl Guenther, Mrs. Elmer McKee, Mrs. Cal Patton, Mrs. Arthur Vinegar, Mrs. Mary Dickerson, Mrs. Dewey Hall, Mrs. George Henderson, Mrs. Rex Hartley and the hostess.

Nutrition Class To Be Given

Mrs. George H. Swift, president of the Salem Women's club, is announcing today that the club is sponsoring a Red Cross nutrition class and the first meeting will be held on Monday, March 23, at the clubhouse on North Cottage street between Center and Marion.

The classes will be held from 2 to 4 o'clock for ten consecutive weeks and the classes are open to the public as well as club members. This is the first class to be given under the auspices of the nutrition division of the Red Cross.

The subject is basic nutrition, stressing the feeding of the family and adequate use of foods now available. To persons completing the course a Red Cross certificate will be given and will entitle them to take a canteen course to be offered at a later date.

The instructor will be Mrs. Bjarne Erickson, who has completed the refresher course in home economics given by the Red Cross. Mrs. Erickson is a graduate in home economics at Oregon State college and was a demonstrator in home economics for the General Electric company in Portland.

Mrs. J. Deane Patterson is taking registrations for the course and it is advisable to register early before the quota is filled. Mrs. Patterson may be reached at 5287.

Simmons-Welch Vows Read

On March 8, Miss June Welch, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Welch of Portland and Mr. Maurice Welch of Salem, became the bride of Mr. John R. Simmons, son of Mrs. Theo B. Waldrow of Bryant, South Dakota. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Stuart Goude in the parsonage of the First Congregational church in Vancouver, Washington.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore a powder blue street dress and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Darrell Simmons of Salem attended her and Mr. Simmons was best man.

The bride's mother wore a dusty pink street dress and a regal lily corsage. The reception was held at her home in Portland.

The young couple are former Salem residents. The bride is at the First National bank in Portland and the groom is studying dental technology. They will live in Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Erickson have returned from a four months' stay in California with members of their family. In Santa Barbara they were guests of Dr. Mary Erickson and in Sacramento visited with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Erickson. While guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erickson, jr., in Oakland they joined them on a vacation trip to Mexico.

Mrs. Barker Is Honor Guest

Mrs. Warren Baker is entertaining with two parties this week at her Kingwood Heights home. Thursday afternoon she invited guests to a dessert luncheon for the pleasure of Mrs. Gordon Barker.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations and a shower honored Mrs. Barker. The afternoon hours were spent informally.

Bidden were Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Amos Barker, Mrs. Edwin Johnston, Mrs. Charles Bollens, Mrs. Frank Starr, Mrs. Gordon Hull, Mrs. C. T. LaBare, Mrs. Foster Wintermute, Mrs. Delwin Finley, Mrs. Ray Rhoten, Mrs. Otto Bertram, Mrs. Ray Barrey, Mrs. Otto Hoppes, Mrs. Amanda Molencup, Mrs. Ernest Wagner, Mrs. Millard Allen, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. Glenn Morse, Mrs. Knight Percy, Mrs. Arthur Myers, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. E. A. Morgan, Mrs. E. A. Donnelly of Oswego and Mrs. E. A. Brown.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Barker will entertain with a party for her son, Ronnie, on his fourth birthday. Guests will be Jerry Berg, Ann Lee Finley, Sue Ann Barker, Elvis Barker, Mary Anne Donnelly, Karleen Quistad, Rosemary Rhoten, Bill Robb and Steve Crawford.

Other guests will be Mrs. Elmer Berg, Mrs. Delwin Finley, Mrs. Kenneth Barker, Mrs. Gordon Barker, Mrs. E. A. Donnelly, Mrs. Karl Quistad, Mrs. Ray Rhoten, Mrs. Verne Robb, Mrs. Lee Crawford, Mrs. James Hardie and Mrs. E. A. Brown.

Circle Members Entertained

Miss Laura Hale entertained members of the West Central Circle of the First Methodist church Wednesday afternoon at a 1 o'clock luncheon. Special guests were a group of the Salem high school teachers. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. C. F. Wilson, Mrs. Elizabeth Estep and Mrs. J. E. Kirk.

