

Most Prices Given Ceiling

March Maximum to Be Determinant; Hits Inflation

August, 1939, the month before the war began in Europe. Henderson made it plain that he was relying largely on voluntary cooperation to enforce the order. Under the regulation all retailers will be licensed. They must post prominently in their stores their maximum March price list for selected "cost-of-living" commodities and they must preserve all existing records of sales made in March.

The result will be that prices for the same or similar commodities will vary from store to store, in accordance with variations in individual March maximums. The retailers may sell at any point below the maximum, and competition over a period is expected to iron out any severe discrepancies.

Since by far the great majority of retailers will readily comply, it is thought, too, that competition will prove the great enforcement weapon. However, such penalties as revocation of licenses are available for application to any recalcitrant.

For wholesalers, who are confined to March maxima, too, the regulation becomes effective on May 11, allowing a week for the process to make its way through the retailers.

The order also forbids the sale of "services" — with "services of an employee to his employer," professional services and the like excluded — at more than was charged in March. This includes services customarily rendered in connection with the sale of commodities.

"General price control means a guarantee to the American people that their costs of living will remain stable," Henderson said in a formal statement.

"It means that the buying power of wages and salaries will not be impaired. It means that the producers of goods can be assured of stable costs — costs which are in turn the prices of other producers."

"It means that your government can plan its war program without the confusion and difficulties that attend constantly increasing prices and costs for the vital machines and products needed to defeat the enemy."

"It means that the savings and earnings of our citizens, loaned to their government to finance the war effort, will be returned in currency that is 'dollar-for-dollar,' purchasing power with that now saved."

"It means that scarce goods will not go solely to those who have the most money, but that all people, rich and poor alike, will have an equal chance to obtain their share at a fair price."

"Prices under the ceilings are going no higher."

Births in County Nearly Double of Deaths in March

Births in Marion county for March nearly doubled the number of deaths, with 140 births as against 75 deaths, according to the Marion county department of health's monthly report. For the first three months of 1942 births have increased over the same period a year ago with 384 to date compared to 311 last year.

Male births for March numbered 74 and female 66. There were 30 male deaths and 36 female. Deaths have stayed about the same for the three-months period with 200 in 1942 and 203 in 1941. Infant deaths under one year numbered 8 for the month making a total of 12 for the first three months.

75 miles. Four pursuit ships attacked simultaneously from each side. All were shot down. But the bomber's radio operator was killed, its engineer's right hand was shot off, a gunner was crippled, leaving only a single gunner to operate two guns. The latter was wounded in one hand, but alternately manned the guns at each side of the bomber and brought down three more Japanese planes.

Meanwhile, the plane lost one engine, a gas tank was hit, the oxygen system destroyed, all but four of eleven control cables were shot away, the rear landing wheel was blown off, and the tires of the two front wheels were both shot flat.

When the pursuit planes had exhausted their ammunition, they gave up. With "the plane practically out of control," Captain Wheeler returned to his base and made an emergency landing after dark, his "mission accomplished."

Highlights of FDR Speech

WASHINGTON, April 28—(AP)—Here are some highlights of President Roosevelt's broadcast Tuesday night:

American warships are now in combat in the north and south Atlantic, in the Arctic, in the Mediterranean, and in the north and south Pacific. American troops have taken stations in South America, Greenland, Iceland, the British Isles, the near east, the middle east, the far east, the continent of Australia, and many islands of the Pacific.

Russian forces have destroyed and are destroying more armed power of our enemies—troops, planes, tanks and guns—than all the other United Nations put together.

The United Nations will take measures, if necessary, to prevent the use of French territory in any part of the world for military purposes by the axis powers.

Our planes are helping the defense of French colonies today, and soon American flying fortresses will be fighting for the liberation of the darkened continent of Europe.

In the German and Italian peoples themselves there is a growing conviction that the cause of nazism and fascism is hopeless.

