

Miss Wilson, Mr. Wright To Marry

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Wilson will be the scene of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Lois Evalyne Wilson, to Mr. Roy Bryant Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Wright of Dayton this afternoon.

At 4 o'clock Rev. F. E. Fisher of Canby will officiate at the double ring ceremony before the fireplace which will be decorated with arrangements of daffodils and forsythia. Mrs. Harry Stoutenberg will sing "Until" and "Because" and Mrs. Alex LaFollett will play the accompaniments.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a two-piece jacket outfit of petal blue Americana crepe with trapunto trim on shoulders and pockets and navy accessories. She will wear a corsage of orchids.

The matron of honor will be Mrs. Joy Strickfaden, the former Ila Versteeg, cousin of the bride. She will wear a two-piece navy basque dress of Americana crepe with grosgrain band trimming, navy accessories and corsage of gardenias and talisman roses.

Aileen Ann Wilson, niece of the bride, in pink will be flower girl.

To Form Bridal Aisle

Forming the ribbon aisle for the bride and her father will be Kaye Tomlinson, Phoebe Lou Braun, Alexander LaFollette and Leonard Davidson.

Mr. Horace Wright of Portland, brother of the groom, will be best man.

The bride's mother will wear an almond green two-piece suit of alpaca sheer and corsage of gardenias and talisman roses. The groom's mother will wear a sky blue crepe dress and will have a corsage of gardenias and talisman roses.

Ushers will be Mr. Denzil Wilson and Mr. Joy Strickfaden.

At a reception immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. May L. Versteeg, grandmother of the bride will cut the cake. Mrs. Howard Steingrube will pour and Mrs. Denzil Wilson, sister-in-law of the bride, will cut the ices. Serving will be Miss Yvonne Thompson, West Linn, Miss Wanda Gorman, Jefferson, and Mrs. Allan May, Miss Hazel Swanson, Portland, will be in the gift room and Miss Gertrude Broadwell will pass the guest book. Vases of bouvardia, freesias and hyacinths will encircle the cake, which will center the bride's table.

For Going Away

As they leave for their wedding trip the bride will wear an American eagle gold tailored dress with crocheted yarn trim and knife pleated skirt with which she will wear an airway blue covert top coat.

Miss Wilson and her husband-to-be are graduates of Amity high school. She is now with the Willamette Credit company and Mr. Wright is employed at the Oregon Pulp and Paper company. They will make their home in Salem.

NEWLYWEDS—Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Yoder, above, are pictured as they left the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon following their marriage. The bride is the former Edith Mohr. (Jesten-Miller photo)

WOMEN'S Society * Clubs * Music The Oregon Statesman SECTION

Salem, Oregon, Sunday Morning, March 22, 1942

IN BRIDAL GOWN is Mrs. Wallace Arthur Sprague, the former Mary Louise Dull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwood Dull of Maplewood, N.J., who was married to the son of Governor and Mrs. Charles Arthur Sprague on March 17 at the home of her parents. They will live in Seattle. (Bachrach photo)

AN ATTRACTIVE BRIDE was Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, jr., the former Helen Wiedmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wiedmer, who was married at the St. Paul's Episcopal last Sunday. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Devers. (Jesten-Miller)

Down the Church Aisle

The wedding calendar continues to be an important item of news interest in Salem. Two more brides this week announced plans for their church weddings.

Miss Iras McCurdy and Mr. Winston Bunnell will be married Friday at the Leslie Methodist church. Dr. R. Franklin Thompson will read the 7 o'clock ceremony. Miss Marian Hermanek will be the organist and Mrs. H. H. Hale (Bettyanne Keilar) will sing.

Mrs. J. C. Hannaman (Lila Murray) will be the matron of honor and bridesmaids will be Miss Esther Gunnesdal, Miss Elvy Fredrickson and Miss Hazel Bunnell, the groom's sister.

Mr. Wendell Bunnell will be his brother's best man and the ushers will be Mr. Jack Hedgecock, Mr. Stuart McElhinny and Mr. Ladd Sherman of Irrigon.

Miss McCurdy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCurdy of Portland, formerly of Salem, and her fiance's parents are Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Bunnell of Portland. Both are former Willamette university students and will live in Irrigon, where he is teaching.

Smith-Peck Plans

Miss Ruth Peck is announcing plans for her marriage to Mr. James G. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward C. Smith of Lake Grove, on Saturday, March 28. The ceremony will be performed at the First Congregational church with Rev. Clarence Reynolds of Corvallis officiating at 8 o'clock. Miss Jacqueline Williams will be the soloist and Jean Hobson Rich will play the organ accompaniments.

Miss Peck, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Peck, will be given in marriage by her father. She has asked Mrs. Robert Beardsley of Corvallis to be her matron of honor and Miss Ruth Melson, Miss Charlotte McClary, Miss Gretchen Smith, of Lake Grove, sister of the groom-to-be, and Mrs. Maurice E. Wilson of Portland to be bridesmaids.

Mr. William S. Newhall of Seattle will be Mr. Smith's best man. Seating the guests will be Mr. Rudy Kallander, Mr. Robert Peck of McMinnville, cousin of the bride-elect, Mr. Howard Conkle and Mr. Donald Fisher.

A reception in the church parlors will be held after the ceremony.