

Ceremony Read at Church

Amidst a setting of white and purple lilacs and pink snapdragons, Miss Sherlee Crozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crozier, became the bride of Mr. Lyle Cave, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Cave, Friday night at the Knight Memorial church.

Miss Marguerite Lehman and Miss Arlene Wikoff, who wore blue and pink chiffon frocks, lighted the altar candles. Their corsages were of carnations and sweetpeas.

At 8:30 o'clock Rev. H. C. Stover read the service. Mr. Richard Smart sang "Until" and "Because" and Mrs. Lucille Mitchell was the organist.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore an ivory satin gown designed with a low waistline and a full gathered skirt which terminated in a train. The sweetheart neckline was edged in seed pearls and the sleeves were leg-o-mutton style.

Her fingertip length veil was of silk net and was arranged in a seed pearl crown. The bridal bouquet was of gardenias, pink rosebuds and white sweetpeas.

Mrs. Lewis McRae was her sister-in-law's matron of honor, wearing aqua chiffon with matching lace trim on the square neckline, puffed sleeves and girldie. Her bouquet was of roses and forget-me-nots.

The bridesmaids were the bride's sisters, Miss Carol and Miss Gayle Crozier, Miss Carol wore yellow marquisette with a flounce skirt, shirred bodice, square neckline and puffed sleeves. Miss Gayle's gown was of turquoise taffeta with pink trimming. The skirt was full and the low waist was made with a sweetheart neckline and short sleeves. The girls wore gardenias in their hair and carried nosegays of roses and sweetpeas in pastel shades.

Mr. Stone Best Man
Mr. Jerry Stone stood with Mr. Cave as best man and ushers were Mr. Richard and Mr. Lewis McRae, Mr. Francis Walton and Mr. Harold Comstock.
For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Crozier wore a navy blue and white silk jersey frock with matching hat and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Cave's dress of navy blue silk crepe trimmed in white and her hat was navy and white. Her flowers were red roses.

A reception in the church parlors followed the wedding. The bride's table was centered with white lilacs and pink tulips. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. James Pike and Miss Colleen Andresen. Miss Mary Lamb cut the cake and Mrs. W. W. Corcoran of Seattle assisted.
Mr. and Mrs. Cave will live in Salem at 210 North 14th street. They are graduates of Salem schools and are employed at the California Packing corporation.

Mrs. Robert Baldock and son, Robert, are leaving Monday for Pasco, Wash., to join Mr. Baldock. They have been here for several weeks visiting with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Vaughan.

Girl Reserve's Corner

The Girl Reserves of the Parrish 8th grade met on Monday with the advisor, Miss Lois Robinson. The afternoon was spent informally playing outdoor games and roasting marshmallows in the fireplace. Plans were made for a boy-girl outdoor supper as their next meeting. The group has chosen as its type of music for the program at the YWCA meeting in May, cowboy music of the plains.

The Parrish 9th grade club met Thursday and decided to spend the money earned on their Kord-Kalico dance to complete their defense stamp savings book and to buy a bond to be kept for the use of Girl Reserve clubs in the future. They discussed the songs which their group will lead at the membership dinner, along the lines of this club's theme, Ballads from the Southern Mountains. On next Thursday the club will leave immediately after school for an excursion to a point of interest in the community. The place to which the visit is being made is being kept as a surprise.

The Leslie 9th grade Girl Reserves will have an important meeting on Wednesday after school when plans will be completed for their part in the Mother-Dad-Daughter dinner to be held the next week. Members of the club who have been asked to serve as a planning committee are Marcia Moore, Dorothy Boyes, Joyce Reeves, Betty Manole, Janet Gibson and Elizabeth Nelson.

The first Girl Reserves to register for the YWCA summer camp in Smith Creek camp were Connie Keller and Shirley Kinane of the Parrish 8th grade club.

OFF TO TEXAS went Hattie Bratzel Wednesday night... a group of friends were at the station to bid farewell... she was wearing a goodlooking aqua tulleur with matching top coat and red bonnet hat... Under one arm was her brief case filled with notes and data for speeches she'll make at the General Federation of Women's clubs convention in Fort Worth... Hattie represents the third district juniors and the Salem club.

