

Halsey Gets Medal for Raids

Vice-Admiral W. F. Halsey, Jr. (right) has a distinguished service medal pinned on him by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz (left) in recognition of his successful raids on Japanese bases in the Marshall and Gilbert islands. The ceremony was held aboard an aircraft carrier at Pearl Harbor.

Civilian Defense in the Valley

Red Cross Home Service Group Aids With Variety of Problems

WEST SALEM—At a county-wide meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Eakin, Dallas, Wednesday, Mrs. C. J. Fair, West Salem, was appointed chairman of the home service division of the Red Cross for the local community.

Home service is a Red Cross chapter program which concerns the welfare problems of the military and naval forces and of disabled ex-service men and their dependents. It is to furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded in time of war and to act in matters of voluntary relief and in accord with the military and naval authorities as a medium of communication between the people and their army and navy. The service will also try to establish contact between prisoners and their families through the Red Cross.

Date Set for Lamb Show

CLOVERDALE—Henry Ahrens, chairman of the Marion county fat lamb show, in his report at Farmers Union meeting Thursday asked the same committees to act this year that worked last year. New members will be worked into various committees. The lamb show will again be held the first Saturday of June.

The application of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hennies was accepted. The secretary, Margaret Miller, read the obligation to the new members.

A motion was made for this local club members can be secured. A discussion of the fire control district recently held in Turner was held.

A committee, Carl Booth, Louis Hennies and Walter, was appointed to see the county court about finishing oiling the Turner-Ilhhee railroad.

Monitor News

MONITOR—At the firemen's meeting Tuesday, Lorils Young was elected secretary-treasurer to fill the vacancy caused when Roy Beckett moved away.

Mrs. Guy McKelvey, Tillamook, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Brantner. Mrs. Fred Keil, Aurora, was also visiting at the Brantner home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hansen, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Skiller were among those from Monitor going to Sandy Sunday.

Harold Gregerson and Stanley Dimick spent Sunday fishing for salmon in the Willamette river at Oregon City.

The Red Cross met Wednesday and made quilts for the relief station.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lienhart wrote from Phoenix, Ariz., that they were having a visit with their son, John, who is in an army camp there. They also visited Buddy Pomeroy, who is in an army camp at San Diego.

Elmer Koonz, Santa Cruz, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Koonz, Brooks, visited Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Graham Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wilson and Edward Lloyd, Newport, spent the weekend with Mrs. C. E. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Byers and Carolyn Jean, Garibaldi, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tyler were Saturday visitors of Mrs. C. E. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Losey and Glennie visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peak in Cathlamet, Wash., last Thursday evening.

assist service men and their families with personal problems, finances, furloughs, discharges, locating people, illness, and many other items.

People who are entitled to aid of home service are officers, nurses, and enlisted men in all branches of active service and their families; disabled ex-service men, and dependents of men whose death is caused by military service.

All work of this committee is confidential between service men, their families and the home service committee.

Anyone who has questions regarding this service or in need of assistance is asked to contact Mrs. C. J. Fair at 874 Cascade drive or phone her at 4075.

SCIO—Residents of Scio and Lyons will combine in a class in advanced Red Cross first aid to begin at Scio VFW hall Tuesday, at 8 p.m., under direction of Dr. W. P. Goulding. Groups in each town recently have completed work in the standard course.

It is planned to hold part of the five meetings at Lyons, to equalize driving for those enrolling from that city. First aid station will be established at Scio by the Linn county Red Cross chapter upon completion of the advanced course by Scio residents.

MILL CITY—The standard class in first aid, which was started three weeks ago, has been divided into two groups, because of the large number of people enrolling. Each group now has about 30 members. The instructors are from Salem.

The advanced class, instructed by Vernon Todd, grade school principal, has just one more lesson. Several members plan to take up the instructor's course in Salem, following completion of examinations.

EOLA—Mrs. A. L. Cummings, chairman of the Red Cross nursing classes in Polk county, has asked all Eola women interested in home nursing to meet with her Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the basement of the schoolhouse to make arrangements for organizing a class.

Mrs. Ernest Arneson, Salem, has been secured as instructor.

Defends Overtime

Speaking earnestly to the house naval committee in Washington, Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins (above) declared that suspension of the 40-hour work week would only reduce workers' pay envelopes and result in increased basic pay rates because "overtime is just about enough to meet the extra cost of living."

Homes Change Owners at Monmouth

MONMOUTH—Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sokolich, Cottage Grove, are visiting friends here this week and attending to business matters. Mrs. Sokolich (Martha Blair) has leased the Blair home on Knox street to Mr. and Mrs. Clair Winegar who will take possession in April.

