From the BLEACHERS By AL LIGHTNER

You can come out now, Mr. Sol-the Senators left town early Monday morning; so there's nothing to keep hiding from. Speaking of the Senators, their recent home stay was just about the most successful they've ever enjoyed, and when the boys took out for Vancouver they had it all figured out like this: "If we can do as well against the Caps as we've just done against Spokane and Tacoma, we should be leading the league by the time we pull into Portland next Monday night to take

He'll Help Uncle Sam

That was a nice sendoff the 800-odd fans gave Jimmy Robertson on Sunday when he came to bat for the first time against the Tigers, but Del Holmes' personal sendoff to Jimmy the last time he came to bat officially wasn't exactly a slap on the back-although it was a hit on the back-with a pitched ball. But Jimmy didn't mind, as it came during that terrific seventh

Just about the finest piece of go-get-'em we've seen happened in that game Sunday when Holmes attempted to bunt and the ball blooped off toward first base in quite foul territory. Both Jimmy and Jack Richards tore for it and when Jack saw he couldn't get near it, encour-

The Top's the Spot

What a first place ball club can do for the attendance figures! Take the Seattle Rainiers at this end, for instance, and the Sacramento Senators at the other end of the Coast league. Seattle picked up the recognition of being the hottest drawing city in the PCL when the Rainiers were waltzing to all these pennants. But the Sickmen are tripping around in the second division now, and do the red-hot Rainier fans stay away from Sick's stadium? What do you think. But Sacramento, itself a pushover during the first two or three weeks of the season, and on the bottom at one time, has now driven right up on top of the heap. Result? Packed stands for the WESTERN INTERNATIONAL Solon games the last three times.

Take even Spokane in the WI. You never hear of those five to eight-thousand crowds at Ferris field any more-not now because the Indians are about as far behind the rest of the clubs as they

Everyone likes a winner in anything-particularly in baseball it

Wonder how Mr. Salem fan will turn out should our Senators hit the top?

MT. ANGEL-Sublimity came to Mt. Angel Sunday for a Willamette Valley league ball game, but got an 11-0 wracking from the Angels for entertainment. Angel pitcher Bourbonnais limited the Sublimitys to four scattered hits and struck out 13. The Angels in the meantime were combing two Sublimity pitchers for 16 blows and playing errorless ball.

Not a Dodger got beyond second base and only two reached that point as Passeau, facing the 1941 pennant winners for the first time this year, handcuffed them completely from start to finish, leaving 15,159 fans loaded with gloom. The husky righthander retired the first eighteen men to face him in order.

Meantime the Cubs, whipping the Dodgers for only the second time this season, landed on young Ed Head, Johnny Allen and Larry French for a dozen hits. Our Senators were in second place in the WI standings Sunday, in second place for two hours and ten minutes. They of the circuit's leading batsmen. got there after Frankie Dierickx racked his third straight victory in the opener, 8 to 1, defeating Charlie Schanz and limiting the Tacomans to five safe blows. Cailteaux doubled, Holmes hit Robertson, Adams batted for Smith and singled, Granato singled. Leininger flew to left field, Warren singled, Johnson was safe on Molitor's error, Richards flew to deep center and Manager Pete cracked a triple. Pete was the tieing run with two out. Schanz evidently tried to put too much on his first pitch to Cailteaux and the ball went up against the stands, Petersen scoring with the tieing run. The 800-odd fans were by this time going wild, as Tacoma had pounded Smith for ten hits, and although Salem had rapped Holmes for seven, the situation had seemed hopeless.

Schanz, already the loser in the first game, now stood a good chance of having his second defeat of the day hung on him. But he got Caliteaux on a roller and "Pappa" Burton Swope, with the trials and tribulations of his new two-day old baby daughter behind him, took up the Senator mound

Swoopie got by the eighth in fine shape and Salem came to bat. Schanz walked Robertson and Swope bunted him to secend. Then Johnny Granato, who had surprised everyone in the park, including himself, by rapping four straight hits off Holmes, found Schanz' curves too tough and fanned. Leininger hit a high one to left to retire the side, and Salem's chances of making it six straight wins, four straight doubleheader wins, Swope's fifth win and a second place slot went aglimmering.

The win-hungry Tigers wasted no time getting the winning run in the top of the ninth, Swope walking Lilly, LaForte bunting Hits him over and Rooney scoring him | Salem with a single to right.

Salem tried hard enough again with two down in the ninth, Lilly ing pitcher Swope. having made nice stops on both out to short but Manager Pete brought the rip-roaring struggle to close with his loft to Lo Forte.

Coast Stars Favorites In Spite of Fewer Men

EVANSTON, Ill., June 15-(AP)-Short on numerical strength but heavy in power, the Pacific coast conference's track stars are expected to score by a solid margin over the Big Ten's best in Tuesday's sixth annual dual meet between the two collegiate leagues in Northwestern university's Dyche stadium.
