Indoor Program Plan For Holiness Groups

Rev. Hubert Mardock of Greenleaf, Idaho, has been secured as the evangelist for the annual camp-meeting of the Marion County Holiness association to be held June 18 to 23. In former years this camp has been held at the Quinby Park camp ground, but war conditions and other factors have made it advisable to conduct the camp indoors this year. It will be held at the First Nazarene church, 13th and Center streets, in Salem.

A full schedule of services has been arranged with the Rev. Mr. Mardock who will preach each afternoon at 2:30 and each evening at 7:45.

Lord's Prayer Scenes

The pageant "Teach Us to Pray" will be performed by 30 children at 10 a.m. in the auditorium of the First Baptist church Sunday, June 14. The pageant will depict the eight different scenes of the Lord's Prayer. Children of the four departments will be included in the chorus.

Record Attendance For Bible School

Enrollment at the First Presbyterian vacation church school climbed to 286 during the Thursday morning session, according to figures given out by Elizabeth McGee, secretary for the school.

A record enrollment of 92 pupils was recorded this year by the junior department with Harold Douris as superintendent. His assistants were Betty Zo Allen, Pat Moore, Shirley Parker, Pat Sears, Maxine Wagner, Peg Sears, Phyllis Nelson, Feral Kellogg, Shirley Boucher and Lois Barrick. The daily attendance cup presented to the department with best attendance went for the second consecutive day to the intermediate department headed by Mrs. Arthur Bates. Her assistants were Beverly Douris, Vernon Merrick, Jean Fidler and Dale Bates.

Missionary to China Will Tell of His Work

Rev. E. B. Ward, missionary to China now on furlough and residing at Philomath, will speak at both services this Sunday at the Englewood United Brethren church. Rev. Ward recently returned from China and will tell of first-hand experiences of life in China under the Japanese occupation.

His daughter, whose safety was imperiled when war with Japan was declared, recently escaped to Kwangtung in unoccupied China, but she lost all her personal goods to the advancing troops.

Vacation Bible School Planned

A daily vacation Bible school will be held at the Christian and Missionary Alliance, North 5th and Gaines, commencing Monday at 9 a.m., for all children under 16 years of age.

The trained and experienced staff in charge of the school will be headed by Miss Janet Theadore who has for a number of years been on the faculty of the Simpson Bible institute in Seattle.

MILL CITY—The Daily Vacation Bible school closed Friday with a program in the evening.

Rev. Pryor Smith Will Talk on Mission Work

Rev. Pryor T. Smith, son of Rev. James Aikin Smith, will speak at the church in Gervais Sunday at 11 o'clock. Conditions in Colombia, South America, where he was a missionary for 15 years, will be discussed.

He is now home on furlough and is not sure about returning to South America, but may take a church in the United States.
