'No Comment' From Idaho on Possibility of Being Cut Off Coast Crid Scheds by Navy

MOSCOW, Idaho, June 30-(AP)-Possibility the University of Idaho might be dropped from California Coast conference football schedules this fall to accommodate the St. Mary's Navy team brought pointed "no comment" silences from University officials heard "either officially or unofhe was read news dispatches from Tigs Lose to San Francisco Tuesday.

"I obviously cannot comment on something of which I have no knowledge," he added. Other university members just didn't already adopted and it would change them. However, it was recalled Conference Commissioner Edwin Atherton last spring predicted there would be another conference meeting this year and it was expected the move might be considered then if it developed.

It was also pointed out the Coast conference schedules as they stand provide at least one open date for some conference team on each Saturday of the season starting September 25, and if the navy pre-flight school wants Coast conference games it can get all it can handle without wrecking the conference schedule to do it.
