Grom the BLEACHERS By AL LIGHTNER

According to a dispatch from "Outdoor Life," an army in hunting clothes, potentially seven million strong, stands ready to defend American soil from counter-invasion while our military might tackles the enemy overseas. Drawn from the nation's licensed hunters, these "Minute Men" are trained outdoorsmen and skilled riflemen who know every inch of their native countrysides, who can round up parachutists, snipe at invading troops, or wreck enemy communications with the same deadly effectiveness as the guerrillas of Russia and China.

And they are organizing fast. California hunters have flocked to the leadership of Brigadier General Paul B. Malone, USA, retired. The State Council of Defense in Pennsylvania, biggest hunting state, is considering plans for a civilian army of its own. Oregon has produced various groups, including one local unit at Tillamook numbering more than 1000 men. Washington has authorized the formation of State Guard reserve units by hunters, and Maine and Connecticut are contemplating official organization of Min-

In the opinion of the state adjutant generals, Minute Men groups in some form are already permissible in 25 states, while in nine there is still an uncertainty. The remaining 14 bar such activities by law, but legal action may break such laws as the Essence of the Minute Man idea is to have members work in very small groups, directed by higher officers, yet able to act on their own. Major battles, with a concentration of troops, would be left to the regular army or uniformed state troops. The Minute Men would serve strictly as guerrillas, whose chief value is as small, elusive units spread over a wide area.

The Bus Situation

Our neighboring Pioneer league is experiencing operating difficulties already this year, and along comes the "no more chartered buses" issue. Unlike the WI, in which all but one of the teams travel in privately owned vehicles, the Pioneer wheel depends almost entirely on travel via the commercial bus lines. Only two clubs in that circuit, Idaho Falls and Poca-

The bus restrictions will probably not bother the WI'ers, as three of the outfits, Salem, Spokane and Tacoma, bounce along in their own buses, and Vancouver makes its jumps in privately owned automobiles.

And according to a bulletin received by the Senators. gasoline rationing allowances are to be made to all baseball clubs—at least that's the situation at present.

There has been no allowances made as to rubber, however, although all the league vehicles are reportedly in good shape. The Tacoma bucket o' bolts took on a couple of retread jobs up in Vancouver recently—you can still get a tire at a time retreaded there.

Now if all the clubs would start retreading at the box offices, and Salem would start a climb toward the top-period. .The Pioneer wheel may drop from the six to the four club loop even yet, as Twin Falls has hauled up the "danger of el foldo" sign; and Owner Hadyn Walker of the Boise nine forgot to attend a special meeting the league had the other day. The loop had to lend Walker some sheckels to operate with this season, and the meeting was to "review the Boise situation." But Hadyn didn't show up.

Grounders & Pickups

If the way Earl Torgerson has been acting since his return to the WI is any indication, about two more just like him and the Injuns of Spokane won't be the league's cousins any more . . . Pres. Clarence "Pants" Rowland of the Los Angeles Angels will pass through town this week to "talk turkey" with Lefty Jack Richards, and the Senator office department will also talk a little turkey with "Pants" on the same subject . . . Don't be surprised to see Frankie Dierickz wheeling for the Solons before long, but not for very long. Frankie has a six week vacation from Creighton U and has indicated that he's ready to return to the Senator fold for the duration of his vacation. And Frankie would surely help the faltering mound corps—even if only for six weeks . . . They say the reason the Los Angeles Angels are atop the PCL is because Manager Jigger Statz has the same kind of ball club "Pepper" Martin had at Sacramento last season—"they all hit and run like—"

. . . Dwight Catherwood, ex-Bearcat baseballer now outfielding for Medford in the California-Oregon league, has been deferred by his draft board and won't be called to service until September at least . . . Looks like Chuck Henson, sporting a .400 plus batting average for Tacoma, is going to make "leading a league" two years in a row. Chuck was swat-king in the Pioneer last year. Incidentally, Henson raps the Solon pitchers just like he owns 'em . . .

EUGENE, Ore., May 23-(AP)-The University of Oregon won its second consecutive conference Northernern division baseball title Saturday, defeating Oregon State college, 4 to 3, in ten innings.

Shortstop Bob Farow singled Second Baseman Don Kirsch home for the winning run with two out in the tenth.

Washington's sixth loss of the season Saturday to Washington State assured the Webfoots, who have but four defeats, of the crown. The Webfoots have one remaining game, against Oregon State at Corvallis Monday.

The Beavers tied the count in the ninth when Don Strode tripled and scored on Doug Pederson's third single of the game. The hit sent Righthander Nick Begleries to the showers and moved Johnny Bubalo over to the mound. The Webfoot allaround performer let down the Orangemen without a hit for the remainder of the contest.
