Girl Reserves In Ceremonial

About seventy-five girls of junior and senior high Girl Reserve clubs took part in the annual spring membership ceremonial at the Calvary Baptist church Sunday. The sprig of ivy, taken as the theme of the service, symbolized growth, in nature and personalities of girls as a result of their life in Girl Reserves.

The service was written and organized by Shirley Kinnane and Connie Keller of Parrish 8th grade, Barbara Williams and Patty Brown of Parrish 9th and Carmen Campbell of Tri-Y.

Following the service an informal reception was held in the fireplace room of the church. Members of the YWCA camp and younger girls committees who made arrangements for this were Mrs. Albert Gragg, Mrs. Mervin Fidler, Mrs. Guy Hickok, Mrs. Neil Brown and Mrs. Karl Becke.

Salem Rebekah lodge met Monday for the regular session with Mrs. Blanche Hull, noble grand, presiding. After the close of the business session cards were in play. Next Monday will be practice for initiation under the direction of Mrs. Clarence Townsend, staff captain.

Mrs. Wilbur F. Berry has returned from Peace Dale, Rhode Island where she went to attend the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Edith Berry and Mr. Emerson Brickhead on March 14.

Salem Folk Here From Honolulu

Word reached Salem Tuesday of the arrival of Mrs. Charles G. Robertson and children, Charles, Jr. and Carolyn, in San Francisco Monday night from Hawaii. The Robertsons, formerly of Salem, have been residing in Honolulu where Lieutenant Commander Robertson is stationed. Mrs. Robertson and the children are expected to arrive in Salem the end of the week to visit at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Robertson. The Robertsons left Salem nearly two years ago and before going to Honolulu resided in San Diego.

Young People Enjoy Parties

Presbyterian young people enjoyed two parties last week as 28 intermediates enjoyed an Irish social on Friday night and 13 college and business young people held a tournament party on Saturday. Miss Patsy Pearson, social chairman for the intermediate group, presided at the party. Group games, stunts, songs and table games were enjoyed during the evening after which refreshments were served. Winners at the tournament party Saturday night included Mr. Dale Bates who defeated Mr. Bob Raker for the ping pong title, and Miss Billie Witt who won the table games championship from Mr. Keith Nash. Mrs. Donald Douris was in charge of the evening's games. Plans were discussed at both parties and registrations taken for members going to the Easter morning breakfast and to the State Christian Endeavor convention being held in Eugene from April 22-26.

Hostesses to Fete Clubs

Social activities are practically at a standstill this Holy week, although bridge clubs are meeting regularly.

Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren has invited members of her club to luncheon and bridge this afternoon at her North Sumner street home. Easter decorations will be used in the table appointments and special guests are Mrs. James Humphrey and Mrs. Keith Brown.

The Adolynk club will meet with Mrs. Albert Gragg today and assisting hostesses are Mrs. Edward Lebold and Mrs. George Nelson. A luncheon will be served with cards in play during the afternoon.

Mrs. Lee Crawford entertained members of her club at a bridge luncheon Tuesday afternoon and special guests were Mrs. Ira Fitts and Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer.

Mrs. W. E. Hutchens presided at luncheon on Monday for her club and additional guests were Mrs. J. N. Chambers, Mrs. John Rand, Mrs. Miller Hayden, Mrs. E. A. Linden, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Mrs. Howard Pickett.

Pattern

A woman's role is played today in dignified clothes with an extra something in color or detail to express her own personality. Anne Adams designs Pattern 4962 for you to vary as you please. . . . The yokes may be made of contrast and embroidered as shown. By means of a warm from the leaf motif is transferred to your dress—the Sewing Instructor shows you how to embroider it. You can use French knots or beads for the dotted effect. Don't you love that deep V-neck, accented by the gathered bodice seam, the soft unpressed pleat in the center of the skirt that is so slenderizing? A panel in the skirt makes the back of this frock slimming too—important on a mature figure. Short sleeves are optional.

Pattern 4962 is available in women's sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 1/4 yard contrast.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (plus ONE CENT to cover cost of mailing) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

YOUR role in the 1942 picture is to be thrifty, yet look your smartest and prettiest. Let the colorful new Anne Adams Spring Pattern Book help you plan a save-and-have program, with its easily made, promptly available patterns for every age. Trim

Miss Hansen Is Now Mrs. Fuqua

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hansen on Tuesday announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Doris Mae Hansen, to Mr. Q. Fuqua of Fort Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fuqua of Santa Barbara. They were married in Tacoma on Saturday, at the parsonage of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Fuqua graduated from Salem high school and is now employed by the state. The groom was educated in Texas, and was recently stationed at the Portland air base.

Mrs. Thomas Koen, jr. is en-training tonight for Wichita Falls, Texas, to join her husband who is stationed at Sheppard Field. He is with the army air corps.

GLAMOROUS FURS DESIGNED FOR BALMY SEASONS

Glamour for the approaching balmy seasons hit a new high in a recent fashion show. Long-haired furs such as white Russian lynx, Norwegian blue fox, platinum and silver fox, as well as sable, mink and Metara seal in jackets and capes for daytime and evening were shown. These models, while they may be in the luxury class, really are good investments. The refter pictured here, top left, is made of natural blue fox trimmed with corduroy revers and V-shaped pockets with reversible flaps that form cuffs. The mink, right, is worked in wide stripes resembling sable, with roset collar and cuffs with unusual detail. The sager-tip length.
