

MAY IS a popular month for entertaining.

Several luncheons and dinners are on the social calendar as well as au revoir parties.

Mrs. Francis Wade and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson, who are leaving in early June for Portland to reside, are the honor guests for several affairs. Captain Wade left earlier in the month for Fort Douglas, Utah, and Mrs. Wade and daughter, Corinne, will spend the summer in Portland and Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knox and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bonesteel were hosts for a desert supper and bridge party Saturday night at the former's home on Park Lane in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

Guests were seated at small tables and the centerpieces were low bowls with yellow and purple pansies floating and yellow candles. Eighteen guests were bidden to the party.

Mrs. H. Lawrence Lister will preside at a bridge luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at her Jefferson street home in honor of Mrs. Wade and Mrs. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morse entertained a group of friends at their cabin on the Santiam Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Lebold are entertaining with a series of informal dinner parties at their Kingwood Heights home. They have invited twelve guests to dinner and bridge tonight and the small tables will be centered with nosegays of pastel spring flowers.

Going Away

Mrs. George Allen has invited a group of young matrons to luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her North 21st street home. The honor guest will be Mrs. Phil H. Ringle, who is planning to leave the end of the month for Tucson, Arizona to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Smallhouse, and Mrs. J. S. Bayless, a friend of Mrs. Allen's. Enroute home Mrs. Ringle will stop in Los Angeles to visit relatives. A blue and pink color scheme will be carried out in the decorations and the table centerpiece will be of roses.

Mrs. Charles S. McElhinny will preside at a 1 o'clock luncheon Monday afternoon at her Court street home in compliment to a group of friends. Red roses will provide the decorative note and bridge will be in play during the afternoon.

Covers will be placed for Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Miss Dorothea Steusloff, Mrs. Burton Myers, Mrs. Dan McLellan, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. George Croisan, Mrs. William J. Busick, Mrs. Herbert Stiff, sr., and Mrs. McElhinny.

Mrs. Karl B. Kugel is entertaining with the first of a series of spring parties on Monday afternoon at her North Capitol street home. Guests have been invited to luncheon at 1:30 o'clock with several hours of contract bridge following.

WOMEN'S Society * Clubs * Music The Oregon Statesman SECTION

REFLECTIONS of school days are seen by the above group of Salem high school senior girls. Left to right are Carolyn Brady, Rosemary Billings, Helen Wilhelm, Delvon Long and Barbara Belt.

"IT'S FAREWELL TO WILLAMETTE" for the three seniors at the right, as they walk from historic Waller hall following senior chapel. They are members of Willamette's centennial graduating class. Left to right are Carolyn Brown, Marjorie Waters and Esther Mae Devore.—Photos by Statesman society department.

On Diploma Day...

High school and Willamette university graduates will participate in commencement festivities this week. Concluding graduation activities for the high school students will be the annual junior-senior prom on Friday night in the gymnasium. Chuck Regan's orchestra will play for the formal affair from 7 to 10 o'clock. Miss Mary East, vice president of the junior class, is prom chairman and announces that the decorative theme will be kept a secret until that evening.

Only juniors and seniors may attend the prom, although each senior is entitled to bring an outside guest as an escort. Members of the high school faculty, their wives and husbands will be special guests. Patrons and patronesses include parents of the junior class officers and those of the associated student body. Faculty advisors for the host class are Mrs. Grace Hockett, Mrs. Mary B. Smith and Mr. Glade Follis.

Committee for the prom are as follows: theme, Bill Burns, chairman, Jean Rowland, Shirley Ann Bailey, Bette Jean Simmons, Winsor Acton; decorations, Lillian Oliver, chairman, Herbert Ray, Mary Jane Kestly, Doris Duffy, Pat Sears, Bland Simmons; orchestra, Bernice Bowersox, chairman, Charlotte Cohen, Virginia Covert, Robert Brown; dance programs, Elizabeth McGee, chairman, Lizbeth Kennedy, Marian Lou Wampler, Janet Halik; patrons and patronesses, Lois Barrick, chairman, Janice Lemmon, Evelyn Johnson; tickets, Pat Leary, Robert Guderian; floor, Fritz Deckebach, chairman, Frank Bennett; publicity, Marion Macy, chairman, Jim Gilbertson, Lorraine Murdock; reception, Nancy Brown, chairman, Pat Fish, Betty Pierce; cleanup, Ronald Smith, chairman, Nyla Phillips, Ted Gordon, Landy Franz, Lora Kate Griffith, Jack Morgan and Lu-Della Luper.