FIRST LARGE tea of the spring season Wednesday was for China relief and Salem women turned out en masse... It was a typical April day, showers every ten minutes, then sunshine and to top it off a high wind.

Adding color to the affair were the Chinese women from Portland in costume... They received and assisted about the Mirror room... Friends were greeting Mrs. Harold Lowe, a former Salem girl, and Miss Vivien Bretherton, whose book, "The Rock and the Wind," has recently been released... It took her between four and five years to write it, the last two with no time out... she says "never again," but we'll bet it won't be long until she'll be starting another.

Compliments go to "Bundles for Britain" women who sponsored the affair... At the entrance table... Mrs. Taylor Hawkins, tea chairman, in a becoming black sheer frock and black halo straw with white trim... Mrs. Roy H. Simmons smartly dressed in a heaven blue suit of silk and wool jersey and a matching felt hat... she was receiving congratulations on ribbons their horses won at the Eugene Hunt club show... Mrs. Clifford Brown distinctive in all black... A few men callers... Milton L. Meyers, Chandler Brown, who heads the Salem China Relief fund, David W. Eyre and a number of Chinese men from Portland and Salem... A special guest was Dr. Erma Gordon, state chairman of the China relief fund, wearing a handsome lush green suit with velvet trim and matching hat...

Over the tea cups... Mrs. Hollis Huntington, who wore a stunning suit of sierra brown with narrow stripe, and small brown hat... Mrs. Lowell Kern, busy assisting with the hospital membership drive these days, wore a plantation brown ensemble with a print dress and brown straw... Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, jr., striking in a black costume suit with white blouse, white kid gloves and a black hat... Mrs. Erce Kay in a violet print frock with violet jacket and black accessories... Two sisters, who looked distinctive... Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers in a black silk jacket suit with pink sheer blouse and large black faille off-the-face hat... Miss Dorathea Steusloff in black with silver foxes... These sisters can be found working daily in their gardens, riding bicycles, walking or busily engaged in defense activities... Spring bonnets... Mrs. Harry V. Collins wears a pert yellow straw with clusters of yellow and blue flowers... an original by herself... Mrs. Homer H. Smith, sr., wearing a new aqua sailor with matching feather... Mrs. L. V. Benson's black straw with white flowers... Mrs. George Croisan wearing a black straw bonnet hat...

MARRIED—Mrs. Wesley White, the former LaVaun Gardner before her wedding on April 18 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gardner, on the North River Road. Mr. White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. White of Independence. (Kennell-Ellis)

Shower for Bride-Elect

A surprise miscellaneous shower complimented Miss Effie Grimes, bride-elect of Henry Unruh, Friday night at the home of Mrs. R. E. Ermel. Spring flowers decorated the rooms. Mrs. Earle H. Riggs, Mrs. Howard Leach, Miss Vurty Grant and Miss LaVerne Hewett were hostesses with Mrs. Ermel.

Will Install Officers

Mrs. Ethel Keck, department president of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, who will act as installing officer when newly elected and appointed officers of Marion Auxiliary VFW of Salem take office Monday night. The degree team of the Dallas auxiliary will assist.

Mrs. Arvin Strayer, president-elect, will announce her staff of appointive officers and committee chairman. Mrs. W. J. Wickert, president, has named the past presidents of Marion auxiliary as a committee in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Irene Jandrell and her committee are in charge of refreshments. An invitation is extended through the press to the patriotic orders of the city to attend.

Mrs. Elliott Price and her daughter, Lorah Jo, will return to their home in Camas, Wash., today after a several weeks stay in Salem with Mrs. Price's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Mills.

