The Gordon-Doerr argument is an old one starting two years ago when the scribes gave Gordon 42 votes in choosing the All-Star American league second baseman and didn't give Doerr a one. There are as many volunteer cops as there are spectators at the major league ball games these days. When a ball goes into the stands every eye turns in that di-rection. If the ball isn't returned immediately (to go into the service chest) a low rumble of booes sweeps the premises. Except when a man in uniform grabs it. Then the yell is: "Keep it."

Swope Swoops to Second Win as Big Eight-Run Inning Does It; Cameron Cuts Loose With Three Smashes

> By AL LIGHTNER Statesman Sports Editor

There was a lot of base hitting done last night out at Georga E. Waters park, and our Senators were responsible for no less than 22 of the 30 base knocks in handling the Tacoma Tigers their second straight loss of the current series, 11 to 6. The win elevated Manager Charlie Petersen's Sock Solons into a tie with the Tigers for second place.

Jack Warren, currently patrolling right field and doing a bang-up job of it, led the assault on Pitchers Chet Johnson and Fred Bradley with a perfect five for five, and all well sent singles. Jack picked up two in the eightrun nine-hit Solon sixth.

Burton Swope, tiny right hander, hurled his second win of the season, and although derricked in the ninth after he had given up three of the eight hits he allowed, plus a walk, did a masterful job of subduing the Tigers. That is, all except big Morry Abbott. Abbott combed "Swoopie's" serves for three solid smashes, and one was a terrific liner that shot over the left center wall, a 380-foot peke.

The Solons jumped off to a one-run lead in the second inning on hits by Warren, Mana-

The business office of the Senator ball club announced that all games, starting with tonight's contest with Tacoma, would begin at 8:00 p. m. instead of at 7:30. Doubleheaders will be played starting at 1:30 p. m. on Sundays.

It was also announced that First Baseman Charlie Shoemaker and Infielder Eddie George drew their unconditional releases Thursday night.

Caliteaux shot another into center, Robertson walked, Swoop singled Leininger singled, Gonzales was safe on an error, Cameron slashed another liner to center for one and up came Johnson again. His second hit of the heat sent his jittery left handed namesake showerward and right hander Fred Bradley came in. Warren greeted him with his second hit of the inning, and Petersen followed with a hit, too. Then Cailteaux brought it to a close with a ground out after nine blowsall singles-had been shot to all

The 22-blow barrage also brought Clint Cameron out of his terrific slump. Clint, of whom it was being thought couldn't hit his Salem 010 008 02 -11 hat, picked up a nice new Stetson from Bishop's Clothing Co. with his third inning triple to center, the first Solon three-ply swat of the season here. Cameron's triple and Abbott's homer were the only extra base swats in the 30-hit

The Solons got two more in the eighth on singles by Cameron, Warren, Cailteaux and Robertson, and before Fireman Ron Smith forced Art Lilly to hit into a double killing in the ninth inning, the two Senator tallies appeared to be very much needed.
