Grow the BLEACHERS Solons Take Two From Spokane

Who's responsible for whipping the George E. Waters ball park into the finest shape it's been in since becoming the home of our Senators? Mr. Frank Simons, machinist, carpenter, bowler, turf authority (ball par' variety), and general handy man. Whenever a fence needs fixin' or a sign needs touching up, Frank's the gent who does it, along with all his other chores grass a hair cut, keeping hot water on hand for battered pitchers Apart, 8 to 2 expanses of the 25th and Turner road enclosure.

And Frank, not unlike the many old-timers who take in the games, still leves to pick up a bat and take a few licks when he has time now and thenit's still in his blood. He can still rap that ball, too, although it's a considerable effort to throw it or go chase it with any degree. But through his winter efforts, silver thaw and all, Frank has the park in the best shape it's seen - despite the terrific handicaps which were left when the orchard was built and laid out.

The Bums' Rush?

We could be wrong, but it appears that Woodburn Bill Hanauska got the "Bum's" rush after inking that Dodger contract. Bill was all set to go to Dayton, Ohio, in the Mid-Atlantic league, but word sneaks in that he was pent to Santa Barbara of the Cali- Cards Bounce fornia State league instead.

But if he got the $1000 he was supposed to get for signing with Braves to Brooklyn, he can afford to go to Ipswitch of the Wyoming Prairie Hold Second league for at least a year.

Don't forget to turn in your first round scores this Sunday if you're planning on taking a whack at the two cups in the first annual Salem Golf club's handicap tourney. And from the looks of things, it should be an ideal day for an 18-hole tour of Erc Kay's layout.

Moore, Clow Hurl Wins as Mates Run Win Streak to 3

Warren, Johnson Heroes of First Salem Twin Win of Year; Bill Steals Home Off Kittle Again

By AL LIGHTNER

It took three hours and thirty minutes of Western International league double header at George E. Waters park last night. but our Senators came through in both ends of the bill for their first twin win of the season, dropping the Spokane Indians further into the WI cellar, 4 to 2 and 6 to 4.

Bud Moore and Kenny Clow were the respective winners-Moore's his fifth of the season against three losses, and Clow's his second win against four setbacks.

Bud's effort was a neat sixhitter, and although he walked four and found himself in hot water on oceasions, struck out seven Spokes when it counted. He was helped out of one jam in the eighth with an Indian on second and one out when Jack Warren came up with the play of the night - a tremendously difficult running eatch of Buccola's long drive into left center that left the 800-odd fans gasping. It was a sparkler if there

That was enough to win the ball game, but hustling Bill, after actually scaring Kittle into two quick pitches to Richards, deliberately stole home again on Hub with Salem's sixth and fina lrun. Bill's theft of home Wednesday also helped defeat Kittle. It was Johnson's perfect three for three that paced the second win, and Granato's double and triple which helped Moore to his win, all five blows coming when runs were needed.
