

WOMEN'S

Society * Clubs * Music

The Oregon Statesman

SECTION

SEVERAL luncheon parties are on the social calendar for the coming week. Mrs. Douglas McKay is entertaining with a series of bridge luncheons at her home on Jervis avenue. A large group of matrons have been invited on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons.

Mrs. Edward K. Piesceki will preside at a one o'clock luncheon on Tuesday afternoon for a group of friends at her home on Cascade Drive. Several hours of bridge will be in play during the afternoon.

Mrs. A. L. Adolphson will be hostess for a series of parties this week at her D street home. On Tuesday afternoon she will share hostess honors with Mrs. Leslie R. Burdette at a bridge luncheon. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons Mrs. Adolphson will entertain at bridge luncheons for a large group of her friends.

Luncheon for Bride-Elect

Mrs. Robert W. Craig presided at a smartly arranged luncheon Saturday afternoon at her Court street home for the pleasure of her cousin, Miss Helen Dickey of Portland, a bride-elect.

Guests were seated at small tables covered with pink satin cloths and centered with bouquets of pink and blue flowers. Bridge was in play during the afternoon and a surprise bridal shower honored Miss Dickey.

Covers were placed for Miss Helen Dickey, Mrs. Josephine Treharne, Mrs. Verald Duckworth, Mrs. Edward R. Sullivan, Mrs. C. W. Cooper and Miss Nellie Tracey, all of Portland, Mrs. Wilson Siegmund, Mrs. Wayne Doughton, Mrs. M. Wilson Savage, Miss Dorothy Wilson, Miss Eleanor Trindle and Mrs. Craig.

Lieutenant Commander Verden E. Hockett is often seen walking down the steps of his South High street home with his sons, Jim and Bill, and on days off they work in their new rockery.

IN Washington, DC, on Monday afternoon Ensign Ralph Gordon Leedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Clark Leedy of Salem, will take as his bride Miss Elizabeth Ballou, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Ballou of Washington, DC. The ceremony will be performed at the Universalist National Memorial church at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. H. Jerome Graham will play the wedding music and Mrs. Vera Nealy Ross will sing "Because," "I Hear a Lark Singing" and "I Love Thee."

Mr. Ballou will give his daughter in marriage and for her wedding she will wear a handsome gown of ivory satin fashioned with a full skirt and court train. The bodice and long sleeves are of ivory Chantilly lace. Her matching tulle veil is over eight yards long and cascades from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet will be of white daisies and larkspur centered with white philonopsis orchids.

Miss Jean Yereance of Boston will be the maid of honor and preceding her to the altar will be a sextet of young girls, Miss Victoria Kissal, Miss Constance Smith, Miss Helen Miller, Miss Mary Lathrop, Miss Marjorie Moffitt and Miss Margaret Woods.

Their dresses are fashioned of marquisette and made with fitted waists and full skirts. The sleeves are bracelet length and a pleated ruffle outlines the hem of the skirt. Miss Yereance will wear aqua and the bridesmaids will be gowned in pastel yellow. They will wear shoulder length veils caught with clusters of flowers to match their dresses and carry bouquets of daisies.

Lieutenant Clark Leedy of Pensacola, Florida, will stand with his brother as best man. Ushers will be Annapolis classmates of Ensign Leedy and include Ensign William Everett, Ensign William Racette, Ensign Gordon Facer, Ensign Donald Perry, Ensign Tazwell Shepherd, jr., and Ensign Frederick Wortham.

The bride's mother will wear an Alice blue chiffon and lace gown and a matching horse hair hat for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Leedy, who with Mr. Leedy went east for their son's marriage, will wear a navy blue crepe dress with white embroidery trim and a small flowered hat. They both will wear corsages of yellow roses and smilax.

A reception in the gardens of the Ballou home will be held after the wedding, to which 250 guests have been invited. Ensign Leedy and his bride will go down into Virginia on their wedding trip before driving west to San Francisco where he will be stationed.

