

Breakfast, Dances Given

Social activities have been many on the Willamette university campus this weekend. This morning members of Delta Phi sorority will be hostesses for their annual garden breakfast at 9 o'clock. Weather permitting the tables will be arranged in the garden and behind the main tables will be a trellis of dogwood and lilacs. Down the center of the tables will be small picket fences and trellises of pastel spring flowers.

Miss Betty Sackett, house president, will preside and if tradition holds true, and we have heard it will, there will be several engagements announced during the breakfast.

Covers will be placed for 60 coeds and their escorts. Miss Jean Kohagen will sing and Miss Helen Zimmerman will be the accompanist. Special guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Tschudy and Mrs. Frank James. Miss Eleanor Todd is in general charge of the affair.

Fraternity Formal

A modern spring theme was used for decorations at the Alpha Psi Delta fraternity formal Saturday night at the Veterans hall. A bank of flowers in pastel shades was arranged at one end of the hall and in the center was a floral Alpha Psi Delta.

Wes Lang and his orchestra from Portland played for the affair and Don Hawes was at the punch bowl. Wally Olson and Jack Walker planned the affair.

Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. E. Ivan Lovell, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Rahe, Dr. and Mrs. Waldo Zeller, Professor and Mrs. J. W. C. Harper, Lt. and Mrs. Wendell Patch and Mr. and Mrs. John Hathaway of Portland.

Dinner Dance

Members of Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity and their dates celebrated the 23rd anniversary of the chapter at a dinner dance Friday night. The banquet was held at the Quella and bouquets of spring flowers centered the tables. At each place were gardenia corsages for the guests.

Mr. Jack Hedgecock was toastmaster and other speakers were Mr. Loren Hicks, Mr. James Morell, Mr. Oscar Swenson and Mr. Walter E. Erickson. The fraternity men honored Dean Melvin H. Geist and Mr. Erickson with honorary memberships in the fraternity.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair were Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Erickson and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Sherman.

The dance was held at the chamber of commerce with Jimmy Whitmore's orchestra from Portland playing. Bouquets of blossoms, picket fences and spring flowers decorated the hall.

NEWLYWEDS—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jarvis (Marie Warner), who were married April 18 at St. Joseph's Catholic church. A wedding breakfast and reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Warner. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jarvis. (Kennell-Ellis)

Mrs. Dunbar, Dr. Thompson to Speak At Third District Institute

Word that Mrs. Saidie Orr Dunbar, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, will appear at the third district institute for the Oregon federation on Thursday, April 30, at the Salem Woman's club, is good news to club women throughout the valley who are planning to attend. An interesting array of speakers for the all-day affair featuring "Women in Defense" has been arranged by Mrs. I. M. Schanep of Salem, third district president. Dr. R. Franklin Thompson of Willamette university will be the guest speaker, and Mrs. Harold D. Peterson, past president of the Oregon federation, and a member of the Oregon Defense Council, will speak. Mrs. Clifton Mudd of Salem, also a member of the council, will discuss "Recreation, the Home Defense," and a panel discussion will also take place, at which club women are free to discuss their various problems in connection with the war effort. Mrs. E. E. Hall, Portland, third district coordinator of defense, is also scheduled to speak.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Salem Woman's club, 460 North Cottage street, with members of the Salem senior and junior clubs on hand to greet the guests, under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Rahe and Mrs. Clinton Standish. A noon luncheon will be served by ladies of the First Congregational church through arrangements made by Mrs. George Alling, Mrs. A. L. Skewis and Mrs. Charles Galloway of the Salem Woman's club. Reservations for the luncheon should be made with Mrs. George H. Swift, 560 Chemeketa street, 5164. The afternoon session will convene at 1:45, with luncheon served from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. A skit featuring an unusual angle of the defense theme will be given by members of the Salem Junior Woman's club, including Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer, chairman, Mrs. Talbot Bennett, Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond, Mrs. W. G. Nibler, Mrs. Maurice Brennen, Mrs. E. J. Church, Mrs. Clinton Standish, Mrs. J. R. Stark, Mrs. Lee Crawford, Mrs. Roy Mink, Mrs. Fred Gast, Mrs. Joseph Felton, Mrs. Carleton Roth, Mrs. Walter Martin and Mrs. T. J. Drynan.

