

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

MISS LIBERTY AND OLD GLORY—Beneath the lowering Statue of Liberty hangs the Stars and Stripes of the U.S.A.

HARNESSING A RIVER—Looking upstream through a center spillway section in Shasta Dam near Sacramento, Calif., diversion of the Sacramento river into the concrete-walled channel at left can be seen. At right excavation continues.

TEARFUL GOODBYE—Bruce Corrigan cries as he says goodbye to brother Harvey who was leaving N. Y. for Scout camp.

'BATAAN' SYMPHONIST—Harl McDonald, Philadelphia symphony orchestra manager, who composed a tone poem named "Bataan," works at his desk beside portrait of Gen. Douglas MacArthur to whom the "Bataan" score was dedicated.

AQUATIC PAGEENTRY—Elyse Knox (center) appears with some of representatives from 48 states holding ribbons in a ceremony opening a new swimming pool in Los Angeles, Calif.

'PLAYER OF THE YEAR'—Ted Williams, Boston Red Sox outfielder, holds The Sporting News "Player of the Year" award. Lt. R. P. Fuller (third from left) enlisted Williams in navy.

A STROLL—Socialite Nancy Clark of Boston strolls at a swank swimming pool club in Beverly Hills, Calif.

GOAT TRIPLETS—Carolyn Smith displays Red Nubian goat triplets, two months old, at the San Fernando Valley Goat society's annual show at North Hollywood Park, Calif. These pedigreed pets won honors in the contest for blue ribbons.

ARMY NURSES' WINTER GEAR—Miss Kathleen M. Mulvihill of Philadelphia wears fur-lined wind and water resistant park, wool muffler, fur cap and combination fur-lined glove and mittens designed to protect Uncle Sam's army nurses in winter.

TIMEOUT—Mary Moore of Birmingham, Ala., who danced way to films, takes time to relax at a Beverly Hills, Calif., pool.

LAMP SHADE—A New York designer molded pale Virginia blue felt into this attractive lampshade hat.

CLOSEUP—This interesting closeup photograph of British Prime Minister Winston Churchill was made after the famous leader and orator returned to No. 10 Downing Street in London following his latest visit to the United States. He wears his familiar yachting cap. Churchill returned to face bitter criticism because of British reverses in Libya but won a vote of confidence.

QUEEN INSPECTS U. S. MARINES—England's Queen Elizabeth inspects U. S. Marines during visit to American troops in North Ireland. At right is the Duchess of Abercorn.