The bride attended American university and is a member of PEO. Her fiance attended Oregon State college where he was a Phi Gamma Delta member. He received his commission as Ensign from the United States naval academy on Friday. Miss Ballou, her parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Clark Leedy attended the graduation and June week festivities.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding are Lt. and Mrs. Clark Leedy of Pensacola, Florida, and Mrs. Ralph E. Wilson of Philadelphia, sister of Mrs. Leedy. Mrs. Leedy plans to visit with Mrs. Wilson for several weeks before returning west. Mr. Leedy will arrive in Salem the latter part of the month.

Father Has His Day...

Mr. Lee Crawford is pictured at the right in the garden of his home holding his two month old son, Tommy. Proud of their new baby brother are Stanley, left, and Stephen.

Off for a bicycle ride are Jimmy, left, and Eddie, pictured here with their father, Mr. Gardner Knapp. Mr. Knapp often takes his sons on fishing trips.

All photos by Kennell-Ellis

Mr. Thomas J. Drynan has three young sons, Tommy at the left, Bobby, and eleven month old, Douglas. The two older boys accompany their father to the playgrounds on nice days.

CORPORAL and Mrs. Roger Baker (Eleanor Perry) left by train Saturday night for Fort Monroe, Virginia, where Corporal Baker will attend officers' candidate school. The wedding of the young couple took place Saturday afternoon in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church.

It was at 3 o'clock that the vows were exchanged with Rev. George Herbert Swift officiating. Miss Josephine Bross sang presiding the ceremony and Miss Ruth Bedford played the wedding music.

Vases of cala lilies were arranged on the altar and on either side of the chancel were bouquets of white delphinium and white peonies.

The bride walked down the center aisle of the chapel on the arm of her father, Mr. A. C. F. Perry, who gave her in marriage. She wore a smart heaven blue gabardine suit and her white feathered pillbox hat was trimmed in navy blue veiling. Her accessories were white and navy blue. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink roses and sweetpeas encircled with a net frill.

Mrs. Steve Anderson was the bride's only attendant and she wore a mist pink sheer wool afternoon frock and white hat and accessories. She carried a nosegay of blue and white sweetpeas, delphiniums and rosebuds.

Mr. Dean Wright of Hood River was the best man for his cousin and ushers were Ensign John Lindbeck and Mr. Steve Anderson.

Mrs. Perry attended her daughter's wedding in a green, white and purple print sheer. Her accessories were black and her flowers were yellow roses and stephanotis. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar G. Baker and the latter wore a pastel blue and white print dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of roses.

Corporal and Mrs. Baker greeted the wedding guests in the foyer of the chapel after the ceremony.

The bride is a Willamette university graduate and a member of Delta Phi sorority. Her husband also attended Willamette and his fraternity was Alpha Psi Delta. He has been stationed at Fort Stevens.

Shirley Plant Is Married

Miss Shirley Plant is now Mrs. Donald Rasmussen. The wedding took place Saturday night at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Harry Plant. The 8 o'clock ceremony was read by Rev. Edward Allen. Mrs. Max Pemberton sang "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Dillon Mills was the accompanist.

The couple exchanged their vows before the fireplace which was decorated with bouquets of roses, peonies and Canterbury bells. The bride's twin sisters, Miss Phyllis and Miss Audrey Plant, lighted the candles and they wore yellow and blue pastel suits.

The bride chose a navy blue tulle for her wedding. The jacket was fashioned torso style and she wore a white sheer blouse and her accessories were navy and white. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of sweetpeas and pink rosebuds. Mr. Plant gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Herbert Rasmussen, jr. (Garnet Lansing) was the honor attendant and she wore a navy blue and white print dress with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of rosebuds and sweetpeas. Mr. Rasmussen served as his brother's best man.

At the reception which followed the wedding Mrs. Arthur Plant cut her niece's cake. Mrs. Clyde Beatty presided at the punch bowl and serving were Mrs. William Keene, Mrs. James Martfield, Miss Beverly Plant and Miss Janet Usher of Portland. The bride's table was centered with a crystal bowl filled with sweetpeas and rosebuds and flanked by white candles in crystal holders.

Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen left for a fortnight's trip after the reception and will make their home in Portland.