All senior and junior clubwomen in the third district are invited to attend the timely institute as a part of club planning for further and greater effort in the winning of the war.

Don't Look Now.

but... at the China Relief tea Wednesday, Mrs. Harold Lowe, the former Esther Sun greeted many old friends. One of the Salem-born daughters of the Chinese merchant, George Sun, Esther had a remarkable memory for names and faces she'd not seen for 20 years. She told us her mother, 83 years old, still lives with the older brother, younger brother Hem is somewhere in China with the Texas oil company.

Yes, and with interest... Recently a Red Cross worker called at the business place of a Salem merchant, asking for a donation. The merchant showed him thousands of dollars worth of defense bonds. "Look what I have done for my country," said he. The worker went away without a donation.

Brushing up on his bridge... Spring housecleaning has begun for the Marion-Polk county bridge and we saw a man sweeping the street off all pretty, ready for the tourist season.

Company invited... When Mark Daniels sent word Tuesday afternoon that he was ill and unable to be soloist that night with the Philharmonic, the association officers asked Josephine Albert Spaulding of Dallas to substitute. She had company invited for dinner, but didn't mind. Company came, and had dinner, she and husband Bruce arrived in Salem in plenty of time for Josephine to sing two songs.

Clipped wings... Papas and mamas will have to think twice before they talk so big about how things "weren't that way in our day," because in our day "we could have dances and stay out after 10:30. The Hi-Dance was called off because of the curfew regulations this weekend.

But not to pick... The pansies in Willson park are in their glory again, and causing quite a stir among passersby. They are to look at, not for the public to pick. Those in the old watering trough are especially attractive.

In good company... we'll wager that those substantial Marion hotel cups (generously donated by the management for the China Relief tea) had never before moved in such elegant company. All the sparkling sterling tea services and beautiful linen loaned by Salem's 400 couldn't have gotten along without the cups.

Oh yes... They made over $300 for Chinese refugees too. Enough to buy special care and 30,000 vitamin capsules for undernourished and ricket-ridden Chinese children. Maxine Buren.

AAUW State Convention In Bend, Miss Holt to Preside at Sessions

Members of the American Association of University Women throughout the state are interested in plans for the state convention to be held in Bend at the Pilot Butte Inn Friday and Saturday of this week.

Miss Beryl Holt of Salem will preside at the sessions and is completing her three year term as president of the state association. The theme of the convention is "AAUW in Times of Crisis." Miss Holt will preside at the luncheon meeting Friday noon at the Pine Tree Tavern. Mrs. Victor Burke, national vice-president of the north Pacific region, will give a report of the national board meeting.

Mrs. Waldo Zeller of Salem, state chairman of fellowship, will talk on "Pearl Harbor and Its Implications." Branch presidents will give their reports and in the afternoon a tea will be given for the delegates at the Deschutes library with the Bend branch as host.

A formal dinner will be held Friday night at Pilot Butte Inn and the toastmistress will be Mrs. George Simmerville (Clara Jaspas), president of the Bend chapter. The speaker will be Miss Mabel A. Woods of the University of Oregon and Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, Pacific college.

Following the 8 o'clock breakfast Saturday morning a study group will be held and the new state president will be elected. Subject for the morning symposium will be "Can We Justify the AAUW National Program During War Time." Mrs. Meredith Bailey of Sisters will preside. Speakers include Miss Anne Mulherson, Mrs. Frederick Kiehle, Portland, Mrs. William Coats, Tillamook, Dr. Erma Gordon, Portland, Mrs. Tom Wolgamott and Mrs. Waldo Zeller, Salem, Mrs. Hugh Smith, Bend, Mrs. J. C. Blohm, Klamath Falls and Mrs. Donald Densmoor of Albany.

