Unique Festival Scheduled
 The accordion teachers of the state are holding their first state accordion festival in Salem Monday, June 8. Twenty-five accordion studios are affiliated, and have registered 125 students to take part in the concert being held in the Leslie high school auditorium that night.

A feature of the day will be the teachers' luncheon at the Spa. Special guests will be Mrs. J. H. Perth of Portland, state president of the Federated Music clubs; Jessie Bush-Mickelson, Salem president of the Federated Music clubs; Miss Frances Virginia Melton, state president of the Music Teachers association; Mrs. Walter Denton, state chairman of Music week; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Purerker, of Medford. Guest artist will be Luigi Rangan, accordionist, of Portland.

Hospitality has been arranged to accommodate all out-of-town students and teachers. General headquarters for the festival will be at the Priscilla Meisinger studios.

Governor Charles A. Sprague will deliver the address of welcome at the evening concert and Wes McWain will act as master of ceremonies. Raymond Carl will conduct the massed band finale.

Honor Couple At Party
 Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Houser, married recently in Wessing Springs, South Dakota, were given a welcoming party last week by young people of the Free Methodist church. Mr. Houser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Houser of Salem, drove east for the wedding on May 18 and the newly married couple accompanied them back to Oregon.

The bride, the former Gwendolyn Bonney of Wessing Springs, is a niece of Mrs. W. H. Zimmerman of Salem. They will live somewhere in Oregon. The groom just graduated from the theological school in the South Dakota city.

Miss Edith Schryver, president of the Salem Garden club, has called a meeting of all committee members of the club and assisting Garden clubs for the state convention to be held here this month, at the American Legion home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Outdoors Is Place for Meals
 Decoration day opens a new year for homemakers, for it officially opens the picnic season, the time when families dine on paper plates, eat potato salad—and love it.

This year picnics will be backyard affairs although some families will bicycle to the nearby countryside. Happy indeed is the family who has a backyard livingroom and diningroom already fixed up for staying at home for outdoor meals.

One of the nicest things about backyard eating is that father and the boys will help set the table and carry trays out, even though they are used to sitting by while mother sets the dining table when indoors. Then there's the matter of dishes and paper plates. Paper is handy to use outdoors, and saves time in dishwashing and laundering.

A husky salad, a good hot casserole and a refreshing beverage are topped off by a fruity dessert to make a simple and satisfactory menu for outdoors.

Make plenty, for appetites have a way of gaining as the meal progresses. Seconds should always be counted on.

So, although tires are at a premium, and gasoline is scarce, most families will find outdoor eating just as pleasant as ever and will indulge in this healthful sport frequently this spring and summer.

Here's one good casserole dish for picnics.

Wedding Is At Church
 Miss Jonnie Mae Sasser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hopkins, and Mr. Thomas Young Reynolds, were married at a quiet ceremony in the First Congregational church at 8:30 on Saturday night. Rev. Robert Hutchinson officiated.

The bride wore a beige suit and a gardenia corsage. She was attended by Miss Lola Weekly. Mr. Paul Harrison was best man.

Reception for Graduates
 A reception was given in the Bungalow Christian church on Sunday to honor six young people graduated from the high school. They are Elaine Evans, Hazel Larson, Patricia Kenny, Erwin Winkender, Darrell Tennis and Donald Armstrong.

Red and white roses formed the decorations. Pouring were Mrs. W. H. Lyman and Mrs. B. F. Showmaker. Serving were Yvonne Walters, Doris Kruger, Joyce Samuel, Chrystal Struckmeier, Mrs. T. Gosser, Mrs. North and Mrs. Burke. Music was furnished by Mrs. Mary Randall and Miss Mary Weller, pianists, Mrs. Alvin Potter, Miss Beverly Lyman and Miss Yvonne Walters, vocalists.

Today's Menu
 Celery and carrot salad will make a good beginner for this meal that includes a casserole dish. Canned berries will make dessert.

Carrot and celery salad
 Beef, cheese and tomato supper dish
 Buttered new potatoes
 Youngberry pie

BEEF, CHEESE AND TOMATO SUPPER DISH
 4 tablespoons butter
 2 cups dried beef
 1/2 pound grated cheese
 1/2 cup evaporated milk or cream
 3 tomatoes

Pan fry shredded beef in the butter. Add a dash of pepper. Cook three minutes or until beef is browned. Place in a buttered baking dish. Slice tomatoes and spread over beef. Cook slowly the grated cheese and milk, stirring until smooth. Pour over tomatoes and dried beef. Cook 30 minutes in a moderate oven (350) degrees. Serve on buttered toast, with a green vegetable and spiced crab apple. This makes an excellent luncheon dish. Serves 6 to 8.
