The KOAC Home Garden hour program, given from 2 until 2:30 p.m. each Thursday over KOAC, has had full cooperation of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs and many KOAC garden clubs have been formed by small groups of women who gather to hear and discuss radio programs. Don't Look Now..

but... here's something interesting. Mrs. Mark McCallister, Corvallis, formerly of Salem, writes about the graduating generations of her family. Her father, Hugh McNary Finley (whose brother William was OSC's first president) graduated in the second class, 1871. His children, Ross, Edna (Buchanan) and Ada (McCallister) also graduated from OSC as three of the four second-generation graduates. These two new graduates, Doris McCallister Colner and Alan McCallister are, according to the letter, the first third-generation graduates to get degrees from the college.

Speaking of records... here's another. Marilyn Coretto, high school graduate of this year, who also went to school in Arizona and California, has only missed 8 1/2 days of school since she began her education. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Coretto.

Bridal procession... what was it, two million brides last year? June is the month of brides you remember, so expect a lot this June.

Good time... last week a family of our acquaintance spent all Sunday afternoon driving around at 20 miles an hour. All agreed that they saw more of the country that afternoon than they had ever seen on a 200-mile trip at 50 miles an hour. Reminds us of the days we drove in the surrey and had time to identify birds in the trees and pick wild flowers along the road.

and... Old Fred stopped for a deep drink at every watering trough along the road... Maxine Buren.
