

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

Newcomers—Two charming women and their sons who have moved to Salem are (left) Mrs. Walter Evans, jr. with Walter III and Mrs. George William Neuner and son Bill. All are from Portland, and both Mr. Evans and Mr. Neuner are in the attorney general's office. (Statesman photos)

On May Day.

May Day festivities on the Willamette university campus will open Wednesday when Delta Phi sorority coeds entertain at a formal tea in honor of Queen Chloe Anderson. The affair will be held at the sorority house on Court street. Invitations have been extended to all students, faculty members, mothers clubs and friends of the honor guests. Calling hours are from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

In the receiving line will be Queen Chloe and her princesses, Miss June Woldt and Mrs. Oscar Swenson (Cleo Nissen), Mrs. Garfield Anderson, Mrs. O. W. Woldt of Portland, Mrs. G. P. Nissen of Albany, Miss Betty Sackett, president of Delta Phi, Dean Olive M. Dahl, Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf and Mrs. Frank James. Miss Eleanor Todd will introduce to the line.

Miss Muriel Lindstrom will greet guests at the door and Miss Shirlee Morgan will pass the guest book.

Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson and Mrs. Roy S. Keene will preside at the tea urns and senior girls of the sorority will assist in the serving. The tea table will be covered with a grape wine net cloth over taffeta and the centerpiece will be of white and lavender lilacs and pink tulips. Miss Helen Zimmerman will play piano numbers during the afternoon.

Highlighting Friday's activities will be the all school picnic at noon and the student body sports dance in the school gymnasium that night. Al Benning's orchestra from Albany will play for the affair. Miss Marjorie Waters is in charge.

On Saturday's program is the YWCA campus breakfast on the lawn and the parade to be followed by the coronation at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Members of the royal court include Queen Chloe I and her princesses Cleo and June, King Corydon Blodgett, Prince Oscar Swenson and Prince Robert Blanding. Attendants are Miss Dorothea Greenwood, Mr. Jack Walker, Miss Betty Keller, Mr. Edwin Cone, Miss Margaret Siegmund and Mr. Arnold Hardman. Flower girls are Marcia Maple, daughter of the Howard Maples, and Geraldine Keene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene. Timothy Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs. William C. Jones of Eugene, formerly of Salem, will be crown bearer.

Miss Barbara Young, queen of 1941, will place the crown on Queen Chloe's red hair. Mr. Clarence Wicks, May Day manager, will give an address of welcome which will be followed by the presentation of "Ballads for America," featuring the a cappella choir, and the winding of the May pole.

In Final Appearance

The queen and her court will make their final appearance at the May weekend play, "Distant Drums" to be held in the Leslie junior high school auditorium Saturday night. The Centennial idea will be used as the theme of the play.

Sororities and fraternities will play an important part during the weekend. Several hundred high school students are expected on the campus and will be entertained at the houses and Lausanne hall.

The Alpha Phi Alpha maids will entertain with an informal party for Salem and out-of-town girls Friday afternoon and will be hostesses for a formal dinner Saturday night in compliment to the visiting guests at the house. Miss Dorothy Tate, vice-president, is arranging the affairs.

The annual May morning breakfast will be given by the Beta Chi sorority on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock in the chapter house. Small tables will be arranged in the garden and Princess Cleo Nissen will be an honor guest. Miss Miriam Jensen is in charge of the affair.

A formal banquet for Queen Chloe and Princess June will be given by their Delta Phi sorority sisters Saturday night at the Quelle. Miss Dorothy Estes and Miss Betty Wirth are in charge.

Willamette fraternities are planning to entertain weekend guests and will be hosts for informal dances Saturday night after the play and will serenade the sorority and hail girls.

Miss Helen Hadley (left) of Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hadley of Tillamook, has announced her engagement to Lt. Robert P. Utter, son of Dr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Utter. (Jesten-Miller photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rogers (Cleo Saueressig) pictured at their wedding breakfast which followed the marriage service at the First Presbyterian church Thursday morning. They will live in Portland. (Statesman photo)

ENTERTAINING is informal these days featuring luncheons for visitors, pre-dance parties and afternoon teas. Mrs. James J. Panton will be the honor guest at numerous parties before her departure for Portland. She and Dr. Panton will leave Salem early in May and will live in Portland.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Homer V. Carpenter and Mrs. T. O. Russell have invited guests to luncheon at Godfrey's for the pleasure of Mrs. Panton. Later in the afternoon cards will be in play at the Russell home on North Capitol street. Tulips and lilacs will provide the decorative note. Covers will be placed for twenty.

