Here is a facsimile of the gasoline ration card soon to be distributed to consumers along the eastern seaboard. The instructions explain that the card must last through June 30 of this year. There are three types of these cards. Rationing begins May 15 in 17 eastern states and the District of Columbia. Price Administrator Leon Henderson has placed a ceiling on the retail price of motor fuel throughout the country.

Graduation Services Set

Hubbard, Aurora, Brush College Plan Ceremonies

HUBBARD — The High School Baccalaureate sermon will be preached next Sunday night at the Hubbard Gym by Rev. Paul Roth of the Zion Mennonite church.

The graduation exercises will be held on May 14th, with Charles Howard speaking. The following is a roll of the class: Ruth Grace Berkey, Helen Eileen Bontrager, Chester L. Bumbarger, Marguerite Grace Cook, Leonard G. Davis, Ruth Mary Earl, Ruth Marguerite Hammond, Lucile T. Harding, James L. Johnson, Betty Lee Loop, Virgil R. Lowrie, Ralph M. Miller, Minnie Agnes Roldorff, Mildred Lenore Schorr, LeRoy A. Vredenburg, Gilbert C. Whitney, and Orpha Bell Kaufman.

BRUSH COLLEGE — Graduation exercises will be held Friday at the regular meeting of the Brush College community club.

A program has been arranged by Miss Trula Grant, upper grade teacher.

Mr. Tavaner, principal of the Leslie Jr. high school, Salem, will be the guest speaker. Other numbers will include songs by the school children, tap dance by Glenda McAllister and Josephine Singer; reading by George Veal; vocal solo by Myrtle Meier, and French Horn solo by Jerry Cane.

Students graduating are Irene Lough; Pearl Jackson; Paul Harris; Leonard Benson; and Bobby Williams.

AURORA — Miss Lorraine Fredrickson will be the only member of 1942 graduating class this term from Aurora.

Reds Win Attendance Contest at Detroit

DETROIT—An attendance contest in the Bible school came to a close the last Sunday in April with the "Reds" as winners. The "Blues," who were the losers gave a dinner on May 3. Mrs. Margaret Rice was captain of the "Reds" and W. L. Krause of the "Blues."

The registration for sugar rationing is being held at the grade school this week. Families in Detroit registered Monday Idanha, Tuesday; those living in the vicinity east of Idanha, Wednesday and all those who failed to register are requested to do so on Thursday.

Mrs. Guy Moore is ill with the mumps and Mrs. Richard Hansen is substituting for her at the post-office.

200 Attend Mother Daughter Banquet

SILVERTON — Over 200 attended the Mother-Daughter banquet given Monday night by the Christian Missionary society of the Christian church. Eva Neal gave the address of welcome and Mary Jones gave the tribute to daughters. Musical numbers were furnished by Vera Heidenstrom, Mary Kleeman, Marion Rappe, Milly Harrington, Ethel Guffnett and Phyllis Grogan.

Visit From Vancouver

AURORA — Mrs. Franklin Tyler and son Norman, of Vancouver, are guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Gribble.
