Orchid and yellow, the bride's favorite colors, were selected for the wedding and the altar was decorated with baskets of syringa, yellow and orchid larkspur and delphinium and peruvian lilies. White cathedral tapers in candelabras cast a soft glow over the church.

The radiant bride walked down the candlelight aisle on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Of white nylon chiffon was the bridal gown. The dress was designed with a full skirt which terminated in a court train. White lace enhanced the girde of the fitted waist and there were lace inserts on the shoulders and at the top of the gathered full length sleeves which ended in points over the wrists. The neck was sweetheart shape and from neckline to waistline in the back was a row of tiny buttons.

For something borrowed the bride wore the beautiful wedding veil of bridal illusion belonging to Mrs. George Shepherd (Suzanne Curtis) and which has been worn by five of her Beta Chi sorority sisters. The train length veil is enhanced with insertions of hand made lace and was arranged in her brunette hair with a wreath of white baby gladiolus blossoms and white bouvardia.

YOUR COUNTRY GIVES YOU A PRESCRIPTION
Keep Well!

Your Country means it, too, when it says that sound health has become a patriotic duty—the first contribution of a citizen who seeks to further the program of national preparedness. That's logical, isn't it? No nation, ailing and low-spirited ever put up an effective defense. What we need now is energy and optimism resulting from sound health and physical fitness. So, may we suggest that you go and see your Doctor without further delay. And, of course, we are well prepared to expertly compound his prescriptions.