Here at home everyone will have the privilege of making whatever self-denial is necessary, not only to supply our fighting men, but to keep the economic structure of our country fortified.

This will require the abandonment not only of luxuries but many other creature comforts.

We are spending, solely for war purposes, the sum of about $100,000,000 every day in the week. But before this year is over, that almost unbelievable rate of expenditure will be doubled.

But the spending of these tremendous sums presents grave danger of disaster to our national economy.

The blunt fact is that every single person in the United States is going to be affected by this program (the seven-point plan submitted to congress Monday).

All of us are used to spending money for things we want but which are not absolutely essential. We will all have to forego that spending. Because we must put every dime and every dollar we can possibly spare out of our earnings into war bonds and stamps.

The price for civilization must be paid in hard work and sorrow and blood. The price is not too high.

Granting of New Trial in Damage Suit Is Upheld

A judgment by Circuit Judge H. D. Norton, Josephine county, granting a new trial in the damage suit of Frank P. Ross, as administrator of his wife's estate, against Everett E. Robinson, was upheld by the state supreme court here Tuesday.

Mrs. Ross died December 14, 1939, after her husband's automobile collided with a car driven by Robinson. The accident occurred on the Redmond highway two miles west of Grants Pass. A jury originally held in favor of Robinson but Judge Norton, on motion by Ross, ordered a new trial. Robinson appealed to the supreme court.

The opinion was written by Justice J. O. Bailey. The court approved a petition by W. L. Goslin, Portland attorney and former secretary to ex-Governor Charles H. Martin, to change his name to Joselin. The Multnomah county circuit court previously approved the change.

The court will spend next Monday and Tuesday in Pendleton hearing several cases on the eastern Oregon docket.

Factory Fire Injures One

PORTLAND, Ore., April 28—(AP)—Fire, virtually destroying an automobile seat cover factory, injured one man seriously and held up Hawthorne boulevard traffic for more than an hour Tuesday morning.

The blaze, believed to have started from a faulty oil burner, destroyed cotton batting, fiber and rubber matting. Fire Investigator Goetz estimated loss at $75,000.

Harry B. Stowe, 54, janitor, rushed from the building with his clothing burning. Two passersby, L. H. Reddaway and Nate Kromling, were credited by firemen with saving his life when they wrapped him in a blanket and extinguished the flames.

Farmers Protest Unionization of Defense Projects

Sharp protest over unionization of Camp Adair construction and of other national defense work is voiced in a resolution passed by the Luckiamute Farmers union, Monmouth, and directed to newspapers, state officials and the Oregon delegation in congress.

The resolution emphasizes "that no reflection or criticism is here made or intended with respect to the loyalty and patriotism and the noble efforts of the laborers and the laboring classes and organizations who are so patriotically doing their utmost toward the winning of the war."

But the resolution urges the congressional delegation to promote legislation to prevent what it says is the collecting of "tribute" from defense workers by some labor leaders.

Price Control In a Nutshell

WASHINGTON, April 28—(AP)—Price control in a nutshell: Beginning May 18, an absolute ceiling is placed on millions of retail prices; they may not exceed the highest levels which each individual seller charged during March; the ceilings apply to practically everything Americans eat, wear and use, the only exceptions being a limited list of food commodities.

Beginning May 11, manufacturers and wholesale prices and the prices for wholesale and industrial services must not exceed the highest March levels for each seller.

Beginning July 1, no one may charge more for services sold at retail in connection with a commodity than he charged during March. This applies to laundries, dry cleaners, auto repair shops, radio repair men, etc.

Rents: Orders were issued preparing the way for federal control of rents in 302 defense areas housing more than 76,000,000 persons.

Penalties: Retail or wholesale establishments violating the regulations will be forced out of business by losing the licenses which they automatically receive as the controls become effective. In addition, maximum penalties of $5000 fine and a year's imprisonment are provided for certain violations.
