

Day Before Deadline Finds 166 Candidates on State Ballot

Monday Is Final Day for Filing; Total Not Expected to Equal 317 Appearing on 1938 Ballot

Many blanks remained on the May election state ballot lists Saturday, last day before the deadline on filing declarations of candidacy.

Only 166 candidates had made official filings at the secretary of state's office. Four years ago, the comparable election period, there were 317 candidates for state offices ranging from governor through the court and legislative posts to district attorney.

A deluge of filings, though it may not be as great as four years ago, is anticipated at the state department on Monday, the last day. The department's election bureau will close promptly at 5 p. m.

Among the top candidacies yet to be filed, but certain to appear Monday, are those of Secretary of State Earl Snell for governor and Speaker Robert S. Farrell, jr., for Snell's present position.

Fillings up to closing time Saturday included:
