

Engagement Told at Party

A college romance reached a climax Wednesday when Miss Dorothea Greenwood announced her engagement to Mr. Glen Edward Fravel, jr. The news was revealed at a smartly arranged party Wednesday night when Miss Greenwood and her aunt, Mrs. A. T. Wain, entertained at the latter's country home for a group of the bride-elect's friends.

Miss Greenwood, who will receive her degree from Willamette university this month, is the daughter of Mrs. Frances M. Greenwood of Suringfield, formerly of Salem. She is a member of Beta Chi sorority.

Mr. Fravel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen E. Fravel of Portland and attended Willamette university two years. He is a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity and is with the Portland Flying Service at Madras. The couple plan to be married in September.

Guests were invited to a bridge party and the tally cards, with the names of the couple, revealed the engagement. A late supper was served and bouquets of spring flowers decorated the rooms.

Bidden to the announcement party were Miss Dorothy Moore, Miss Margaret Siegmund, Miss Ruth Finney, Miss Barbara Hollingworth, Miss Frances Harris, Miss Marjorie Waters, Miss Jewell Minier, Miss Joan Durette, Miss Chloe Anderson, Miss Maxine Holt, Miss Nadine Orcutt, Miss Esther Gunnedal, Miss Grace Covert, Miss Jane MacLachlan, Mrs. Kehne Wain, Miss Delores Netz, Miss Esther Mae Devore, Miss Lois Herman and Mrs. Oscar Swenson.

Mrs. Maurice Healer has invited members of her club to her country home tonight for supper and cards.

Mrs. Arch Jerman has returned from Spokane where she has been visiting for several days with Mr. and Mrs. Roy South.

Miss Yantis Receives Honor

Miss Alma Yantis, president of the Salem high school Home Economics club, was announced as the outstanding member of the club by Mrs. Eula S. Creech at the 15th annual fashion show honoring the mothers at the high school auditorium Wednesday afternoon. Miss Yantis will have her name engraved on a pewter tray.

Home Economics honor pins were awarded to eight seniors and junior girls including Miss Dorothy Sheldon, Miss Jean Tansey, Miss Betty Takayama, Miss Tomoko Ninomiya, Miss Betty Pierce, Miss Delores Donaldson, Miss Marjorie Rutherford and Miss Emily Turner.

Preceding the style show Miss Alma Yantis greeted the guests and a mixed voice ensemble sang a group of numbers. Harry Van Dyke and Robert Schumann played piano selections. The theme of the show was "Key to Victory" and at the back of the stage was a large key and a number of the girls walked through the keyhole when modeling their dresses.

Girls modeled the dresses they had made during the year including cottons, work and play clothes, victory modes, rayons, woolsens, tailored suits and coats, and graduation dresses. The graduates include the Misses Alma Yantis, Janet Boyce, Joanne Hobson, June Parker, Vera Ralph, Mary Brooks, Edith Moxley, Pat Chapman, Laura Jean Bates, Muriel Baker, Muriel Chase, Dorothy Smalley, Dorothy Sheldon and Vera Mae Mitchell.

Miss Betty Lou Evans headed the directorate for the affair and ushers were the Misses Phyllis Nelson, Barbara Bates, Dorothy Gloyer, Eather Herbert, Shirley Langford, Claire Nelson, Marjory Potter, Eleanor Stroud and Helen Zink.

The Girls League members served tea in the gymnasium for the mothers and daughters after the show.

The Book and Thimble club will meet today at the home of Mrs. Margaret Brown at 1:30 o'clock.

Members of Pi Beta Phi alumnae club will meet tonight with Mrs. Marion Mulkey at 7:30 o'clock, for a dessert supper.

Pattern

Success in the sun—Pattern 4038 by Anne Adams! It can be either a sun-tan frock with low cut back and high-buttoned front; or a sunshine sportster with contrast lapels, belt and bows that tie the surplice closing, thus economizing on buttons and buckles. Whichever version you choose, you'll wear it long and well! Or make both with the concise, step-by-step Sewing Instructor ... order in time for the gay spring sport season!

Pattern 4038 is available in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20.

Send fifteen cents (plus one cent to cover cost of mailing) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and city.

Join the 1942 style parade and send ten cents for a Spring Pattern Book! All the season's highlights are here in day and evening frocks, sportswear, costume modes. Send your order to The Oregon Statesman, Pattern Department, Salem, Oregon.
