

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

STINGERS—Like the poisonous antennae of a huge insect, tracer bullets form lines from a Curtiss Hawk P-40E, or Kittyhawk, fighter plane of the U. S. army air force. The plane, one of the newer fighter types, is on a Buffalo, N. Y., firing range.

CALL OF THE SEA—Landlubbers and sailors alike are drawn to the Santa Monica, Calif., beach as season opens.

SWEETHEART OF THE MARINES—Marian Hall, daughter of Lt. Col. George Thomas Hall of U.S. Marines, spent most of her life near Marine barracks. Unofficial sweetheart of Marines, she's also a University of Washington graduate cum laude.

DOLLS OF THE PRINCESSES—Lady Halifax, wife of the British Ambassador, displays dolls given to British War Relief society by English Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose.

PROUD ENTRY—Vivienne Wolf holds Bernice of Canyon Crest, a Great Dane entered in a Los Angeles dog show.

SONG WRITER—Pvt. Adrian Boudreau of Medford, Mass., thinking of his girl at home while on his way to Australia, wrote a song he called "This Is No Time for Tears."

Trapped for nearly six hours in the locomotive cab of a freight train which jumped the rails in Cleveland's flats, John Schaffer, 30, a brakeman of Bellevue, O., is shown during his ordeal as fireman attempted to extricate him. Schaffer, conscious throughout, now is in a hospital where he is expected to recover. The locomotive, tender and nine cars of the 68-car train jumped the track. Cause of the accident remained a mystery.

WAITING—These men in a camouflaged emplacement on an Hawaiian estate await a possible Japanese visit.

BONNET—Film Actress Joan Fontaine wears a hat accented with green and purple grapes and large pink roses.

SEEKS CITIZENSHIP—Hermann Rauschning, author, and former confidant of Adolf Hitler, has applied for U.S. citizenship papers.

'YOUNGER SET'—Among the young folk interested in the Los Angeles, Calif., dog shows is Margaret Ann Culver. These Cocker Spaniel puppies scattered about her lap are four weeks old. Charity is to benefit from this year's dog shows.

OFFER HEALTH RECIPE—Basking sunshine, cycling and apples for health, here are film stars (left to right) Alma Corcoran, Shirley Patterson, Marguerite Chagman, Adole Maza.

MILK-FED—Behind the forest of milk bottles is Sgt. Arthur Zursolo of Camp Pendleton, Va. Because of stomach trouble, Zursolo has been placed on a milk diet. He downs thirty-two half-pint bottles daily. His home is Chester Heights, Pa.

BACKSTAGE—While awaiting their cue to go on stage at a New York theater, Comedians Victor Moore (center in dressing gown) and William Gaxton (right) try a game of gin rummy.