Mrs. Willard N. Thompson and Mrs. William Lidbeck are planning a luncheon for Mrs. Panton on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, sr., will be hostesses at a luncheon Friday afternoon at their Chemeketa street home in honor of Mrs. Panton.

Preceding the Tillicum club formal dance Tuesday night Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Lebold and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Windishar will be hosts for a pre-dance party in the marine room of the Marion hotel. The patriotic motif will be used in the table decorations.

Miss Sybil Spears will be a luncheon hostess Monday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, sr. The honor guest will be Miss Jo Ann Evans of Merced, Calif., a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Mudd. Covers will be placed for twelve, and bridge will be in play during the afternoon. Tulips and lilacs will be used for decorations about the rooms.

FOR the pleasure of Miss Marjorie Johnson, whose marriage to Mr. Gerald Gregson will be an event of Friday, May 1 in Portland, several parties have been given in her honor this week.

Mrs. George Belt has invited guests to supper tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Belt on Leslie street in honor of Miss Johnson.

The buffet table will be centered with an old fashioned bouquet of pink and white flowers and pink candles in crystal holders. A pottery shower will honor the bride-to-be and bridge will be in play during the evening.

Covers will be placed for Miss Johnson, Mrs. Noel Cavender, Miss Maxine Paulsen, Miss Peggy Peterson, Miss Marjorie Knox, Miss Hilda Crawford, Mrs. Dale Forbes of Portland, Mrs. Hans Thielsen of Corvallis, Mrs. Harry Belt and Mrs. George Belt.

Miss Peggy Peterson, who will be one of Miss Johnson's bridesmaids, entertained with a bridal party for the bride-to-be Monday night at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peterson.

A miscellaneous shower feted the bride-elect and a late supper was served by the hostess. Bridge was in play during the evening with honors going to Mrs. George Belt.

Bidden were Miss Johnson, Mrs. Noel Cavender, Mrs. George Belt, Mrs. Ray Gallagher, Miss Maxine Paulsen, Miss Charlotte McClary, Miss Marjorie Knox and Miss Hilda Crawford.

The marriage of Miss Johnson and Mr. Gregson will take place at the Latter Day Saints church Friday night at 8 o'clock. After a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Portland at the Park View apartments. Miss Johnson has been with the state highway department and will leave for Portland Monday.

MISS BEATRICE WILLIAMS became Mr. Guy S. Sherman's bride Saturday night at a wedding ceremony in the First Congregational church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Williams and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sherman.

The 8 o'clock service was read by Rev. Robert Hutchinson. Baskets of lilacs and candies decorated the altar. Miss Rowena Jones and Mrs. J. B. Morris sang a duet, "O Promise Me," while Miss Fern Morgan was the accompanist.

Of white satin was the bridal gown. The princess style dress was fashioned with a train, long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. A halo of white satin and seed pearls held her fingertip length tulle veil in place. She carried a cascade of white lilacs and gardenias. Mr. Williams gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Jacob Ploub was maid of honor, gowned in a pastel blue taffeta. Miss LaVina Brown and Miss Velleda Trick were bridesmaids. They wore matching gowns of blue printed taffeta on a white background. The attendants carried nosegays of white lilacs and pastel sweet peas.

The wedding reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Glenn Fisher cut the cake and Mrs. Martin Peterson presided at the coffee urn. Serving were Mrs. Palmer Williams, Mrs. Albert Miller, Mrs. Joseph Williams and Mrs. Clifford Williams.

For traveling the bride chose a beige tailleur and accessories of turf tan. The couple will live in Salem.

They're Engaged . . .

Two popular members of the college set have announced their engagement. Miss Maxine Holt is now wearing Mr. Bruce Van Wyngarden's diamond on her left hand.

The betrothal was told at the Kappa Gamma Rho formal dinner dance Friday night. Mr. Loren Hicks, one of the speakers, told the news to the bridegroom-elect's fraternity brothers during the dinner.

Miss Holt is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Holt and her fiancé's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Van Wyngarden, all of Salem.

For the announcement party Miss Holt wore a pink net frock and her flowers were gardenias. She and her fiancé will graduate from Willamette university in June and her sorority is Delta Phi.

Miss Holt served as junior class vice-president and Mr. Van Wyngarden is a member of Blue Key, national honorary fraternity. No date has been set for the wedding. Mr. Van Wyngarden will enter the naval reserve in June.