

Co-eds Are Home for Summer

Salem co-eds, who have been attending schools in other states, are returning daily to the capital to spend the summer months with their families. Students from the state schools were home the first of June.

Miss Betty Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, arrived home Tuesday for Palo Alto, Calif., where she completed her junior year at Leeland Stanford. She will be at the country home of her parents this summer.

Miss Frances Paris, daughter of Mr. R. D. Paris, is home from Madison, Wisconsin, where she attended the University of Wisconsin the past year.

Miss Marylee Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr., will arrive in the capital this weekend from Seattle where she has been attending the University of Washington. Miss Fry is a Kappa Kappa Gamma member.

Miss Flavia Downs, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs, who has been in Chicago this winter, has left for the west coast and is coming by way of Louisiana and California. She plans to visit in Los Angeles with former school friends and arrive in Salem late this month. Miss Downs has been studying and teaching music this year and plans to return to Chicago the end of the summer.

Miss Geiser Wins Honor

Miss Mary Jo Geiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Geiser, received a telegram from Vogue fashion magazine Thursday stating that she had won one of the twenty honorable mentions in the seventh annual Prix de Paris contest for college seniors throughout the United States.

Miss Nancy Flagg of Smith college received the first prize. The contest included a series of four journalistic quizzes and final theses written by the contestants. Miss Geiser is a senior at Willamette university and a member of Beta Chi sorority. She has been active in journalistic work on the campus.

Church Group In Session

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church met Thursday with 26 in attendance.

The president, Mrs. I. W. Herbert, conducted a business session. Mrs. Leon Lambert lead a devotional service, after which Mrs. L. A. Dunn read a letter from Dr. Cheney, a missionary evacuee from Burma. Mrs. E. S. Jones presented the Reading circle work, and also introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Carl Wigle, who gave a lecture on Latin America.

Other visitors were Mesdames I. I. Johnson, Erwin Scheidele and Mary Blumette. Hostesses were Mrs. Henry Cross and Mrs. Mattie Clark.
