THE WOMAN'S ANGLE

We've been at war now about four months, so far we've suffered quite a lot—we must walk to the show, we are going to be rationed for sugar and our neighbor's son has been called to service. It all seems pretty hard — war is close to our hearts. War is terrible.

But the Chinese people have been in war for five years, and death is a constant companion. Let's look at this thing so we can understand what a few cents mean to a Chinese woman or child. We are sympathetic. We want to help.

The price of one stick of gum will feed a starving Chinese child for a day. The price of a cup of coffee, plus the penny gum will provide the luxury of ether for a major operation (most operations must be performed without an anesthetic).

One couple's evening at a show sacrificed, would provide food and shelter for a month for one of the 80,000,000 homeless adult refugees. (It only costs one dollar in China, to live a month).

A five dollar bill will distract the wounds of 250 people. Twenty dollars will adopt a "Warphan" for a whole year. And so on, up the scale.

True, we have lots of places to put our incomes, we have our own families and charities, and we must have some pleasures. But dimes count up wonderfully, and this week we will have a chance to do something with our dimes and quarters.

A group of Salem women and merchants are donating time, energy and sandwiches for a silver tea for China relief on Wednesday afternoon at the Marlon hotel. Not a cent will go toward expenses of the tea, all will be sent to China for needed supplies.

All women of Salem and vicinity are being invited, to come and bring some money no matter how little. The party, which is planned to be one of the nicest affairs of the season, is definitely not for one group—it is for everyone—and is given for a cause in which all should be interested.

So put on your best Easter bonnet, your spring suit and new shoes and come along. Getting dressed up and meeting people helps a lot, a silver donation will make some little child in not-so-far-off China smile for a month or more.
