Independence Store Is

Entered Monday Night INDEPENDENCE - The Williams Drug store was entered and robbed Monday night, evidently in search of narcotics. Entrance was made through the office of Dr. George Herley, which is just

The office was entered by forcing a lock and the store was entered by cutting a hole 15 by 17 inches in size in the floor of the office to get into the store.

Detonate Gas Projectors

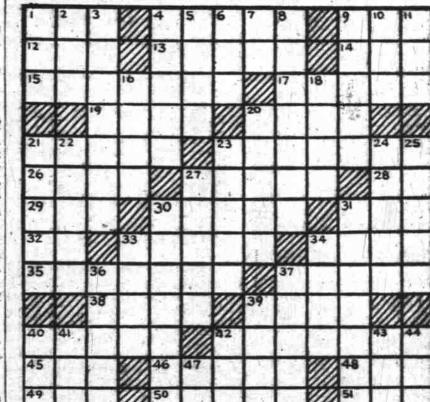

Soldiers of the army's chemical warfare service detonate defensive gas shell projectors to show how the cloud of gas blows up in the face of invading forces. A threatened point can be surrounded with the gas projectors in about three hours. This demonstration, part of a dis-play on the use of gas by soldiers at Edgewood Arsenal, Md., indicated preparedness to carry through any reprisals such as those mentioned by the president in his recent statement.

WATER AND STEAM-Ground up and devulcants scrap rubber is cleansed with hot water and steam in the Nauga-tuck, Conn., plant of a big rubber company. With impurities and excess chemical removed, it is now plastic.
