

Lawson to Stick With the 'T' At Stanford—Hopes Present Conference Meet Okes Frosh

PORTLAND, March 21—(P)—Genial Jim Lawson, the newly appointed Stanford university football coach, hopes for two things:

1.—To stick with the "T" formation so popularized under Clark Shaughnessy, the man Lawson succeeds.

2.—To be able to use freshmen in varsity football this fall.

"I'd like to stick to the T," the soft spoken Lawson said between sessions with coaches at the Pacific Coast conference meeting here Saturday.

"Our line has had two years of experience with the T and I know that the crowd like T formation football."

As for using frosh:

"If the government is for football, let's get 'em in there and let 'em play—freshmen and all. I think it's a lot more important to allow eligible students to play than it is to stick by a bunch of outmoded rules."

"Under the speed-up education program it may mean a boy will not be able to play more than one or two years of varsity ball if the frosh rule stands as it is now. So let them play. The question of whether a boy will be good enough or mature enough depends mostly on the individual anyway. And if a boy of frosh age is deemed fit for military service, he certainly should be fit enough for football."

Lawson also reviewed Stanford's 1942 football prospects.

"We'll be strong at the guards and tackles. We lost our two regular ends and our regular center. We face a lot of work with our backs, as we lost Frankie Albert and Pete Kmetovic.

"Center and quarterback are two of the key spots in T formation play, and I will be fortunate to have Albert to help me this spring with the backs, and to have Center Vic Lindskog help with the line.

"Albert may not be around by fall, however, as he's due to enter the navy as soon as the graduates. Lindskog is married and has a child, and may get a deferment.

"We have Stamm and Banducci back at tackles, and Taylor and LePadre at guards. Whether LePadre moves to center, where he originally played, depends on the status of Jack Francis, substitute guard, who may go into the army.

"In the backfield we'll have Armstrong, Vucinich, Fawcett, Sheller, Hammett and Cole. The latter two are quarterbacks. We have a good prospect from the frosh in Halfback Jim Pettit of Portland who was an Oregon prep sprinting champion."

Lawson played end at Stanford in 1922-23-24 and received all-America mention the final

Joe Impressive In Workouts For Simon Go

FT. DIX, N.J., March 21—(P)—Joe Louis, preparing for the defense of his heavyweight boxing crown against Abe Simon in the army emergency relief show Friday, was most impressive in his workout.

The speed he exhibited and the manner in which he slapped his spars mates around brought plenty of applause from some 500 soldiers.

He warmed up against George Fitch and then really went to work on Eddie Blunt and George Nicholson, rocking the latter several times. When he finished his day's work, Joe tipped the scales at 209 pounds.

The champion plans to box six rounds again Sunday, and limit his work to four rounds for the next three days.

Boxing Heads Watch 'Ample' Abe Workout

SUMMIT, N.J., March 21—(P)—Gen. John J. Phelan, chairman of the New York State Athletic commission, and Dr. William H. Walker, commission physician, made an official visit Saturday to see Abe Simon workout for his heavyweight title fight with Champion Joe Louis Friday at Madison Square garden.

They watched "Ample" Abe spar two rounds each with Johnny Shkor of Boston and Joe Bakal of New York after which Dr. Walker applied his stethoscope to Simon's 50-inch chest and said he was in very good physical condition. Abe scaled 246½ pounds after the workout.

Lebanon High Opens Ball Season Monday

LEBANON—The 1942 baseball season will be formally opened here Monday afternoon when Sweet Home high tangles with Coach Roy Helser's Lebanon Warriors on the high school diamond.

While Helser's lineup will have several veterans, a new pitcher will be in the box. Only Joe Mangold has had any mound experience, and he was in relief roles last season.

According to Helser, the 25 boys who have been turning out for the team will be organized into two units, the second team to play scrimmages only with the Varsity line, thereby giving all the boys a chance to play.

Collegiate Summaries

Semi-finals: 155 pounds—Don Hawkins, Oregon State, decision over Cliff Ketz, UCLA.

165 pounds—Milt Cunha, university of California, decision over Chuck Salca, Gonzaga.

175 pounds—Norman Stebbins, Fresno State college, decision over Jack Wells, Oregon State.

175 pounds—Earl Atkins, California ag, decision over Lou King, UCLA.