Mrs. Frederick Kiehle will preside at the luncheon session Saturday and the speaker will be Dr. Lulu Holmes, dean of women, Washington State college, and her topic is "This Freedom."

Twenty one branches in Oregon will be represented at the convention and among those attending from Salem will be Miss Holt, Mrs. Waldo Zeller, Mrs. Tom Wolgamott, Mrs. Herbert Rahe, president of the Salem branch, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. Bert Walker, Mrs. Charles A. Ratcliff, Miss Frances Virginia Melton and Miss Marguerite Gleeson.

Librarian Reviews Books

Miss Eleanor Stephens, state librarian, spoke on "America in the Spring" at the regular meeting of the Salem Woman's club Saturday afternoon. She reviewed two new books which have already been published during this war. The books are "Flight to Arras" by Antoine de Saint Exupery and "The Moon is Down" by John Steinbeck. Miss Stephens in her talk referred to the last war and the books published during that period. She stated that courage may come to our people through the significance of these two new books at this particular time.

At the business session Mrs. George Swift presided and assisting with the opening exercises were Mrs. L. O. Arens and Mrs. C. H. Gemmill. The proposed budget for the ensuing year was read and will be voted on at the May meeting. Miss Childs Is Speaker

Miss Isobel Childs will speak to members of the Junior Woman's club at their regular social session on Monday night at the Woman's clubhouse. Her subject is "Ladies and the Press."

Miss Childs, a news reporter and feature writer on the Oregon Statesman, is a graduate of Salem high school and Willamette university. She took graduate work at University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

In charge of the social hour which will follow Miss Childs' talk will be Mrs. Daniel D. Olin and Mrs. Leonard Howe. Mrs. Clinton Standish will lead in group singing and soloists will be the Misses Maybelle and Emelyn Frazer. The meeting is to be guest night.

Weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell will be her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell of Oakland, Oregon.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Douglas Baird of Washington, DC, have announced the birth of a daughter born April 20. The little girl has a five year old sister, Betty Cornele. Mrs. Baird will be remembered as Charlotte Stuttford in Salem and Corvallis.

House Guest Is Feted

Mrs. Ralph W. Johnson was hostess for her houseguest, Mrs. Raymond Geissler of Tacoma, on Friday night at her Fairmount street home. Prizes for cards went to Mrs. Veron Raub, Mrs. A. L. Elvin, Mrs. Jacob Fox and Mrs. Clarence Stanley.

Guests there to honor Mrs. Geissler were Mrs. Douglas Yeater, Mrs. Elmer Church, Mrs. Verne Raub, Mrs. A. L. Elvin, Mrs. William Haskins, Mrs. Eva Rush, Mrs. Jacob Fox, Mrs. Clarence Stanley, Mrs. Ronald Crossland and Mrs. Lyle Foree.

Fun Night for BPW Club

Departing from its usual procedure of having a guest speaker, the Salem Business and Professional Women's club will hold a Fun Night program Tuesday when the club meets for its April dinner meeting at the Golden Pheasant at 6:30 o'clock. The main feature of the program will be an amusing one-act play presented by a group of drama students from the Salem senior high school. Group singing and informal entertainment will be included in the evening's program.

Important items of business to be considered include election of officers for the coming year and selection of delegates to the state convention which will be held in Roseburg, May 16 and 17. One feature of the convention will be an exhibit of arts and crafts work of club members and Miss Hilda Fries, art chairman for the Salem club, has arranged for members of the club to display handcraft work at the Tuesday meeting with the expectation that one article of the handwork will be chosen to send as an entry at the state exhibit.

Shower Honors Mrs. Scharf

Mrs. Maude Stotler was hostess at an informal party Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Scharf. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a shower honored Mrs. Scharf.
