

Willamette Students Active

Willamette university students are busy making plans for May weekend and members of the play cast for "Distant Drums" have been selected. The Centennial May queen will be elected next week. The three candidates include Chloe Anderson, Salem, Cleo Nissen Swenson, Albany, and June Woldt, Portland.

The story of the play concerns a pioneer journey across the plains to Oregon. The theme ties in with Willamette's centennial celebration.

The cast includes Corydon Blodgett, who plays the part of Wolfhill, the leader of the group migration to Oregon; Helen Newland Jones is Eunice, his wife; Westley McWain is Quincy, the trapper and guide for the pioneers; Wade Bettis takes the part of Allenby, a young hunter and adventurer; Leroy Long is Pike, a farmer; Lois Phillips is his wife; Bob Simmons is Nathan Pike, a boy of 15. Other members of the cast include Arnold Hardman, Joan DuRette, Herbert Simpson, Ruth Matthews, Gilbert Clausman, Dale Gollhur, Barbara Hathaway and Barbara Minor.

Mrs. Margaret Ringnald is the drama coach and Ralph Schiesinger is play manager. Dick Barton is stage manager and Margaret Sehon is in charge of costumes and make-up.

Inter-Sorority Dance
Highlights of the weekend for the students was the inter-sorority formal dance at the armory with Dick Day's orchestra from Portland playing for the affair. "Moonlight Cocktail," carrying out a blue and silver color scheme, was the theme of the dance. On either side of the orchestra were two large cocktail glasses. Palms and picket fences decorated the main floor and the ceiling was of blue crepe paper and stars.

Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Charles McCargar, Mrs. Frank James, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Ankin, Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene. Hostesses for the dance were members of Alpha Phi Alpha, Delta Phi and Beta Chi sororities.

Arranging the dance were Betty Jeannet, Ruthanne Thompson, Dorothy Tate, Gayle Denison, Betty Keller and Esther Gunnedal.

Collegian staff members will hold their annual banquet Tuesday night at the Golden Pheasant at 6 o'clock. Special guests will be Professor and Mrs. Murco Ringnald and Professor and Mrs. Lestie J. Sparks.

Miss Grace Covert is general chairman, and her committee members include Ruth Finney, Susanna Schramm, Kay Wilson, Charlotte Woodward, Bettie Browne, Catherine Thomas, Nancy Austin, Lois Butler, Yvonne Moze, Ella Rose Mason and Nadine Mathews.

Welcomed home from Honolulu are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gill and their children, Karen and Douglas. They arrived in the states several weeks ago and are dividing their time between Corvallis and Portland. They are visiting in Salem this weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boise. Mr. Gill is on leave of absence from the University of Hawaii where he is football coach.

Brides-Elect Announce Plans for Church Rites on Easter

Easter weekend has been chosen by several Salem girls for their weddings, and plans for the ceremonies have been completed.

The First Nazarene church will be the scene of the marriage of Miss Elaine Flathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence I. Flathers, and Mr. Douglas E. Farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Farmer of Fargo, North Dakota.

The ceremony will be read Eastern morning at 8:30 o'clock with Dr. Weaver Hess officiating. Mr. Ernest Friesen will be the organist and Miss Carmagene Hoffer will sing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Mary Louise Flathers will be her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Laura Long of Portland and Miss Marjorie Axelson of Seattle. Mr. Flathers will give his daughter in marriage.

Mr. Gordon Brown of Nampa, Idaho will serve as Mr. Farmer's best man. The ushers include Mr. Marilyn Anderson of Nampa and Mr. Harold Dalke.

A wedding breakfast for members of the two families and intimate friends will be held at the Hotel Marion after the ceremony.

Miss Flathers arrived home the first of the week from Nampa where she has been attending the Northwest Nazarene college. Her fiancé and other members of the bridal party will arrive the end of the week. The couple will live in Nampa until Mr. Farmer is called to active duty. He is with the air corps reserve.

Potter-Walters
Miss Jean Walters and Mr. Alvin Potter will also be married on Easter Sunday and their wedding will take place in the evening at 9 o'clock at the Court Street Christian church with Rev. W. H. Lyman officiating. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Walters and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Potter of Springfield.

Mrs. Sarah Tennes will sing and Mrs. Gordon Randall will play. Lighting the altar candles will be Mrs. Ernest Rehling and Miss Doris Crabtree.

Mr. Harvey Lenninger will give his niece in marriage and she has asked her sister, Miss Yvonne Walters, to be her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Miss Betty Ann Anderson and Miss Marjorie Priem. Mr. Roland Dickie of Corvallis will act as best man for Mr. Potter.

Flower girls will be Donna Jean and Ann Marie Lenninger, cousins of the bride. A reception in the church parlors will be held after the wedding. The couple will make their home in Salem.

Leek-Ralston
On Saturday, April 4 Miss Betty Ralston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ralston of Martinez, Calif., will become the bride of Mr. David Leek, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Leek of Salem.

Dr. R. Franklin Thompson will read the 8 o'clock service at the First Christian church. A reception will be held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

Miss Ralston will arrive from the south on Thursday. The bride-elect and her fiancé are former Willamette university students.

REVEALS DATE—Miss Elaine Flathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence I. Flathers, who will be married on Easter Sunday to Mr. Douglas E. Farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Farmer of Fargo, North Dakota. The ceremony will be read at 8:30 o'clock in the morning at the First Nazarene church. (Kennell-Ellis).
