From the BLEACHERS

By AL LIGHTNER

More smell is coming from the tepee of the Spokane Indians, and it isn't from the stockyards next to the ball park either. Seems that owner Bill Ulrich isn't at all happy over the way Seattle recalled Earl Torgeson. To-wit, Bob Johnson of the Spokane Chronicle writes:

"That off-again-on-again working agreement between Spokane and Seattle appears headed for the ashcan for keeps as Ulrich sizzles over the recent conning that saw Seattle recall Earl Torgeson after leaving him in the Spokane camp for seven days."

"When the deal was brewing—whereas Torgeson would be sent to Spokane only if played in the outfield and nowhere else—it was agreed to by both sides."

"Torgeson was to be recalled to Seattle if any of the outfielders were injured. Then came the AP story that Outfielder Spencer Harris was injured. Seattle recalled Torgeson—and this is what burns Ulrich most—Seattle sold first sacker Les Scarcella and pushed Torgeson into the first base job."

"Earl was sent to Spokane so he could play every day as an outfielder and then, just as he started hitting, Seattle apparently decided Torgie was the answer—not as an outfielder but at first base."

Plenty of Points

They don't allow the Big Ten footballers to play any post season games or go to one of the New Year's day bowls, but the fine track teams which will represent the west in its annual post season clash with the cream of the Big Ten conference June 16 should certainly uphold the superiority of the west—at least as far as track is concerned.

The first two finishers in each of the events in last Saturday's Coast conference meet at Seattle are the lucky lads who will represent the conference, and here they are with the times they turned in for the respective events Saturday:

100—Leroy Weed (USC) and Noel Williams (WSC)—4:15.1. 440—Cliff Bourland and John Wachtler (USC)—47.3. 100—Hal Davis (Cal) and Jack Trout (USC)—2:0. 120-yard high hurdles—John Biewener, (USC) and Pat Haley (WSC)—14.7. 880—Gene Swaney (W) and Warren Smith (USC)—1:55.5. 220—Davis (Cal) and Bourland (USC)—2:16. Two-mile—Ralph Dewey (Cal) and Vic Drygall (Idaho)—9:20.3. 220-low hurdles—Ed Hertel (Stan) and Dick Browning (USC)—23.6. Mile relay—Bourland and Wachtler (USC), John Long (Wash) and George Stevens (Cal)—3:16.4. Pole vault—Roy Maggard (UCLA) and Russ Peck (Stan) and Willard Schaefer (USC)—13 feet 6 inches. Shotput—Ed Stamm (Stan) and Carl Merritt (USC)—50 feet 7 1/2 inches. Broad jump—Don Findlay (OSC) and Ken Wren (USC)—23 feet 11 1/2 inches. High jump—Seares Tally and Forrester Greene (USC) and Verne Hart (Stan)—6 feet 3 inches. Discus—Merritt (USC) and Milo Anderson (Idaho)—151 feet 3 1/2 inches.

And a 440-yard relay team which should show the boys of the Big Ten how to fly low—Browning and Trout of USC, Bob Smith of Washington, and Hal Davis of California. They didn't run a 440-yard relay Saturday at Seattle, but when those four start passing the batons at Northwestern, hold onto your hats.

Records Approved

And speaking of Sprinter Davis, word comes out of San Francisco that the Pacific side of the AAU voted formal approval of his recent 34 century along with Cornelius Warner-dam's 15 feet 6 1/2 inch vault at Berkeley, and also Warty's 15 feet 7 1/2 inch accomplishment at Modesto. The marks will now be presented to the AAU convention for approval.

Hammerin' Henry Wins Comeback

SAN JOSE, Calif., June 2.—(AP) Henry Armstrong, former world champion in three divisions, started back along the comeback trail Monday night with a technical knockout in the fourth round over Johnny Taylor of Oakland. Taylor was substituting for Cecilio Lozada.

Armstrong, once owner of the feather, lightweight, and welter titles, was scheduled to go over a 10-round course but cut it short and sweet.

When Armstrong lost the last of his simultaneously held titles, rumors of near blindness followed the great little negro from the ring. Physicians representing the state athletic commission tested him thoroughly before tonight's fight and certified him in condition.

Gordon Climbs Back Atop Amerk Batting

CHICAGO, June 2.—(AP)—Second Baseman Joe Gordon of the New York Yankees took advantage of a batting slump during the week by his arch rival, Second Baseman Bobby Doerr of the Boston Red Sox, to climb into the American league hitting leadership.

While Doerr, last week's leader, was getting only 10 blows in 39 trips, Gordon came through with 11 in 34 to push his average to .380, ten points above the faltering Bobby who fell into second place. The averages are computed through Sunday games.