Commencement Features

Willamette university centennial commencement activities will open Saturday morning with the senior class breakfast on the campus at 8 o'clock. Following the annual meeting of the board of trustees on Friday morning President and Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf will entertain the board at luncheon at University House.

The annual Willamette university faculty reception in honor of the graduates and their parents is slated for Saturday night at Lausanne hall from 8 to 10 o'clock. Invitations have been sent to seniors and their parents and a general invitation is being extended through the press to townspeople, alumni, trustees and students to attend.

Greeting guests at the door will be Dean and Mrs. Daniel Schulze, Dean and Mrs. Ray Smith, Dr. and Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist, Professor and Mrs. Herman Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erickson.

Dr. Helen Pearce and Dean Olive M. Dahl will introduce guests to the receiving line which will include Dr. and Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf, Dean and Mrs. Chester Luther and Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert.

Mrs. Frank Erickson, Mrs. William E. Kirk, Mrs. Ernest C. Richards and Mrs. Morton E. Peck have been asked to preside at the punch bowl during the evening and a group of junior girls will assist in serving.

Mrs. Chester F. Luther heads the committee in charge of arrangements and her committee includes Dean Olive M. Dahl, Mrs. Daniel Schulze, Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mrs. Robert M. Gatke, Miss Constance Fowler, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin, Mrs. Earl T. Brown, Mrs. Ernest C. Richards, Mrs. Egbert S. Oliver, Mrs. Herbert E. Rahn, Miss Lorena Jack and Miss Lois Latimer.

Breakfasts Served

The Beta Chi and Delta Phi sorority alumnae are planning their annual breakfasts for Sunday morning, May 31 at the Marion hotel. The all-university alumni luncheon will be held on the campus following the baccalaureate services Sunday morning. Seniors, their parents, alumni, faculty and trustees are invited to attend. Dr. Helen Pearce, president of the association, will preside and a business meeting will follow in the afternoon at Waller hall. The luncheon is taking the place of the usual banquet. Mrs. Verlin G. Coleman (Gwen Hunt) of Portland has invited guests to her annual commencement dinner at the Salem home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hunt. The group has been meeting annually for the past seven years.

A BEAUTIFUL SPRING tea was given at the home of Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Brand, Mrs. Ray A. Yocom and Mrs. David Wright entertained. The affair was given in honor of two attractive sisters, Miss Ruth Anunson, a bride-elect, and Mrs. Robert Gaston Brady, jr. (Jean Anunson).

Several hundred guests called between 3 and 5 o'clock. Miss Betty Anunson, wearing a green net frock over taffeta, opened the door. The rooms were festive with bouquets of sweet rocket, iris, peonies and roses. One bouquet was of wild azaleas sent to Mrs. Brand from Curry county.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Brand, who wore a flowered print crepe frock, Mrs. Yocom, who wore an all over print gown, Mrs. Wright in a flowered silk jersey dress. Miss Ruth Anunson, who will be married to Mr. Thomas B. Hill, jr., on May 31, was gowned in a flowered pique frock and Mrs. Brady wore white net with a printed bodice. Also receiving were Mrs. Fred Severene Anunson, the honor guest's mother, whose dress was of teal blue crepe, Mrs. R. G. Brady, sr., who wore a petal blue jacket frock and Mrs. Thomas B. Hill, sr., in an aqua crepe gown.

At either end of the tea table were copper tea services and the centerpiece was of talisman roses. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, Mrs. William L. Phillips, Mrs. George Rossman and Mrs. Ralph Mitchell. Serving were the Misses Roberta Jean Yocom, Mary Jane Kestly, Janice Nelson, Marjorie Hill, Helen Zielinski and Patricia Lamb. Assisting in the living room were Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. Charles Pratt and Mrs. Bruce W. Carlin.