

School Parley Opens Friday

Monmouth Host to State Educators; Plans Outlined

MONMOUTH — School administrators from all over Oregon will convene here Friday night for the annual meeting. Presiding will be Dr. D. V. Bain, Salem, president of the state supervisory group, and Mrs. Agnes Booth, Marion county superintendent.

Dinner at Todd hall on the campus here will precede the business meeting. Dr. Harold Benjamin, dean of the school of education, University of Maryland, will speak.

Features arranged include demonstrations of art in action. Visitors will be conducted through the art department rooms where students will be engaged on typical pieces of class work. As the students demonstrate how they work, the instructors will analyze and clarify the type and method of work for the benefit of visitors.

In the primary department Mrs. Helen Lehman, Portland, state president of the Association of Childhood Education, will preside at a program with discussion. Dr. Clark M. Frasier, head of the laboratory school, Eastern Washington College of Education, Cheney, will talk.

In the afternoon Mrs. Blanche Jackson, first grade teacher of Eugene, will act as chairman, and Dr. Frasier will speak.

Practicing for the Real Thing

These are Australian school children, and they are shown following directions during an air raid drill near Sydney. No air raid shelter has been provided for them yet, so the children are hurried into a corridor and told to keep their ears covered and their mouths open. Japanese bombers have attacked Darwin, northern Australia.

Soldier Feted Before Trip

TURNER—Corp. Keith Ball, Turner soldier who has been stationed at Ft. Canby and Ft. Stevens for over a year, was honored with a surprise farewell at the Portland station preparatory to leaving for Ft. Monroe, Va., to take advanced selective training in automotive communications.

In the group were his mother and brother, Mrs. Mary Ball and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wipper and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ball, Edwin and Jean, Mrs. Alice Wipper, W. A. Rankin, all of Turner, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ball, Salem, and a number of Portland relatives.

This week Mrs. Mary Ball received a letter from her son, that he had arrived safely at Ft. Monroe, liked it fine, and had enrolled in the special training course. Corp. Ball's brother, Sgt. Elton Ball is still stationed at Ft. Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack La Ronte are the parents of a son born Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vester Bones. This is the third child in the family, and second son. Jack LaRonte has been in St. Vincent's hospital in Portland for nearly three months from injuries received in a highway construction accident, but is expected to be able to return home within a week.

Mrs. Alice Wipper has returned to her Summit Hill home following a week's visit in Turner with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Ball.

Mrs. Anna Downing, who is recuperating from a major operation, has been at her home here the past week. She was cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Osborne of Albany.

Clinic Slated At Monmouth

PTA Sponsors Exams For Children of Pre-School Age

MONMOUTH — The PTA is sponsoring a clinic for pre-school age children here today at the training school.

Physical examinations will be given to children of four and five years of age, and immunization serum for diphtheria and smallpox. Children may be immunized if past nine months old. If they have already been immunized the health examination is urged anyway. Children must be accompanied by an adult, and parents are urged to attend the clinic. Valuable health advice will be given.

Monmouth schools and the children from adjacent districts who attend school here — also the Independence schools — are now included in the cantonment area in a two-county health set-up for Polk and Benton.

The federal government is co-operating with local authorities in making this survey of pre-school age children because of the rapidly increasing number of children brought here to live as result of cantonment work.

Mrs. Clair Winegar, chairman of the local pre-school roundup, reports that 120 children have been listed. Dr. Herbert Notkin, Corvallis, and Mary McConnell, nurse, both of the Polk-Benton health service, will conduct the clinic.

Miss McConnell is to divide her office hours in future between the Monmouth-Independence and Corvallis areas so that a follow-up program may be carried out in checking results of the immunization. This will give Monmouth and Independence schools a more amplified public health service than formerly and will release more time for the resident Polk county health nurse to devote to other areas not immediately within the cantonment area.

Man Burned When Solvent Explodes

RICKREALL—Fred Elliott who operates the Standard garage here was severely burned Tuesday while using solvent cleaner and was taken Wednesday by ambulance to the Veterans hospital in Portland. Elliott came here from Lyons early in March.

Community Clubs

LINCOLN—The last meeting of the season for Lincoln community club will be held at the school house Friday at 8 p.m.

The principal speaker will be Mrs. Dorothy M. Beck, from Oregon State college, who will speak on Methods of preserving foods.

Residents of the adjacent districts of Zena, Spring Valley and Brush College are invited. Scotch dialect readings, songs and dances will be presented by Robert Hutcheon, Salem.

The committee on arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Williams and Mr. and Mrs. W. Reust will serve refreshments.

AUBURN—The Auburn Community club met Friday evening and elected Mr. Thiessen president; Mrs. O. E. Palmateer, vice president; and Mrs. Lyle Caster, secretary-treasurer. The retiring officers are O. E. Palmateer, president; Mrs. L. C. Marcy, vice president, and Mrs. Lloyd Lee, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Johnson, principal of the school, had charge of the 4H achievement program.

Brings Home Stolen Car

AUMSVILLE — James Taylor arrived Friday from Redding, Calif., where he had gone to bring home his car, which had been stolen and partially wrecked. The car was located 50 miles away. Taylor is a son of Mrs. Farr of this place. He expects to go to Grand Ronde as a truck driver.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lohse have purchased the Eastburn ranch west of town and are moving their household goods and farming equipment.

Viola Bradley left Saturday for California where she will visit relatives.

Mrs. Cornelia George was a visitor at the Bethel church Sunday and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mix.

Music week will be observed with programs at the churches May 3. John Mix will have charge of the program at the Bethel church, where his son, Wesley Mix, is superintendent. Rev. and Mrs. J. V. Willis will be in charge at the Wesleyan church. Mrs. Lester Solman and Mrs. T. C. Mountain at the Christian church. The public is invited.

in other words

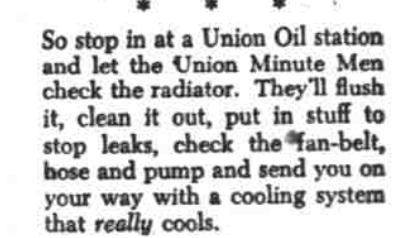

For instance, gasoline she will have put in the Hispano-Plymouth because the H-P won't hudge without it. Oil, too, she will have put in. But water? No sir! She hasn't time. Even that it's free never did the trick.

But the other day I got her I said: "Lela, look—if you don't keep that cooling system going you're waiting from 1 to 2 miles per gallon of gasoline—a whole trip to town outa every tank full!" Wow! Since then the car has had water like a flood!

In case you happen to have neglected your radiator, listen to this: It gets clogged up with lime, grease, rust and corrosion and it leaks, and besides your fan-belt might be loose, or the hose connections shot—they can all waste power and gas for you at a merry clip!

So stop in at a Union Oil station and let the Union Minute Men check the radiator. They'll flush it, clean it out, put in stuff to stop leaks, check the fan-belt, hose and pump and send you on your way with a cooling system that really cools.

It costs very little, depending on what has to be done. So remember—your radiator, flushed, checked and cleaned—by the Minute Men—at Union Oil stations.