175 pounds—Fred Spiegelberger, Washington State, knockout over Woodrow Gibson, San Jose State, (first round, 1:23).

Heavyweight—Frank Minini, San Jose State, knockout over John Koehnle, University of San Francisco, first round, (50 seconds); Veto Berlius, Idaho, knockout over Warren Simas, Oregon State, first round (1:38).

DiMag, Gordon Home as Yanks Clip Cards, 4-3

ST. PETERSBURG, March 21 (P)—Joe DiMaggio hit his first home run of the grapefruit season Saturday and Joe Gordon poked his second as the New York Yankees cashed in on the perfect pitching of Atley Donald to nip the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3.

DiMaggio's homer opened the scoring off Al Jurisich in the second inning and Gordon's four-master came in the eighth off Howard Pollet and scored Charlie Keller, who had singled. Mike Chartak scored the other Yank tally in the fourth when he singled and went all the way around on a walk, a fly and a force-out.

New York (A) 4 6 2 St. Louis (N) 3 4 2 Jurisich, Pollet (5) and Mancuso, Odea (7); Donald, Borowy (6), Branch (9) and Rosary.

Castoff Helps Down Detroit

LAKELAND, Fla., March 21 (P)—Tom Ferrick, a castoff from the Philadelphia Athletics, and the Veteran Mel Harder held the Detroit Tigers to five hits and an unearned run as the Cleveland Indians won an exhibition game here Saturday, 3 to 1.

Cleveland (A) 3 9 3 Detroit (A) 1 5 4 Ferrick, Harder (5) and Deaulets, Hegan (5); Newhouse, Manders (6) and Tebbets, Parsons (8).

Football Statistics Bureau Moves East

SEATTLE, March 21—(P)—The American Football Statistical bureau is heading east.

Homer P. Cooke, jr., executive secretary of the bureau, announced Saturday the bureau's quarters would be established in New York City in May, and that offices would be set up in Chicago in August for the duration of the 1942 football season.

Cooke said he believed transfer of the bureau to a centralized location in Chicago would "speed our service by at least 24 hours."

Hazel Green Nine Beats Brooks

HAZEL GREEN—The Brooks softball team fell, 9 to 1, before the Hazel Greens here Friday. A return game will be played at Brooks later.

Players on the Hazel Green team are Delmar Kobov, catcher; Susanna Kyomo, pitcher; Roland VanCleave, first base; Alvin Schwanzel, second base; Junior Williamson, third base; Ray Kyono, shortstop; Daryl VanCleave, center field; Lawrence Vise, left field; Vernon Reid, right field, and Wilmer Lowery, substitute.

Imposition of Heavy Penalties Practices of Levying Costs Are Criticized by State Treasurer

Lack of uniformity in the practice of many justice courts in imposing fines and costs in cases involving motor vehicle and traffic law violations, was criticized by State Treasurer Leslie M. Scott in a statement released here Saturday.

The statement commended places authority to collect fines in the state treasurer. Scott said an outstanding effect of the new law is the stimulation of payments to the counties of their one-half share of fine money.

In one justice court, Scott said, all of the financial penalties imposed in one day, involving more than $100, were reported to the state treasurer as costs. With the exception of one case, the costs imposed were for a uniform amount in excess of $5.

Neither the state nor the county received anything from many of these cases, not withstanding that the state police made the arrests at state expense.

"Just how court costs in excess of $5-per case could originate in ordinary traffic law violation cases in which the defendants pleaded guilty is difficult to understand," Scott declared.

Justices of the peace of Klamath county imposed the highest charges of any in the state, according to Scott.

Scott said the uniform charge for costs in counties in which the justices are on fixed salaries is $4.50. In cases in which the state police officers make the arrests, he added, the result of applying all of the receipts in settlement of costs or of suspending fines in consideration of the payment of cost bills amounts to placing the justices on the payroll of the state in particular cases.

"This certainly is not a profitable business when consideration is given to the fact that the state pays the salaries and expenses of the officer and furnishes his transportation, uniform and arms," Scott continued.

"It is difficult to understand why a traffic law offender who has committed only a minor infraction of the traffic laws should be compelled to pay excessive costs to subsidize a justice court but pay little or no fine," Scott averred. He said that in view of the constitutional provision that penalties be proportionate to the offense there was some question whether such excessive costs could be sustained.