Both the leaders cooled off considerably however. A week ago Doerr was clipping a .441 and Gordon was hitting .397. The Red Sox swatter still held the lead last Thursday but, he connected with the ball only eight times in 26 attempts thereafter. Gordon meanwhile, had made 7 in 19 trips.

Bill Dickey, New York catcher, was in third place with .365; followed by Washington's Stan Seaver with .360 and Boston's John Pesky and Ted Williams with .342 and .340.

Nats Submerge Brownies' 4-1

WASHINGTON, June 2.—(AP) Youthful Early Wynn checked the surging St. Louis Browns Tuesday night, limiting them to four hits as Washington pounded Denny Galehouse and Loy Hanning for 11 hits and 4-1 victory. George McQuinn presented the Browns their only run in the seventh inning when he blasted a home run over the right field fence.

Dodgers Still On Rampage, Rout Pirates

PITTSBURGH, June 2.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers went on a rampage Tuesday to scuttle the Pittsburgh Pirates 17 to 2 with a 20-hit barrage while Rookie Les Weber subdued the Buccaneers to five safeties.

It was the tenth straight setback for the Pirates and their 16th in 18 games extending back to May 14 when they cruised into Brooklyn as a challenging second place club and dropped an entire three-game series.

Pete Kelsner made five consecutive hits—a home run, three doubles and a single—but suffered a slight injury to his left ankle while sliding into the plate in the seventh inning and retired from the contest without getting a chance at the modern major league record of six hits in succession in one game.

Giants Tromp On Cubs, 5-1

CHICAGO, June 2.—(AP)—Unlucky Hal Schumacher found the percentages in his favor Tuesday and pitched the New York Giants to a 5 to 1 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The Giants made 13 hits, 12 of them off Big Bill Lee before he was replaced by Vern Olsen in the seventh when New York sewed up the decision with a three-run spurge.

John Mize, Mel Ott and Willard Marshall each made three hits and Schumacher himself made two and it was the pitcher's single which opened the big seventh.

Riddle Victim To Phils, 1-0

CINCINNATI, June 2.—(AP) Young Elmer Riddle and Veteran Si Johnson hurled shutout ball at each other for nine innings Tuesday, but cellar-dwelling Philadelphia took advantage of a Cincinnati error in the tenth to win, 1 to 0.

Two singles, substitute Third Baseman Joe Abreau's miff of Alban Glossop's bunt and Tommy Livingston's outfield fly produced the winning tally—a victory that as easily might have been the Reds in the ninth had Abreau done better than hit into a double killing.

American League Sendoff to Jimmy Foxx Slap to Great Player, Says Whit Martin

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Wide World Sports Columnist
NEW YORK, June 2.—Caught short:

That was quite a sendoff Jimmy Foxx got from the American league, with seven clubs waiving good-bye. The transaction sending Jimmy to the Chicago Cubs provided another illustration of the porous qualities of the waiver rule. According to the rule the other American league clubs could claim him for the $7500 waiver price, and Jimmy Foxx is worth $7500 to any club just to sit on the bench and look mean.

Tom Yawkey probably told the other club owners he had a chance to get a nice price for Foxx from the Cubs, and if the other clubs would waive on him he'd return the favor some day. If they refused, he'd just withdraw the waiver, so all the other clubs could do without endangering possible future deals of their own was to agree.

Odell Names Assistants at Yale for '42

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 2.—(AP)—Howard Odell, Yale's new head football coach, Tuesday night named three of his assistants, Ed Hirschberg of East Keenport, Pa., Judson A. Timm of Twin Falls, Idaho and Stuart Clancy of Branford.

Hirschberg, captain of Pittsburgh's powerful 1931 eleven, was head coach at the University of West Virginia and Timm, former Illinois backfield ace, was in charge of football at Moravian college. Clancy, former Holy Cross star, played professional football until recently.

Bevos Bopped By San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 2.—(AP)—San Diego drubbed Portland, 8 to 0, in possibly the final Coast league night baseball game here for the duration. The fate of night baseball rests with an inspection made of the park's lighting facilities Tuesday night by military officials concerned with dim-out observance.

Indians Hit Back at Sox, Win 7 to 2

BOSTON, June 2.—(AP)—After taking four setbacks, the Cleveland Indians defeated the Boston Red Sox Tuesday for the first time this season and they did it most decisively, for they banded out 14 hits, including two home runs, for a 7-2 triumph.

While every Cleveland player shared in the victory by making at least one hit, the veteran Mel Harder held the Red Sox scoreless until the ninth inning, when they bunched three of their six hits to escape a shut-out.