Special guests were Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. Oren Stratton and Mrs. R. Park. Mrs. Stratton led the devotions and the decorations carried out the St. Patrick's motif. Bouquets of daffodils were used about the guest rooms.

Spring Styles for Milady

Seen at a Chicago style show, these ensembles are the latest for spring wear. Barbara Dunning, left, wears an apron dress of navy blue and white with a felt hat featuring an apron-back of the fabric. Joan Hoff wears a peg-top skirt in violet wool and green sacket topped by a tiny violet hat with green feathers.

Shower for a Bride-Elect

Miss Jane MacLachlan entertained at a shower in honor of Miss Iras McCurdy, bride-elect of Mr. Winston Bunnell, Tuesday night at the home of her parents. Spring and Easter decorations were carried out in the appointments.

Contract was in play during the evening and prizes went to Miss Esther Gunnesdal, Miss Betty Keller and Miss Eleanor Bailey. Guests honoring Miss McCurdy were the Misses Betty Wirth, Eleanor Bailey, Chlo Anderson, Maxine Holt, Dorothea Greenwood, Betty Marie Keller, Nadine Orcutt, Grace Covert, Esther Mae DeVore, June Woldt, Esther Gunnesdal and the hostess, Jane MacLachlan.

Mayflower Guild of the First Congregational church met at the church Wednesday afternoon and Mrs. George Lewis talked about her experiences in Honolulu. Hostesses were Mrs. Kenneth Waters, Mrs. Chester Luther and Mrs. James McGillchrist.

Glee Parties Slated for Saturday

Several post-glee parties are slated for Saturday night after the annual Freshman Glee performance in the Willamette university gymnasium.

An informal dance for students, alumni and guests will follow the glee at the armory from 10 to 11:30 o'clock. Chuck Regon's orchestra will play for the affair.

Miss Marjorie Waters, student body vice-president, is chairman of the dance. Patrons and patronesses are Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Rahe, Dr. and Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erickson and Mr. and Mrs. Murco Ringnald.

There will be an alumni banquet at the Golden Pheasant before the glee and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harland are arranging an informal gathering for alumni at Chresto cottage after the glee. Assisting the Harlands are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mefford and Dr. and Mrs. Walter Zeller.

Party Given For Son

Mrs. Norris S. Walen entertained Tuesday afternoon for her son, Stephen Graig's, first birthday.

Miss Betty Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, will arrive tonight from Palo Alto where she is attending Stanford, to spend the spring vacation at the country place of her parents. Miss Gail McInerney of Saratoga, Calif., is accompanying Miss Simmons home for the vacation.

AAUW Luncheon Saturday

One of the most attractive sessions of its club year is the first spring meeting of Salem branch, American Association of University Women. Reservations for the meeting, to be held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Mirror room of the Marion hotel, may be made today by calling the hotel.

A modern play built around the boyhood and youth of Jesus in the Bethlehem carpenter's family, "The Family Portrait" is to be presented by Blanche B. Hutchison, Portland dramatic reader. As an Easter-time program, the selection has been highly praised by officers and directors of the branch.

Yellow daffodils, forsythia and small English ivy will decorate the luncheon tables. Miss Jewell Minier, chairman of the decorating committee for the March meeting, has selected to serve with her other members of the branch's recent graduates' group, Mrs. Ralph Purvine, Miss Eleanor Trindle and Mrs. Joseph Harvey.

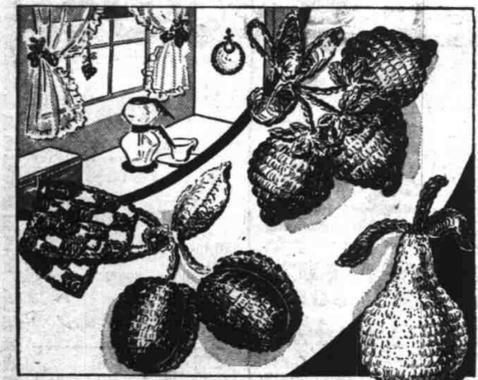

Salem branch, AAUW, having paid its state scholarship loan quota, is this spring completing its pledge to the national fellowship fund by offerings at luncheon meetings and through a series of small teas.