Mrs. George Alexander's navy straw wwith red trim... A black straw halo hat worn by Mrs. Brazier Small... Among the pourers... Miss Elizabeth Lord wearing a blue and white print frock and matching hat... Dr. Helen Pearce in a black and white print dress... Mrs. John L. Rand wearing a black straw with pink flowers... Mrs. George Rossman in a black silk suit with blue and pink blouse and wide girldie and a wide brimmed black hat... Other guests... Mrs. Jerald Backstrand, chic in a purple princess coat and a pale lilac felt hat with purple trim... Mrs. Harry Wiedner, smart in a wave green tulleur and golden buff felt... Mrs. Garlen Simpson with a newcomer, Mrs. Walter Evans, jr., in a sierra brown coat and burnt straw bonnet hat... Mrs. Kenneth Bell in a becoming plantation brown coat and a golden beige dress and beret...

LETTER WEARERS... Rosemary and Michael Lemmon, attractive children of the Burton Lemmons (Isabel Morehouse) of Tacoma, were pictured in the Seattle Times wearing lettermen sweaters which Isabel had knit... They were green with a white stripe and C standing for the Clover Park high school where their father coaches... Rosemary wears a tiny white pleated skirt with her sweater... Although the school failed to win a trophy at the basketball tournament held in Seattle, Michael and Rosemary rated much attention.

GORGEOUS GOWNS worn by Yolanda who appeared on the Mayfair stage with Veloz Monday night... She wore five different gowns, silver, white, yellow, red with fuschia sequins, and blue when she danced the "Blue Danube"... They had full skirts and no backs and she wore no jewelry... The dance repeated was "Tango Yolanda," which they dance in "Pride of the Yankees," Gary Cooper's new picture... Yolanda's black hair is perfectly groomed... After many, many encores Veloz thought his wife should have the last word and she said "good-night."

Writers Asked To Compete
Announcement is made by the Berkeley Playmakers, Berkeley, California, that closing date of their $250 prize one-act playwriting competition is June 30. Because the US army wants brief sketches and playlets for production at camps, the Berkeley Playmakers are giving interested persons time to write such plays and will award $125 for the best entry. They will also give a $50 second prize, a third prize of $25, a bonus of $25 and other awards, plus production of as many of the plays as possible. Anyone may enter the competition, all types of plays are acceptable, but official entry blanks should first be obtained by writing the Plays Committee, The Berkeley Playmakers, 1814 Blake street, Berkeley, California.

Dance Cancelled "Too Late"
The scheduled May Time semi-formal Hi-Y dance was called off late this week by the council due to city curfew regulations. Helen Fanton was chosen by the Hi-Y clubs as the "Hi-Y Sweetheart." Helen Zielsinski was second in line for the honor. Both girls are seniors.

Sewing Done by Auxiliary
Mrs. David Furlough and Mrs. Frank Prince were hostesses to the Cootiettes club Friday. After a business meeting the group sewed for the Red Cross.

Poppy Day Plan Told Today

The American Legion auxiliary is rapidly completing arrangements for the annual observance of Poppy days May 22 and 23, when memorial poppies will be distributed by auxiliary members. A large corps of volunteers is being formed under Mrs. Verne Ostrander's leadership. This year the poppy not only honors and aids the men who defended America 24 years ago and their families, but also those defending America today and their families. Funds collected on Poppy day will be used in the work the Legion and auxiliary are doing for the disabled of both wars, and for the needy families of men in the service as well as those of veterans.

Monday at 8 p. m. the poppy sales committee will meet at the Legion home for a special session. Juniors will hold their meeting under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard Severin. After the business meeting the juniors will assist in placing seals on the poppies. The order for poppies this year is 7500, made by the disabled veterans of the first world war. May 12 the annual kick-off Poppy luncheon will be held at the Golden Pheasant at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. Al Greg is taking reservations for this luncheon.

Friends of Lt. and Mrs. Winston Williams will be interested to learn that they are now residing in Fresno, Calif., where Lt. Williams is stationed.

See your PHYSICIAN

WE often counsel our friends to "see a good Physician." We know it's excellent advice. But after all, that's only the first step. Not much use in paying out good money for Physician's fees unless you are going to heed the sound counsel he gives you. Make up your mind now that you'll get well and stay well; that you will "do exactly what your Physician suggests."

Yes, we think one of the first things your Physician will tell you is to bring his prescriptions here. It will be expertly compounded as he directs!