Jeff Heath and Les Fleming each belted their sixth homers of the season against starter Charley Wagner, who was yanked for a pinch hitter in the sixth and was replaced by Joe Dobson.

The absence of Jimmy Foxx, sold to the Chicago Cubs yesterday, was jeered by some of the fans in the skimping crowd of 2717.

Tacoma Halts Vancouver's Victory Drive

TACOMA, June 2.—(AP)—Vancouver's drive in the direction of the Western-International league lead was at least temporarily checked when the Tacoma Tigers, given some flossy left-handed pitching by Chet Johnson, defeated the Capitanos 4 to 0 in their series opener here Tuesday night.

The victory sent the Tigers three full games ahead of the second-place Vancouver tossers who had previously chopped three and a half games from Tacoma's margin in a week's time.

Dave Molitor, Tacoma's rookie third baseman, drove in the Tigers' first three runs, singling with the bases loaded in the first inning and clouting a towering triple in the third after Roy Younker had doubled.

Molitor crossed the plate a moment later with the final run of the game on Pat Rooney's single.

Johnson kept seven Vancouver hits well scattered, allowing no more than one per inning.

Senators Drop Overtime, 4 to 3

Costly Boot in Tenth Gives Dierickx Loss; Suspensions, Axe Fly on Solon Roster

By AL LIGHTNER

Pitcher Frankie Dierickx returned to the George E. Waters park pitching mound Tuesday night for the first time this season, but he didn't bring his luck with him and lost his debut to the Spokane Indians 4 to 3 in ten innings of baseball opener full of sparkling plays.

Although considerably wild, natural in such a first appearance, Frankie hurled an even terms with Spokane's Big A. Murray O'Flynn for nine heats, but a two-base error by Shortstop Johnny Granato to open the tenth frame put the winning tally on second, and three plays later it crossed the plate on an infield out.

Granato had been turning in some brilliant plays during the series opener, but just happened to kick one when it hurt most. Dierickx's wildness and a big thorn in Salem's side all season—first sacker Vic Buccola—brought the Indians three big tallies in the third, and the more O'Flynn worked, the bigger they looked. Murray opened it with a hit, and Stan Gray got a bloop to left in between a couple of outs. Frankie then walked Hansen and Buccola promptly unloaded the sacks with his double high against the right field fence.

Salem picked up one in the third and another in the fourth on a walk, Alf Cailteaux' triple, three errors and Skeet O'Connell's infield hit.

It was O'Connell's rousing double that started the rally to tie the game all up in the ninth, too. He and Eddie Adams, two more debuters, teamed for that one, Eddie's shot to center counting O'Connell. But then came the tenth inning.

Sparkling plays were turned in by Big Bill Johnson on third, who picked himself up a "five-spot" with a terrific wall-lop against the stiff sign in left-center, good for three bases, Granato, Manager Pete and Buccola.

The win brought the Indians up even-steven with the Salems in the percentage columns, each team having won 15 and lost 21.

Diminutive Del Schroer was handed his outright release before the game, and Clint Cameron, Joe Gonzales and Con Rasmussen were placed on the suspended list to make room for Dierickx, Adams and O'Connell.

The two clubs square off in the second game of the series tonight at 8 p.m. and either Ron Smith or Kenny Clow will hurl for our Senators. There will be a double header starting at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Wildlife Service Purchases Land

LAKEVIEW, June 2.—(AP)—Purchase of 5800 acres within the Hart mountain antelope refuge by the US fish and wildlife service from Lake county was announced Tuesday by the forestry.

A series of tax foreclosures over 15 years gave the land to the county which sold it for $2 an acre. The land was purchased in 1909 by speculators, subdivided, and sold in 10 and 20-acre tracts throughout the world. Fifteen years ago Lake county had 15,000 taxpayers and 5000 residents. The number of taxpayers still exceeds the number of residents.

Police Try Masks

PORTLAND, June 2.—(AP)—Portland police and auxiliaries received gas masks Tuesday. Detective W. B. Odale, in charge of distribution, said 1460 were on hand.

Red Cross Yarn Awaits Workers

PERRYDALE—A large quantity of army yarn for Red Cross knitting allotted to this end of the county and anyone that knits or wishes to learn can get yarn at the home of Mrs. Robert Mitchell. Those who wish to learn to knit can get free instruction from Mrs. Loren Gilson as she has volunteered to help.

This shipment of yarn is needed to be knit as soon as possible for it goes to service men who are in the colder climates. There are sweaters, mufflers, helmets, gloves and cap mufflers to be done.

Suver Folk Called to Relative's Funeral