The house has been occupied since September by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bartlett and sons of Phoenix, Ariz. The Bartletts are leaving April 1 to travel with a carnival company all summer in the Rocky mountain section. Their trained burros will be presented as a carnival feature. Bartlett has traveled on a northwest show circuit all winter while Mrs. Bartlett remained here to send their children to school.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. DeLapp of Beaverton are reported to be returning soon to Monmouth to live. They will occupy their house on Broad street when it is vacated by the Clair Winegar family.

Mrs. Dena Hofstetter, new head librarian at OCE, has taken possession of her recently purchased home here. She bought the former Cecil Lehman house and has had it redecorated and a furnace installed. She came here from Pendleton.

Frances Snyder, a night telephone operator at Corvallis who formerly was night operator here for many years, has sold her home on College street to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bissell, McMinnville. In Corvallis she has bought a house from A. N. Keeney.

The home of Mrs. Dora Tittle on South Monmouth avenue has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Max Simpson, Falls City, who took possession recently. Mrs. Tittle is now residing in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McBride, who bought part of the old Collins farm on highway 99 West, north of Monmouth, have exchanged some of the land to Mr. and Mrs. W. Ray Adams for a house and one acre of land, known as the Mulkey home, on West Main street.

The McBrides are making some improvements to the dwelling and expect to make it their permanent home. Mrs. McBride is instructor of English at Monmouth high school.

Class Makes Trip Plans

WEST SALEM—Rev. and Mrs. Don Huckabee were hosts to the Builders class Wednesday. They plan a trip to the Smith Creek camp at Silver Creek Falls some weekend in April.

The next meeting will be held at the Phil Hathaway home April 8.

Linda Anne, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woods, is convalescing from a severe case of chickenpox.

Mrs. Susie McFayden, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Paul Toevs, Seattle, is now a guest at the Henry Toevs home.

The Just-A-Mere club met at the Gibson home when Mrs. Fred Gibson and Mrs. Charles Unruh entertained at 500. Prizes were won by Mrs. Dale Lemon, Mrs. Ray Lacey, Lynn Sloper and Frank Wells. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forster received the guest prize.

Mrs. Ray Lacey and Mrs. Frank Wells will be co-hostesses for the next party at which the newly elected officers will be installed with Mrs. Charles Unruh as installing officer.

Levi Doolittle, Portland, was fined $2 for failure to observe a traffic light.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed England spent Wednesday at Eugene visiting their son, Melvin.

Knitting Done For Red Cross

AMITY—The WSC held an Easter meeting Wednesday. Hostesses were Mesdames A. J. Loop, G. M. Patty, Roy Ohlinger and Glenn Stevenson.

Mrs. Bert Tovey, nurse in the McMinnville hospital is at her home in Amity.

Mrs. Margaret Morrison spent the weekend in Portland at the home of her brother, William Milne.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Munkers who have been living in Independence where Munkers has been employed, have moved back to Amity.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Miller, Portland, were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Allison.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Downer, formerly of San Francisco, but who are now living in Seattle, visited here for a few days at the home of Mrs. Downer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Woodman. Mrs. Woodman has been ill at her home on Oak street, but is now much better.

Goldie Duncan, Everett, Wash., was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith for several days last week. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duncan were residents of the community several years ago.

Men! Step Out In Style

This Easter

DRESS UP—AND KEEP UP—
THE AMERICAN SPIRIT

BISHOP'S -- Style Leaders Since 1890

Still brings you that same fine QUALITY & VALUES in the nation's foremost makes of Finer Clothing for Men

It's good strategy and mighty smart judgment to dress up for Easter and buy for another day, while the present fine quality and Bishop's vast selections assure you of the West's greatest stocks.

Striking New Styles & Patterns In These Spring

SUITS

By HART-SCHAFFNER & MARX-HOLLYWOOD

Men... It's a great pleasure in buying your clothes, especially in times like these, from a store where quality and values have been your assurance of every satisfaction in the past. Let us show you today these fine new suits for spring, tailored to perfection in finest virgin wool fabrics that we can still guarantee to be outstanding in quality and value.

42⁵⁰ to 55⁰⁰

Clippercraft and Other Fine All-Wool

SUITS $30⁰⁰ up

Smart "ARROW" SHIRTS Hundreds of the season's newest in this great stock. Remember, only at Bishop's can you find these famous "Arrows"..... $2.25 Up	"ARROW" TIES Beautiful new "Arrow" ties for Easter. Choose yours from this vast selection..... $1 Up	Be Sure It's a STETSON HAT for Easter Every new style and shade; you're always sure of quality and value in a Stetson..... $5
---	--	---

Cheerful Credit at
No Extra Cost

BISHOP'S

Since 1890

Shop Bishop's for Quality Always