"It is regrettable that some justices of the peace, through their practices, invoke disfavor upon justices of the peace generally, through apparently selfish and oppressive charges," Scott said.

"In cases in which the defendants plead guilty it is difficult to harmonize the payment of costs of $8 in one county and of $2.50 to $4.50 for a like offense in another county," Scott concluded.

Story of Aerial Survey Revealed; Hardships Many

PENDLETON, March 21—(P)—Lieut. Col. Curtis LeMay described Saturday the pioneer flight on the south Atlantic ferry route that earned him the distinguished flying cross.

He was presented the medal here yesterday for his exploits as co-pilot of a four-engine bomber that surveyed airports and operational bases between Natal, Brazil and Egypt.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

After the plane was grounded by a sudden rain in Africa, LeMay said, a takeoff was made possible by natives who worked feverishly to sweep the runway with brooms. The plane cleared trees at the end of the field by a scant 10 yards.

The flight opened the route that is used now to ferry planes and supplies across the south Atlantic to the middle east.

Permitted by army authorities to reveal the flight story, LeMay told of landings and takeoffs on tiny fields, fighting torrential rainstorms in Africa, dust storms and disease.

Coaches Propose New Hoop Rules

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 21 (P)—Two major changes in college basketball rules were proposed Saturday by the National Basketball Coaches' association.

To be considered here Sunday and Monday by the association's rules committee, the projected changes are:

1. That a player legally in the game at the start of an overtime period will be permitted five personal fouls before disqualification.

2. That time out will be called for held balls and official playing time resumed concurrently with the top-off.

It was generally agreed by the coaches that the latter innovation, if accepted, would save up to five minutes playing time in a single contest.

Papermakers Win Goldenball Game

PORTLAND, March 21—(P)—The Salem Papermakers crunched the Vancouver juniors, 54-27, in the heavyweight section of the golden basketball tourney Friday night.

The River Road Rams of Eugene went into the semi-finals of the lightweight division with a 32-21 win over the Montavilla Cubs.

Toronto Pucksters Push Rangers, 3-1

TORONTO, March 21—(P)—The Toronto Maple Leafs, who finished second in the National Hockey league this season, defeated the first place New York Rangers 3-1 here Saturday night to take a one-game lead in the semi-finals of the Stanley cup playoffs for the world championship. The second contest of the best-of-seven series will be played in New York Sunday night.

Stars Win Again—Hand Seattle Lacing

RIVERSIDE, Calif., March 21 (P)—The Hollywood Stars continued their slugging tactics Saturday and achieved a 13 to 8 victory over Seattle in a Coast league exhibition baseball game.

Pitchers Hal Turpin and John Zap were able to blank the Stars in only one inning, the third.

The triumph gave the Stars six victories in eight starts. "Bob Kahle led the Stars' 22-hit assault with four safeties. Seattle .....000 204 002— 8 11 3 Hollywood .....220 133 11x—13 22 1 Turpin, Zap (6) and Collins, Beard; Joiner, Weldon (5), Brown (8) and Brenzel, Younker.

Red Sox Rookies Rap 'Koiby' and Bums

SARASOTA, Fla., March 21 (P)—The Boston Red Sox whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers 8-1 Saturday as two rookie pitchers, Yank Terry and Tom Judd, throttled the National league champions with three singles.

Kirby Higbe pitched three innings for the Dodgers and he and Pee Wee Reese committed two of the Brooklyn errors to hand Boston two runs in the first frame.

Nats Win Again

MIAMI, Fla., March 21—(P)—Rookie Eddy Lyons, whose pinch single beat the New York Giants Thursday, galloped home with the winning run Saturday as the Washington Senators again tripped the National leaguers by the same score, 4-3.

Washington (A) .....4 9 1 New York (N) .....3 7 1 Wynm, Zuber (6), Cathey (9) and Early; Schumacher, Adams (5) and Danning.

STANDINGS among the BOWLERS

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE		W	L
Sundins	22	16	10
Farrish Market	22	14	12
Valley Motor	17	13	13
Boiler Electric	16	13	14
Capital City Laundry	16	14	14
Dr. Semler	15	15	14
Board Walk	14	16	16
Richfield Oils	13	17	19
Lalish Celery	13	17	19
Seio	11	19	25
Glenns Red & White	10	20	26
Holestein 1st Thompson 172, Nelson 172, Schwab 167, Warner 167, Cwell 163, T. Brown 162, Kneeder 161, Denmore 158.

MERCANTILE LEAGUE		W	L
Dr. Pepper	20	16	10
Berts Lunch	20	16	10
Stayton	17	13	13
Valley Motor	17	13	13
Boiler Electric	16	13	14
Capital City Laundry	16	14	14
Dr. Semler	15	15	14
Board Walk	14	16	16
Richfield Oils	13	17	19
Lalish Celery	13	17	19
Seio	11	19	25
Glenns Red & White	10	20	26
Holestein 1st Thompson 172, Nelson 172, Schwab 167, Warner 167, Cwell 163, T. Brown 162, Kneeder 161, Denmore 158.

MAJOR LEAGUE		W	L
Copeland Yards	11	10	10
Clines Coffee Shop	11	10	10
Friesen	11	10	10
Karrs	11	10	10
Accro Auto Wreckers	11	10	10
Ramages 7 Up	10	11	11
Larson 194, Cline, sr. 183, Coe 190, Poynter 180, Haman 182, Olinger 182, Topp 188, Hartwell 188, Page 188, Cline, Jr. 185.

LADIES LEAGUE		W	L
Keagettes	18	7	12
Coca Cola	14	10	14
Capital Beeding	11	11	11
Hubbard Motors	11	11	11
McKay Chevrolet	9	12	15
Royal Desserts	9	12	15
Wilson Amos 125, Poulton 125, McCarroll 121, Clark 149, Kennedy 147, Meyer 147, Lloyd 142, Foreman 142, Bowlsby 138.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE		W	L
Salem Brewery	30	21	19
Loyds Used Cars	29	20	18
Coca Cola	27	24	17
Sears Roebuck	27	24	17
Rices Men Shoes	23	27	13
Elephant-LaRoche	22	28	16
Standard Oil	21	29	15
Beas Motor Parts	21	29	15
Goldies	21	29	15
Woodburn	21	29	15
Hogg Bros.	21	29	15
Bussicks Market	21	29	15
Carbarine 182, Cline, Jr. 180, Bone 178, Kitzmiller 177, Steele 177, Holderein 176, Ricketts 174, Graham 171, Nuffer 171, Ross 171, Cooley 171.

CHERRY CITY LEAGUE		W	L
Boiler Electric	33	27	27
Faulstich Cabs	32	27	27
Standard Oil	32	27	27
Fredie Martin	29	28	24
Salesmen	29	28	24
Outdoor Adv.	28	29	23
H. White 173, P. Thompson 171, C. Brown 168, M. Poulton 165, Nelson 163, S. Mills 171, Harman 162, Warner 167, Farman 158, McCarroll 154.

KCOAC—MONDAY—199 Kc.
6:00—News
6:30—Sunrise Serenade
7:00—Pastor's Call
7:30—News Headlines and Highlights
8:00—World in Review
8:30—Castles in the Air
9:00—Women in the News
9:30—Lew White Organist
10:00—Dr. R. F. Thompson
10:30—Tomboyers
11:00—Henry King Orchestra
11:45—Lum & Abner
12:15—News
12:30—Hillbilly Serenade
12:55—Willamette Valley Opinions
1:15—Four Notes
1:30—Isle of Paradise
1:45—Gaylord Carter, Organist
2:00—Sing Song Time
2:15—Mildred's Comedy
2:30—Shining Hour
2:45—Herb Jeffrey's Songs
3:00—Yagabond of the Air Waves
4:00—Tune Tabloid
4:15—News
4:30—Teatime Tunes
5:00—Here Comes the Band
5:30—To the Ladies
5:45—Dinner Hour Melodies
6:00—Tonight's News
6:15—News Andhra News
6:30—Evening Serenade
7:00—News in Brief
7:05—Interesting Facts
7:15—Gypsy Trio
7:30—Willamette Valley Opinions
7:45—Marvella's Dramatic Organist
8:00—War Fronts on Review
8:10—Singing Saxophones
8:20—McWain's Melange
8:45—Surt Riders
9:00—News
9:15—Just Quote Me
9:30—Hillies of the News—Sevillier
9:45—American Legion Auxiliary
10:00—Let's Dance
10:20—News
10:45—Barnett Orchestra
11:00—Music to Remember
11:30—Last Minute News

KALE—MONDAY—
--------------	--